OBITUARY

ALBERT CLOW
Inserted by the Family

A well-known and respected resident of Kingston, Mr. Albert Clow, passed away Feb. 27, 1965 at the P.E.I. Hospital after an illness of one month. Born at New Haven, son of the late Samuel and Sarah (Holmes) Clow.

In his early life, he spent some years in New Bedford, Mass., where he worked as chauffeur. He met and married Mary Ann Hayter (Maisie) who predeceased him in 1954, finally moving to the Island where he participated in farming and as mail courier.

Thirteen children blessed their home, where they received careful and conscientious training. No words could offer a personal tribute of respect of this noble gentleman. Mr. Clow was well known throughout the surrounding districts as mail courier nigh unto fifty years where he did his work faithfully and well to all patrons, never missing a day of delivering her Majesty's mail, if it was possible to do so. If impossible for horses etc., he made the trip on foot at any time of the day. Mr. Clow will be missed in his home by his son John and Ruby who cared for him during his illness, also by his affectionate granddaughter Cathy whom he loved, and grieved him to leave behind. He will long be remembered as a faithful Christian father, grandfather, friend and good neighbor by all that knew him. He leaves to mourn his loss, the following sons and daughters, brothers and sister: Nellie, Fairview; Everette, Charlottetown; Billie, Hunter River; Louis, Charlottetown; Sterling, Meadowbank; Earle, Oyster Bed Bridge; Lucy, Rocky Point; Mary, Charlottetown; John, Kingston. Three children predeceased him in infancy and Eugene as a young man, twenty-one, killed in action in World War Two. Also brother Judd, Stoneham, Mass., who spent the summer with him, brother, Ivan, Meadowbank, sister Alice, New Haven, 28 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

The funeral which was largely attended was held from Cuocliffe Funeral Home. Service conducted by Rev. Mr. Howard, Rev. Mr. Walls, Rev. Mr. Nicholson, Rev. Mr. Powell. Beyond the Sunset was rendered by Rev. Mr. Nicholson, a long-time friend of the deceased. The Kingston Choir was under the direction of Mrs. Everette direction of Mrs. Everette Holmes who sang the 23rd Psalm and When I Survey The Wondrous Cross.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Pallbearers were six of his grandchildren: Ernest Smith, Souis McIsaac, Bobbie Clow, Avard Clow, Eugene Clow and Donald McDonald Burial was in Cornwall cemetery.

May his soul rest in peace.

AN ARMY TRAVELS ON ITS STOMACH

A soldier, on duty to guard civil rights marchers on their voting protest trek from Selma, Ala., to the state capitol at Montgomery, watches marchers go by as he eats a meal brought to him on the spot. The marchers, passing the halfway mark of their 54-mile hike Tuesday, plan to reach Montgomery Thursday. (AP Wirephoto)
