The Chandler-Millar Marriage Is Solemnized

The Cathedral Church of All Saints, decorated with white carnations and pink snapdragons, was the beautiful setting for the afternoon wedding on June 6th, of Helen Joan Millar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Graham Millar of Halifax and Brian Maxfield Dunbar Chandler, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Bramwell Chandler of Montreal, formerly of Charlottetown.

Right Reverend E.B.N. Cochran performed the ceremony, and the organist was Maitland Farmer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal gown of white peau de sole, the fitted bodice featuring a bateau neckline and long sleeves tapering at the wrists. The skirt, ankle length in front, gradually flowed into a buffant, slightly entrain effect at the back hemline.

Her elbow length veil was caught by a cap of matching peau de sole. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink delight roses.

Mrs. Peter MacGregor, as matron of honour and Miss Winna Millar as bridesmaid, wore organza over taffeta gowns in harmonizing shades of pink styled on Empire lines. They wore matching picture hats and carried nosegays of pink roses and white carnations.

Dr. Peter MacGregor was best man and the ushers were Donald Nicholson of Summerside and Donald Falkins of Moncton.

Mrs. Millar wore a sapphire blue print silk two piece dress with ecru hat and accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

Mrs. Chandler wore a two piece costume of Mikado beige French shantung with matching accessories and corsage of talisman roses.

Mrs. W.E. Oldfield, grandmother of the bride, wore a black and white silk print dress with white chiffon hat.

A reception for some eighty guests was held in St. Matthew's Church Hall where the bride's grandfather, F.G. Millar of Toronto, proposed the toast.

For travelling the bride wore a chocolate brown suit of feather weight wool, brown shoes and white accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

The tops of vegetables such as carrots and beets should be cut off as soon as possible. When left on, they draw nutrients out of the vegetables themselves.

A towel placed in the bottom of the tub will keep a baby from slipping while you bathe him.

Your ironing efficiency will be increased if you sort items according to materials, ironing first those requiring the lowest temperatures and working up to the harder fabrics.
