Gordon, sailed from Summerside for St. John's on Friday with 14,200 bushels oats, 30 horses, 80 sheep, 200 geese, 60 turkeys, 305 ducks, 146 fowls, 12 tons hay, 1,000 bushels potatoes, 100 bushels turnips, 17 carriages and road carts, and 3,000 feet lumber, loaded by Messrs. It is understood that while here he had been examining a candidate for the position of steamboat inspector for the Nova Scotia district, to succeed Douglas Stevens, who it is stated, is about resigning to fill a more important position.

THE FASTNET.—The steamer Fastnet arrived from Halifax via intermediate ports at half past ten this forenoon, with a general cargo and four passengers. She will leave for Summerside this afternoon at four o'clock, and will proceed from that port to Halifax. The Fastnet did not leave Halifax until Thursday morning on account of the storm, and about noon on that day she fell in with the disabled schooner Avon, of Lunenburg, off Egg Island lighthouse and towed her back to Halifax.

PROFESSIONAL SAFE CRACKERS.—A bold burglary was committed in Westmorland, N. S., on Tuesday night. The store-adjointing offices of the Merchants Bank of Halifax was entered and a large vault and the safe inside drilled and blown open. Only about $100 was secured, but the expert manner in which the work was done is such as to indicate the presence in the province of a gang of professional safe crackers. The noise of the explosion was not heard by any of the persons living in the immediate vicinity.

RACES AT O'LEARY.—The races at O'Leary took place yesterday and were well attended. In the 3-minute race, Chief Boy, owned by Patrick Murphy, Lot 11, took first place, in 2:58, with Jay Bey, owned by E. Birch, of Alberton, second and Farnell, owned by Archie Conaghan, third. AN UNEXPECTED ANSWER.—The Amherst Press says: A good story is going the rounds just now of the manner in which a witness in a recent Scott Act trial satisfied a lawyer, who was cross questioning him rather severely. The witness was asked on what date did he have the last drink in the defendant's bar. He could not remember the date. The legal luminary fastened on the witness his glittering eye and said, "Now, sir, I want you to tell the court when it was you had your last drink in the bar of the accused. Remember, sir, you are on your oath." "Well," said the witness, "as near as I can remember, the last time I was in his bar was that day when I had a drink there with you." The question was not pressed further.

Put on spectacles the moment you need them, and take the precaution of allowing us to tell you when you require them. You can't help seeing the value of such information when we supply it.
