

Abominable Snowman Full Of Mischief, Russians Claim

MOSCOW (AP) — The abominable snowman of the Himalayas, whether man or beast—full of mischief and larceny, a Soviet scientist says.

In fact, the thing that scowled down from a crag at scientist Alexander G. Pronin may have been a rubber boat from the scientific expedition he headed, Pronin told the government newspaper Izvestia Saturday.

Pronin has become something of a celebrity since he said he saw the strange creature last August on the Soviet side of the Himalayas.

gends and old wives' tales about the abominable one, appeared unconvinced. It published the interview under the headline: "Was it really a snowman?"

ABDUCTOR OF GIRLS

Tales of the abominable snowman have come down through the centuries from natives of the Himalayas. They described him as a vicious, given to carrying off young women. He was said to dwell at altitudes far above those where humans can survive. The natives gave the thing the name of Yeti or Metohkangmi. The latter means "the indescribably filthy snowman."

An expedition trying to climb Mt. Everest in 1921 was the first to report seeing the snowman's footprints. There have been other reports since.

Retiring A. P. E. C. President Pays Tribute To Successor

HALIFAX — A widely known Canadian educator, Dr. Frank MacKinnon, principal of Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown, has been elected president of the Atlantic Provinces Economic Council.

Dr. MacKinnon, APEC vice-president for Prince Edward Island, was elected to succeed R. J. Rankin of Halifax who was named vice chairman of the National Harbours Board Wednesday.

Dr. MacKinnon brings an outstanding background as a scholar and a community leader to APEC. A native of Charlottetown, he is a member of the Canada Council, past president of the Canadian Club of Prince Edward Island, and has been closely associated with the Charlottetown Board of Trade and the Rotary Club. His advice to his province and the region on economic and other matters has made him a recognized authority in this field.

special NATO conference.

Dr. MacKinnon is the third president of APEC. R. Whidden Ganong of St. Stephen was the council's first president serving two years. Mr. Rankin, the retiring president, was elected in November of 1956.

Dr. MacKinnon as APEC president living in Prince Edward Island carries out the pattern envisaged from the beginning that APEC presidents would move from province to province.

PAYS TRIBUTE

Mr. Rankin paid high tribute to the incoming president.

"I am extremely happy that Dr. MacKinnon has been elected president," he said. "He has already made an outstanding contribution to APEC and I am sure that under his direction the council will continue its steady growth and will as well make further contributions to the economy and social well-being of the people of the Atlantic Region," Mr. Rankin stated.

Mr. Rankin will assume his new position with the Harbours Board in Ottawa on February 1.

"My interest in the Atlantic Provinces and APEC and the valuable work it is doing will not disappear because of my departure for Ottawa," he said. "I expect to remain in close contact with APEC and will continue to be a major booster for the council although my role will be an unofficial one."

FOR DEVELOPMENT

"I would again like to reiterate that in my opinion APEC is the most important single development to take place in the Atlantic Region in 25 years. Properly supported it can become the most powerful weapon for economic development this region has ever known," Mr. Rankin said.

APEC has 69 directors throughout the four provinces and a nine-man executive. Members of the executive are: C. J. Morrow, Lunenburg, vice-president for Nova Scotia; R. D. Hurst, Halifax, general chairman for Nova Scotia.

Former North River Man Dies In Oregon, USA

The death occurred in North Bend, Oregon, of Mr. Garfield J. Warren.

Mr. Warren was a former Islander and well known resident of North River. He passed away on January 11th, 1958.

In 1928 Mr. Warren with his wife, the former Grace Howard, left the Island to join Mrs. Warren's parents in Oregon where he shortly afterwards engaged in the Mercantile business.

Through the succeeding years Mr. Warren, who possessed a keen and perceptive mind, prospered beyond his most sanguine dreams and was able to retire and enjoy a life of comparative ease while still in his prime. He considered however, that he was but a steward of the wealth which his Lord had allowed him to accumulate and found his greatest joy in sharing it with others who were less fortunate.

Mr. Warren visited his Island home, accompanied by his wife, on several occasions and retained a deep affection for the land of his birth.

He is survived by his wife and a large number of nieces and nephews, a sister, Mrs. George Owen of North River, and three brothers, Ernest of North River, Leigh of Charlottetown and Gordon (Dr. G.C.) of Wolfville predeceased him.

Join Your Community Campaign Against Seasonal Unemployment

CHARLOTTETOWN

J. DAVID STEWART, Mayor of the City of Charlottetown;
To the Citizens of Charlottetown, GREETING:

Whereas there is much work to be done on residential and business premises within this City; and skilled and unskilled workers are now available to do that work promptly and well; and the National Employment Service is conducting a campaign to alleviate seasonal unemployment.

Now Know Ye that the Mayor and Council call upon the Citizens of Charlottetown to ascertain what repairs, remodelling and construction are desirable on their respective properties and urge them to have the same done without delay.

This is a case where good citizenship is good business. We can have the work done with the least possible delay and help to maintain a constant rate of employment to the benefit of all.

By Order,
James A. Fullerton,
City Clerk.

SPUTNIK!!!

Yes we are living in a new age. Old customs are being left behind. More and more people are accepting the idea that winter employment is not only possible but economically sound. Don't be handcuffed by tradition. If you intend to renovate, redecorate or make an extension to your home or business premises, don't wait till Spring. Material is more readily available now than at any time of the year, and also the finest type of tradesmen. For more information call the

LET'S HELP OURSELVES

Habit is the enemy. We have got into the habit of having most of our work done during the summer months with the result that during the peak period men and materials are often not available to finish the work within a reasonable time. Many men are seasonably unemployed in Charlottetown and vicinity, during every winter.

The loss in wages adversely affects every business establishment in the City and the payment of unemployment service benefits only partly relieves the situation.

It is necessary to substitute common sense for habit and distribute the work to be done as evenly as possible throughout the year. This, like the breaking of any bad habit, requires a real effort.

The saving of time and money to the householder and businessman; the spread of employment over the whole year for the worker; the intelligent use of all our resources of manpower, material, transportation and storage; can add to the prosperity and well being of all our citizens.

Do the job while there are men and materials available. The National Employment Office in Charlottetown has the men, your local merchants have the materials. Get in touch with both.
