ELLEN'S DIARY

April Brings Promise Of Sunshine And Showers

April now? Yes, by this time shall have come to a first April. One and amber this dawning? A crisp morning perhaps, though only pleasantly so.

Last fall when all the glory of the autumn had fallen from bush and tree, had departed too from field and sky, and the days shortened to early lamp light, and the wind cried lonely.

But looking back what has it been? Only a short bridge of time, a gossamer span, we think, like that which in young years of our farming with James, used to bridge in moon light, the broad middle below the front meadow.

But now it is April. What are its gifts? The rills of the thaw, the rills of the rain, the rills of the snow, the rills of the ice.

Student Ponders Question Of Gifts For The Teacher

Dear Mary Haworth: At the end of the school year you will be giving your favorite teachers a gift. The kind of gift is not the question. It is the question of how to give it.

Dear Mary Haworth: Concern with the student of giving the teacher a gift is not a new thing. It is a thing that has been done for many years.

Dear Mary Haworth: I have read your column for a year and I have enjoyed it very much. Please advise me on what I can do. Affectionately, R.S.

Geishas And Tea Houses Belong To Japan's Elite
