OFFICERS RECEIVE CHARTERS

Charters signifying appointments in the Prince Edward Island Branch of the Navy League of Canada were presented last night at HMCS Queen Charlotte. The presentations were made by Allister MacLeod, centre, president, to Preston E. Milbury, left, who was named divisional officer of Navy League Cadet Corps Hyndman, and to Rev. Walter Basil Reid, right, who was named Roman Catholic chaplain of the corps. Mr. Milbury will hold the rank of sub-lieutenant while Father Reid will hold the rank of lieutenant.

David Lewis Says NDP Offers Fuller Economy

Canada was envisioned as becoming a rich, plentiful land where every able-bodied person, male and female, has a job at one time, by David Lewis, QC, Toronto lawyer and national vice-president of the New Democratic party, as he outlined the intentions of his party at a public meeting at the Charlottetown Hotel last night.

He stated that the New Democratic government would launch "a massive program of development in the Atlantic Provinces".

The program, geared both to present and future needs, would call for protection of existing employment, major public capital construction and the establishment of a department of Atlantic development.

"The goal of this program," Mr. Lewis said, "is accelerated Maritime economic growth, full employment, and the extension of markets in the region."

He pointed out that the difference between his party and other political parties was that the New Democratic Party has recognized "the need for economic planning, which will result in all sections of Canada becoming a blossoming part of a great nation.

"There is no other reason for a government's existence than the welfare of everyone concerned. It is the only agency that can help build economy and make Canada self-sufficient.

Terming it the only solution to the problems of the Atlantic Provinces, Mr. Lewis said this economic growth would not come by accident but only if federal and provincial governments are determined to build that kind of economy.

"If the investing of public capital in massive measures is needed, the New Party will do it; if investment from wasteful fields to productivity is needed, the New Party will do it; if investment of private capital from private concerns is needed, the New Party will make concessions", Mr. Lewis stated.

PRODUCTIVITY AGENTS

He observed that the New Party would set up across Canada committees and agencies — not a productivity council like the Conservative Government has set up — but small local committees and agencies to advise how the economy, as a whole, need be planned.

Noting that the things that enrich are not ones that bring profit, but schools, churches, theatres and other organizations, Mr. Lewis stated that if enough homes and other necessities of life were provided there would be full employment in Canada for the next 100 years. He said that for the first time there would be alternate employment.

The guest speaker told how the New Party was formed and explained that prior to its formation 58 to 61 meetings and discussions were held to decide just what should go into the constitution of the party.

PEOPLE ARE PARTY

He said that the people should be persuaded that they themselves are the party and they are the ones that make the promises.

"Promises should be brought into existence by hammering them out rather than announcing them before an election," Mr. Lewis said.

"The New Party is dedicated to the proposition that the interests of the farmer and the industrial worker are fundamentally the same, while other parties have consistently sought to divide the two main elements of the Canadian population.

"At the same time as they accuse us of promoting so-called class differences, the Liberals and Conservatives have over the years been trying to erect a false barrier between urban and rural workers.

"We must not be fooled by this old game of 'divide and rule'; instead, we must continue to unite the workers on the farm and those in industry in a common effort for Canada", Mr. Lewis pointed out.

Wilfred Inman, Queens County candidate for the party, stated that following the nominating convention in Summerside on Wednesday, Prince Edward Island would be the first province to have a full slate of candidates for the New Democratic party.

IS PROMOTED

Lieut. Harry Thomsen, commanding officer of the Navy League Cadet Corps Hyndman, has been promoted to Lieutenant-Commander, it was announced last night. A resident of Charlottetown, Lt.-Cmdr. Thomsen received his official appointment in March 1960.

Kinsmen Club Inducts Two

Two new members were inducted into the Charlottetown Kinsmen Club at its regular weekly meeting at the Charlottetown Hotel Thursday. The two members were George Vessey and Guy Labelle and ceremonies were conducted by Deputy-Governor Jack Johnston. The president, Allison Cudmore, and vice-president Kenneth Yeo also took part.

Kenneth Jenkins reported that the winning and runner-up team in the inter-service club curling bonspiel were two Kinsmen teams.

The Easter basket telephone blitz was reported a success by Lloyd MacLeod, who urged all Kinsmen and their wives, along with K-40 members and their wives to turn out Monday night to package the baskets.

The president reported on a zone meeting in Moncton, March 31 at which the deputy governor was chairman. Nine Charlottetown Kinsmen attended.

The Kinsmen were urged to participate in blood donor week, which starts Monday.

Alan Johnston reported on a successful fund raising project.

Professor To Be Guest Speaker Here

Dr. William Cochrane, associate professor of pediatrics at Dalhousie University, and who is doing research work on mental retardation will be guest speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Association for Retarded Children to be held April 18 at the Clover Club, Charlottetown.

The announcement was made at a meeting of the Charlottetown branch held in the new Sherwood Centre building.

Provincial president, Roy Smallman, also said two new associations were recently formed at Alberton and Souris.

It was moved and seconded by the meeting to send a letter of appreciation to Dr. Malcolm Beck to be presented to the provincial government for the provision of the magnificent new Sherwood Centre for the retarded children.

Various committee reports were heard and it was decided to hold a dance after Easter, and Ted Ramsay and Ernest Lord were appointed chairman and co-chairman of the committee to make arrangements.

Mrs. Inspec. "Akela" of the Cup group said the Lions Club is to donate the uniforms for the members of the group.

The meeting was well attended, and lunch was served by Mrs. Ernest Lord, Mrs. Ted Ramsay, Mrs. Grant Travers, Mrs. J. Commiskey and Mrs. Hilda Smith. F.P. Smith, president, presided at the meeting. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by secretary, Mrs. Frank Walker.

Easter Seal 'Blitz' Results In $743

The Charlottetown Rotary Club's "blitz" of the city last night netted a total of $743, as the annual Timmy Easter Seal Show was being broadcast over television.

Using a fleet of cars, the Rotarians quickly answered calls to Rotary headquarters set up at the Island Telephone office, offering donations to the Easter Seal campaign. The city was divided into seven areas with a crew of drivers for each area.

While the donations were coming in, a thermometer was being used on the TV program as a visual aid of the returns. The thermometer was kept up to date by 1962 "Timmy", Vincent Court, Bedford.

ALL SAVINGS

Many Charlottetown children last night donated all their savings to the seal fund. When a Rotary "squad car" answered a call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pickard, North River Road, the Pickard children donated $10. A lady from Summerside phoned in a donation of $100. There were several $25 donations from the city areas. A spokesman for Rotary last night said that the $743 collected last night does not include the country donations that are expected. The seal fund will remain open until Saturday, April 21.

The Rotary spokesman said of the TV show "everyone did a tremendous job, especially producer, Loman McAulay and master of ceremonies, Eric Jessome. The Island talent displayed from Alberton to Souris was excellent. The performers seemed to enjoy doing the show".

TV PERFORMERS

The group began rehearsals at 1:30 yesterday afternoon and were working right up to the time they went on the air. Performers included: the Downtowners, the Tempos, Peggy Peters, Rollo Bay; Buell Sisters, DeSable, Gordon Murray, Kensington, Emily Coldwill, Summerside; Frankie MacGregor, Kensington .; Royston Mugford, Heather Burke, Charlottetown; Marsha Wellner, Southport; Loring Rayner, Summerside; Jackson duet, Cambridge; Joyce Lowther, Cornwall; Brian Lewis, Summerville; Notre Dame Girls Chorus, Aileta Llewellyn, Summerside; Glen Saunders, Charlottetown; Faye Sisters, Souris; Cynthia Jay, Mount Stewart; Margaret McCannell, Mount Stewart; Jim Flanagan, Charlottetown.

The Rotary Club appreciates any donations to the fund, no matter how late they are in coming in. The "TV Show Fund" will remain open for a few more days, but the general fund will receive donations until April 21, it was stated.

The $743 of yesterday brings the total to date to approximately $7,400. The objective this year is set for $10,000.

Columbus Boychoir To Sing At Final Community Concert

The Columbus Boychoir of Princeton, N.J. will appear at the Queen Charlotte High School tonight at 7.30. The concert will be the final one in the current series of Community concerts.

The boychoir originated as a community enterprise in Columbus, Ohio, led by Herbert Hoffman, then minister of music at the Broad Street Presbyterian Church. Assisted by the Kiwanis Club and the Broad Street Church, he founded the Columbus Boychoir School in 1940 with an enrollment of 30 boys from the city.

Almost at once the choir attracted attention far beyond the city limits and after local and then national radio performances, the boys captured the hearts and critical praise of New Yorkers when they made their metropolitan debut in Town Hall in 1943.

Annual sell-out tours, which carried the choir to packed houses throughout the United States and Canada, endeared the boys to millions. Concerts were given in Carnegie Hall, the Academy of Music in Philadelphia and virtually every principal auditorium in the country.

In 1950 the school moved to Princton, N.J., to occupy the former Lambert estate known as "Albemarle." Here, in a lovely, spacious residential environment, the school offers an opportunity for combined musical and academic training of high standard to qualified boys regardless of religious or social background. Regular academic instruction in grades four through nine is afforded along with a full program of activities, pupils spending their days much as they would in any school.

The curriculum differs from that of other schools only in its emphasis on music, the daily schedule including three hours of rehearsal. Provision is also made for individual lessons and practice in piano and other instruments.

Even while on concert tour, the 27 selected singers from the student body of 70, accompanied by teachers, have a nearly normal school routine. Their specially outfitted bus, the "Schoolhouse on Wheels," besides a five-octave piano and a kitchenette, contains desks at the seats and a public address system so that regular school classes can be conducted while under way.

New subscribers for the 1962-1963 Community concert season have the privilege of attending this outstanding musical treat without admission charge.

Fisheries Charges Against Bedford Man Are Set Over

The hearing of two charges under the Canada Fisheries Regulations against John Thomas McNally, Bedford, was adjourned by consent of counsel until April 27 by Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, in Queens County magistrate's court yesterday afternoon.

McNally on one count is charged with fishing oysters from a public bed during a closed season, and on the second with fishing smelts with a bag net without having obtained a licence.

Counsel for the defence is John P. Nicholson and for the Crown, Gerald R. Foster, QC.

Pleading guilty to having intoxicating liquor in a place other than their respective residences, two accused were each fined $20 and costs or 30 days in jail.

A Murray Harbour man, Fred Charles Buell yesterday was fined $50 and costs in the traffic section of the court. He pleaded guilty to having given his driver's license to another man, Lloyd White, Murray Harbor, and permitting White to claim it as his own.

When stopped by RCMP officers, White was driving the car, although he was not in possession of a driver's license in his name. Upon request to be shown his driver's license, White used that of Buell, claiming it was his own. White drew a fine of $10 and costs on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without being in possession of an operator's license.

Four people were convicted with exceeding the speed limits posted in the area, and each was given corresponding fines.

One person was convicted of operating a motor vehicle with faulty equipment; two for going through a stop sign; three with operating motor vehicles not registered for the current year; and one for driving without due care and attention.

One accused was convicted of passing over a solid white line while overtaking another vehicle, and another of leaving a car parked dangerously on the side of the road with not sufficient clearance for other traffic. All drew fines corresponding to their respective traffic act violations.

Tobacco Acreage To Be Boosted

The experimental tobacco farm at Greenfield will be built up into an "economic unit", Agriculture Minister Andrew MacRae said Thursday.

The tobacco acreage of some 18½ acres grown last year will be extended this year to between 30 and 35 acres, it was learned from the department. The 35-acre range is normally regarded as an economic unit for one man to handle and supervise, although larger farms go considerably beyond that limit.

Mr. MacRae was making his statement to the legislature while the estimates on agriculture were being considered.
