That a good watch is a necessity, not a luxury only. (To be appointed to be always on time, one MUST buy a GOOD watch. I am selling good watches at so reasonable a price that it is folly to take chances with a poor one. Speaking of buying a watch, the name W. W. Wellner naturally suggests itself, it has been inseparably connected for many years with the watch business. If you intend buying a watch, my knowledge of watches is at your service.

Opinion of the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

THE RECIPROCITY RESOLUTIONS.

In reply to this question, the committee on Reciprocity Resolutions in the Boston Chamber of Commerce says: "She has an enterprising, industrious and frugal people. By her census of 1891 her population was 4,833,239. Included in this her maritime provinces had a population as follows: New Brunswick, 321,263; Nova Scotia, 450,396; Prince Edward Island, 109,780; a total of 880,737. Add to this the population of the crown colony of Newfoundland, 197,934, and Labrador, 4,106; total 202,010, and the population of the maritime provinces and the crown colony of Newfoundland is about 1,000,000, whose natural product on a reciprocal basis would largely be directed to New England, and, if I mistake not, all the maritime provinces and Newfoundland have placed themselves on record several times as strongly in favor of reciprocity with the United States.

She has extensive agricultural and timber land, her fields look as inviting as did our Western prairies a few years ago. She also has large mineral wealth and her fisheries are equal or second only to those of Norway. American capital and ingenuity would soon find their way thither after we had established reciprocal relations. Their products are wanted for our distribution and consumption, and our products are wanted by them in exchange. Our relations socially are of the most hospitable with a bond of friendship and kinship which should not be separated by any imaginary line. With this union of commercial interests, both countries will have greater facilities, greater economy, and greater opportunity for accumulating wealth, and the labouring classes would be more liberally and generously provided for.

"Boston and Portland being the most convenient ports for Canada's shipping during the winter season, our greatly increased facilities for docking ships and handling merchandise may prove an incitement for Canadian merchants to ship via Boston and Portland throughout the year. A treaty of reciprocity with Canada passed our Congress January 5, 1854, and was promulgated September 11, 1854, and adopted by Canada's several provinces during the fall of the same year. For thirteen years there was prosperity and general satisfaction in these reciprocations, and although New England was strongly opposed to abrogation of our Congress, January 18, 1866, and expired March 17, 1866. It deprives our merchants of a large and lucrative business and removed from active use millions of capital. Our exports to British North America have steadily increased and our exports to Canada were nearly three times greater during this period of reciprocal relations than during the eight years immediately previous."

RECIPROCITY RESOLUTIONS.

After the report had been adopted the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: "Whereas, After thirty years of anxious hope for a revival of reciprocal relations with the Dominion of Canada and the Crown Colony of Newfoundland, and being most thoroughly that reciprocal relations are decidedly for the best interest of New England and the entire United States, and

Whereas, We, the Boston Chamber of Commerce, feeling the great necessity for the development of our natural resources, that we may realize larger and more prosperous business relations with the territory immediately adjoining our own.

Therefore Resolved, That we respectfully represent to the President of the United States the great value to commercial interests of a treaty of reciprocity with the Dominion of Canada and the Crown Colony of Newfoundland, and earnestly petition that such a treaty be negotiated as soon as practicable.

TRAIN OFF THE TRACK.

Driver McLean Injured—Passengers Driven into Summerside—Other Trains Delayed.
The train which left here for the west at twenty minutes past seven this morning went off the track, near Traveler's Rest. The accident was caused by ice on the rail.

The plough left the track, as did also the two engines, freight car, and three passenger cars and flanger, in short the whole train went off.

The plough and engine 21 fell over on their side. Driver McLean was cut about the head, and had a very narrow escape.

Fireman McCarey, who also had a narrow escape, sustained slight injuries. The passengers were driven into Summerside.

The train was in charge of Conductor Kelly. A wrecking train will be sent out from Charlottetown as soon as the storm abates. The train from Tignish is stalled at St. Louis, and will not leave there until the weather moderates.

The train from Cape Traverse is also detained by the snow about two miles this side of that place.

The eastern train reached the city a few minutes late, having suffered a slight detention by snow in the vicinity of Souris.

The Summerside train reached Charlottetown in good time.

The Stanley special did not leave for Georgetown until half past five this morning. She got through about eight o'clock, and immediately afterwards the Stanley left for Picton.

Kaiser Wilhelm is said to have caused much embarrassment by the announcement of his intention to be present at and take part in the festivities that will celebrate the 80th birthday of the King of Denmark next April. All the latter's family will be there, including the Duke of Cumberland, who does not speak to the Kaiser, the Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Greece, who regard him with displeasure, and the Dowager Empress of Russia, who never misses an opportunity to snub her imperial nephew.

The New England cotton operatives, strike already affects the mills of seven manufacturing centres, and before it is ended is expected to call out 125,000 people. The cause is a demand for a reduction of wages, the justification for which is called in question by more than the workers who have gone out. The reality seems to be that there are a variety of causes, prominent among which is the development of the industry in the South, where, with cheap labor, the manufacturers have cheap material, low taxes, and other minor advantages. In so far as this is the real cause, the New England owners are likely to find the strike a costly one. A shut up mill soon loses control of its market.
