For Business Men

Hard Work Will Tell.

One often envies greatness, overlooking the hardships and struggles passed through before the place of honor has been attained. When we read of the lives of distinguished men in any department, we find them almost always where they are through hard work. We hear constantly of the great amount of labor they could perform. Demosthenes, Julius Caesar, Henry IV. of France, Sir Isaac Newton, Washington, Napoleon, and many others, different as they were in their intellectual and moral qualities, were all renowned as hard workers. We read how many days they could support the fatigues of a march; how early they rose; how many hours they spent in the field, the cabinet, in the court—in short, how hard they worked.—Exchange.

I never knew a man that didn't think his business was harder to advertise than any other business.

As a matter of fact no business is harder to advertise than other businesses.

Looked at in the right light, there is not a business under the sun that doesn't present hundreds of interesting points which are simply unexpressed advertisements. The main point is to see your business in the right way from the right point of view: to go on the other side of the counter and look at yourself as your customers do. This is harder for some men to do than it is for others, but that doesn't make the business any harder to advertise.

There are some men who advertise their jewelry business better and more attractively than others advertise dry goods stores, and other dry goods men leave other jewelers far behind.—Charles Austin Bates.

Grit.

Grit and character are all the capital that a young man needs for a start in life. Most of our rich men were poor boys. Most of our noted men struggled with poverty, but grit and character bore them up and on. Every business man has his discouragements, and if he succeeds he does so because he proclaims to the world, "Whatever sky is above me, here is a heart for any fate."—Epitomist.

When a man intends to spend money in advertising he should see to it that he invests it where he will get his own back and with interest. Advertisers who think for themselves, who have studied advertising up to date, will not throw away money on so-called cheap advertising—which is usually poor, that is, a worthless investment. We believe after a close study of many years, that advertising pays. It pays better than any other form of legitimate investment. But "cheap" advertising never pays, as every live business man knows.—Woodstock Sentinel Review.

The man who makes a success of an important venture never waits for the crowd. He strikes out for himself.

WHITE FIFE, grown one year from imported seed—on the "Warren Farm" JOHN NEWSON 6-d&w1mo

It takes nerve. It takes a great lot of grit. But the man who succeeds has both. Anyone can fail. The public admires the man who has enough confidence in himself to take a chance. These chances are the main thing after all. The man who tries to succeed must expect to be criticised. Nothing important was ever done but the greater number consulted previously doubted the possibility. Success is the accomplishment of what most people think can't be done.—C. V. White.

Vigilance in watching opportunity, tact and daring in seizing upon opportunity, force and persistence in crowding opportunity to its utmost of possible achievement—these are the martial virtues which must command success.—Prof. Austin Phelps, D. D.

Consolatory.

The things I do not know are legion. They make me sad to contemplate. There's not a field, of which some region My ignorance is sad to state.

But all things have their compensation. An I am no exception, so I have one mighty consolation; I know the things I do not know.—Selected.

A VANCOUVER LADY

Cured of Asthma After Eight Years of Almost Constant Suffering—She Says the Absolute Freedom From the Disease Seems Like a Dream—Clarke's Kola Compound Cures.

Mrs. J. Wise, Mt. Pleasant, Vancouver, B.C. writes: "I have been a great sufferer from bronchial asthma for the past eight years, many times having to sit up nearly all night. Through the advice of a friend who had been cured by Clarke's Kola Compound I resolved as a last resort to try it. The first bottle did not relieve me much, but before I had finished the third bottle the attacks ceased altogether, and during the past six months of damp and cold weather have not had a single attack. It seems something like a dream to be free from this worst of all diseases after so many years of suffering. I have since my recovery recommended this remedy to others suffering as I was, and know many others in this city whom it has cured. I consider it a marvelous remedy, and would urge any person suffering from this disease to try it."

Three bottles are guaranteed to cure. A free sample bottle of Clarke's Kola Compound will be sent to any person who has asthma, mentioning this paper. Address the Griffiths & Macpherson Co., sole Canadian agents, 121 Church-street, Toronto, Ont. Clarke's Kola Compound should not be confounded with the other Kola preparations on the market, as this is altogether a different preparation, designated especially for the cure of asthma. All druggists, Price $2.00 per bottle.
