The tailor's goose—a dupe. The Band of the 82nd Battalion at the Roler Rink to-night. The best place in the city to buy fur goods...

REV. FATHER RATHKE, of the Redemptorist Order, who has been much benefited in health by a brief sojourn on the Island, left St. John, N. B., for Boston to-day.

W. W. WELLNER returned from Boston on Saturday evening, where he purchased a large stock of watches, jewelry, clocks, silver ware and specialties for his fall and winter trade.

The following sub-agents have been appointed by Mr. Watson for the sale of Butcher's Antiseptic Inhaler: Dr. Darraach, Kensington, J. A. Gourlie, Summerside, W. B. Dyer, Alberton.

JUSTIN MCCARTHY was banquetted at New York on Saturday evening. To-night he delivers his opening lecture in this country at the Academy of Music, New York. Subject, "The Cause of Ireland."

ALWAYS TO THE FRONT.—James Paton & Co's Millinery department is full of new hats, flowers and feathers. Satisfaction given in our making up department, special attention given to mourning orders.

A STRANGER mentioned to our local punter on Saturday that he could not buy a pair of knitted cotton socks in the city. The irrefragable replied: "Probably they have not their stock in yet." "Hose going to beat that?"

MR. WILLIAM MOODY, of the Gulf Shore, N. B., who completed his 103rd year in March last, still retains his active habits. During the past season he has walked around the hay fields, superintending his work, and can still read the scriptures without glasses.

A CERTIFIED copy of Mr. Abercrombie's agreement with Queen Victoria, and signed by the Lord Bishop of London, can be seen at Chappell's Bookstore. The photographs of the other artists of the Court Musicians can be seen at Watson's and Chappell's.

Delicate diseases of either sex, however induced, speedily and permanently cured. Book of particulars 10 cts. in stamps. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

A MAN named Samuel A. Smith, who claims to belong to Halifax, N. S., was arrested in Boston on Friday last for counterfeiting and passing United States silver dollars. He was held in $3,000 bail. A number of moulds and bogus coin were found at his residence. He claims that he obtained the moulds from New York.

PROF. GRADY is still at the Osborne House, and stammering ones are being made happy with the blessing of unbroken speech. What Rev. J. M. Macleod says: "I have much pleasure in certifying that I have witnessed Prof. Grady's system of treating stammering, and that I am perfectly satisfied that he can cure any ordinary case of stammering."

MR. H. T. STEVENS, proprietor of the Moncton Times, and Mrs. Stevens entertained about thirty of the employees of the office and lady friends at their residence a few evenings ago. Music, games and dancing were indulged in, the party breaking up shortly after midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens are deservedly held in high esteem by the office employees as well as by the people of Moncton generally.

WHILE the choir of St. Paul's church, Kingston, Ont., were in the Sunday school-house one evening recently, a cow, evidently attracted by the fine music, walked in from the street and getting a bench on her horns began to toss it about in a manner that caused quite a furor among the ladies. Finally one of the choir seized the animal by the horns, and with great difficulty backed her out of the building, but not before she had made a bad rip in his trousers.

THERE is trouble in Gospel Army circles in Moncton. Captain Douglas appears to have been in the favor of the young lady staff-captain who was here recently, and there has been some jealousy between Douglas and another army man named Pollard. Douglas is young and of rather good appearance. Pollard is an elderly man. It appears that Pollard looked the hall where the meetings are being held and when a crowd had gathered last evening, the people were told there would be no meeting. The hall was afterward opened, however, and a meeting held, so that the trouble is bridged over for the present.—St. John Sun.

PROFESSOR GRADY is engaged at the Osborne House in the humane employment of teaching the stammerer and the stutterer to speak plain. The Professor has the "golden key," and knows how to use it. His method is exceedingly simple (we speak from personal observation), and we believe he ensures a perfect or almost perfect cure in every case—no matter how bad it may be. Certainly there seems to be no reason why any stammerer or stutterer (not an idiot) may not be absolutely and permanently cured by following the simple, never-to-be-forgotten rules laid down by Professor Grady.

A CORRESPONDENT writes:—MURRAY HARBOUR Road Methodist Church was re-opened for public worship on Sabbath, the 29th ult. It has been razed, re-tilled, shingled and painted on the outside, while the inside has been quite transformed. It has been papered, varnished and blocked. The pews and windows have been painted, and a new platform and communion rail have been added. Rev. Mr. McLean, of Valleyfield, preached a most suitable sermon. He was assisted in the service by the pastor, the Rev. George Steel. The little building was crowded, and many were outside. Messrs. Leavelle Hayden and Hayden's assistance conducted the singing, which added much to the interest of the service. The cost of the work has been met, with the exception of a few dollars.

L. O. G. T.—On Saturday evening last a new Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars was organized in this city, in the Temperance Hall, by the Grand Worthy Templar. This Lodge starts under favorable auspices. The following officers were elected and installed for the current term:—

- R. Smallwood, C. T. Ada Wadman, V. T. L. J. McLeod, S. Theo. Aitken, E. Frank R. Lawson, F. S. A. Smallwood, C. S. Champion, M. E. Morton, D. M. G. R. McCoubrey, S. Edith Squires, R. H. S. Sister Currie, L. H. S. This Lodge is known as Charlestown Lodge, No. 1.

We learn that the ex-cavalry officer has been discharging his duties as New York and Boston almost as lavishly as he did in this city. He is said to have realized handsomely on two wealthy Frenchmen to whom he gave letters of introduction to Sir John A. Macdonald and others.

The steamer Clifton, Capt. Wade, arrived at 9 o'clock yesterday morning with a general cargo and Messrs. James Guard, Beverly R. Newbery and Harry Sterling as passengers. She sailed for Chatham, N. B., to-night, and will return to this port about the latter part of the week—whence she sails for London on or about the 12th inst.

C. C. GARDINER and Benjamin Heartz have, we learn, gone on a trip to Kentucky to attend the great sale of trotting horses which is to take place at Glenview Farm on the 12th inst. If they should invest in a youngster or two, we have no doubt but the blood lines in their selection will be good, besides having individual merit.

THE RIFLE.—The Graham crew was shot for on Saturday last, on Kensington range, according to agreement of the parties qualified to shoot for it. The day was very unfavorable, being cold, with a strong wind from the left. Lieut. R. V. Longworth 1st Lt., Garrison Artillery was the winner, with a score of 64 pts. Ranges—200, 400 and 500 yds—5 rounds at each.

STUPENDIOUS MAGISTRATE'S COURT.—A large docket and a goodly number of spectators greeted His Honor this forenoon. Two of the postponed Scott Act cases were first called, but after two witnesses had been examined, were further adjourned till Friday next. Two young men—one drunk and the other drunk and disorderly—were next disposed of for $2 and $3 respectively. Six young lads charged with creating a disturbance on the street corners were fined $1 each. Six dog tax delinquents were ordered to fork over the tax, as well as the court expenses, and several more cases are on the tapis.

Mr. Pelham's "Racy Reminiscences of Rare Readers" kept the audience fairly shaken with laughter and merriment. His facial expression is wonderful, and the marvellous changes of voice render the impersonations interesting beyond measure, especially as the changes are made before our very eyes. Where all was so good it is difficult to particularize. The "May Queen," recited by me in the December of his days, was nature itself. In all Mr. Pelham's impersonations we do not observe the slightest tendency to overdraw. In this he discovers the refined and correct taste which dominates every superior mind.—Brighton (England) Gazette.

The members of the city militia corps, accompanied by the two military bands, attended the forenoon services in St. James' Church yesterday. The church was thronged and the Rev. Mr. Carruthers' sermon appropriate and pleasing. At the conclusion of the services the men were marched back to the Drill Shed. The streets along the route were crowded with people, and remarks complimentary of the parade were heard on all sides. The brigade of Artillery are to be congratulated on the first appearance in public of their fine new band. The members of the Band of the 82nd Battalion also looked well in their new and handsome uniforms. Taken for all in all, yesterday's display was one of the best we have seen for some time.

Of Miss Pope's translation of the "Memoir of Father Vincent de Paul," the Halifax Herald says: Miss Pope has rendered an invaluable service to all who take an interest in our early history, by giving in an English dress these simple records of the holy monk. His Lordship Bishop Cameron has written a preface for the work, and from it we learn that Father Vincent was born in France on the 29th October, 1768, and died at Tlacadine in 1853. His life covered an eventful period, and the record of his travels gives us an idea of the change wrought by steam and electricity. In 1812 it took from 15th June to 6th August to make a trip from Bordeaux to Boston. The able preface by Bishop Cameron adds to the value of the work, and should be a guarantee of its worth. We bespeak for this publication a wide sale amongst all classes of the community. It can offend none, and must interest all. The translator, Miss Pope, has done her part admirably. In pure English she still gives a flavor of the quaint original which adds a new charm to the simple narrative. No Canadian writer, with all deference to the mutual admiration coterie of Toronto—is such a perfect master of terse and graceful English. We hope to meet her often in print.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.) Brutal Murder.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3. B. Vandervere, a native of Red Bank, N.J., was brutally murdered here this afternoon, by John Hughes, known as "The Dangerous Blacksmith." Hughes and two friends, all under the influence of liquor, went into an oyster saloon, and began throwing chairs around and swearing loudly. The roughs got a meal which they refused to pay for, and assaulted the cashier, when Vandervere went to his assistance. Hughes struck him a terrible blow on the forehead, felling him to the floor. Vandervere was picked up dead, his skull having been fractured by the blow. Hughes escaped.

A relief steamer left Honolulu to succor the remainder of the crew, and is expected back November 1st.
