

NORTH RUSTICO C.W.L.
 The North Rustico Sub-Division of the Catholic Women's League held their monthly meeting on March 3, in one of the classrooms of the High School with a fair attendance.
 The president, Mrs. G. A. Udin presided and the meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Director. The minutes of previous meeting were read by secretary and approved as read.
 The treasurer's report read by Mrs. Francis Doinon showed an account in bank and was approved as read. The following contributions were reported: Spiritual, Mrs. R. Gauthier; social service, Mrs. Jerome L. Gallant; Entertainment, Mrs. Lawrence Doucette; Membership, Mrs. Ed. D. Gallant; Correspondence, Letter from Joseph A. MacDonald re education; letter re education, Mrs. Basil MacDonald; re social service, Mrs. J. E. Fleming.
 Business—Money was voted for prizes for education Week for flowers for the altar for next meeting being announced. The following ladies were appointed to act as nominating committee, Mrs. W. V. Gauthier, Mrs. R. LeClair, Mrs. Jerome L. Gallant.
 It was voted to hire a man to do the cleaning of the upper part of the church after the work of installing the new seats is done. Several ladies volunteered to do and clean the sanctuary.

before Easter. At this time the president introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Rev. Sr. Roselia Sr. Superior of Stella Maris convent who addressed the ladies present.
 Her theme was the mother's duty to her family and home. It was a most inspiring address in which she traced the mothers' work with her children from birth till high school age.
 A vote of thanks from the ladies was moved by Mrs. Reuel Gauthier and seconded by Mrs. Edmond D. Gallant and was presented to Rev. Sister Roselia by the president who also expressed her thanks to the sister.
 The president then called on Rev. Director, Fr. Ayers to address the meeting. He also expressed his thanks to Rev. Sister for her splendid address. He said that the priest or teachers cannot take the place of parents. They have the all important job of bringing up and teaching their children from infants.
 He congratulated the ladies on their splendid meeting and very fine reports and excellent work.

they were doing in all the various work of the league.
 He spoke about the work being done in the church in the installing of new seats and there would be the need for new furniture that the C.W.L. ladies could furnish out of their funds. He again thanked the ladies for their co-operation in their work.
 The president thanked Fr. Ayers for his kind words of advice. Meeting adjourned and closed with prayer by the Rev. Director. Followed by cards which were very much enjoyed by all.
