TO EXAMINE POTENTIAL

TORONTO (CP)—Seymour L. Wasserberger, who struck it rich for the New York Transit Authority by transforming subway stations into "subterranean supermarkets," will be here next week to examine the potential of Toronto subway stations. Mr. Wasserberger is director of concessions for the New York authority which collects $5,500,000 annually from advertisers, concession owners and real estate rentals along the New York subway system.

Each year in Canada there are between 1,047 and 1,057 male babies born for every 1,000 female births.
