Fire Damages Dwelling At North Bedouque

Mr. George MacWilliams, North Bedouque, nearly lost his house on Tuesday afternoon about two o'clock, during the height of the storm. Mrs. MacWilliams, on entering a room off the kitchen found the room filled with smoke. As Mr. MacWilliams was a short distance away, helping a neighbor get from the house, she sent her small son to alarm the neighbors who quickly responded and with the aid of fire extinguishers put the fire out.
However, again in the evening, about five o'clock, Mr. MacWilliams discovered the fire was still smoldering in the wall and considerable of the wall had to be torn away before the fire was finally brought under complete control. Smoke and fire caused considerable damage. The loss is covered by insurance.
