KIDNEY ACIDS Rob your Rest..

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss—blame it on "nerves"—when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acids from the blood. If they fail and impurities stay in the blood, rest and sleep often follow. If you don't rest well, get and use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's helps the kidneys so that you can rest better—and feel better.

And the expert doesn't know of them, but just the same it's wrong to finesse against the missing king. And if you don't bother to take the finesse, but hang down the ace, it turns out you catch the king and wrap up eleven tricks and the rubber.

The way the whole thing is calculated is this. Three rounds of spades prove West started with five cards. You can't afford to let him in the lead or he'll beat you. But you also can't make nine tricks without developing the club suit.

If West has the guarded king of clubs, you're locked. So to make the hand, you have to assume either East has the king or West has the unguarded king. Once you've decided this, it becomes foolish to take a finesse. Playing the ace allows you to make the hand — if it's possible to make the hand.

Election News Releases Geared For Varying Times

OTTAWA (CP) — The winning party in the June 10 election may be decided while polls in the prairie provinces and British Columbia are still open. But western voters won't know the result until their polls close.

The Elections Act provision on publication of returns was enacted following the 1955 election. That year, west coast newspapers were able to tell their readers two hours before B.C. polls closed that 12 Liberals and no Conservatives had been elected in Eastern Canada.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE MAJOR HOOPLE

BEAD, TWIGGS! I SAW A NEWS-REEL OF THESE ROCK 'N' ROLL DANCERS IN MY WORD! I LIKE A GUY STRUGGLING FOR THE EXITS IN A BUS WRECK! WITH MY TALENT, WHY SHOULDN'T I DEVISE A LIVELY DANCE TO GIVE OUR TEEN-AGERS A SENSE OF DIGNITY AND APOLOM!

Does it have to be a whole skin? Does it have to be the castoff skin of a big Snake? Or will the skin of a little Snake do?" asked Peter.

"It don't matter at all how big it is or how small it is, and as I said before it doesn't matter if it isn't whole. But I just must have a piece of Snakeskin in my nest or I won't be happy," said Mrs. Cresty.

Peter scratched a long ear with a long hind foot. Then he scratched the other ear with the other long hind foot. He says doing that always helps him to remember things. But for a few minutes the scratching of his ears did no good. Then he made a funny little jump straight up in the air. "Out in front of Farmer Brown's house is a big stone step. I saw Mr. Milk-snake over there the other day, and very early the next morning I saw the tail end of his old suit sticking out from under a corner of that big stone," said Peter.
