MORE MYSTERIOUS THAN EVER.—A Yarmouth despatch of the 31st ult., states that Hurlbert has been released from custody, as there was no evidence to warrant his detention. He declared his innocence and has gone home. Searching parties are still at work.

A NEW danger signal has been placed upon the sidewalk at the corner of Kent and Prince Streets. It would be a paying speculation for some one to embark in this new enterprise, as the city needs a very great number. Without doubt, our plankways and streets are in no small disgraceful condition.

Should any barrel of this Flour fail to give entire satisfaction to the purchaser, I agree to take it back and refund the money.—GEORGE CARTER, Great George Street. [ly 4 2aw to eat wky 21—nov 4]

COINCIDENCE.—This night of the day on which our former Governor General, the Marquis of Lorne, passed through this town, the sad tragedy of the stabbing to death of Mr. William McLean, foreman of Craig's Ferry, took place, and, strange to say, on Saturday last our present Governor General, Lord Lansdowne, passed through, and it might be called the night of the same day, the foundry in which Mr. McLean was employed was burned to the ground.—Bridgetown Monitor.

THE first flogging ever witnessed in Manitoba took place at Winnipeg on Thursday last, John McCormack was convicted of larceny and sentenced Tuesday to eight months' imprisonment. While working about the jail he bolted, but was re-captured in half an hour. Attorney General Miller ordered two dozen lashes, twelve of which were given before all the prisoners in the jail yard. A cat-o-nine tails was used. McCormack was stripped to the buff, though snow was descending heavily. His back was fearfully lacerated. Salt water was then applied.

THERE was a large attendance at the market to-day and sales were lively at the following prices: Beef (small) 12 to 12 1/2c per lb; do per qt 4 to 5; mutton, per lb 5 to 10c; lamb, 4 to 5c; veal, 3 to 3 1/2c; turkeys, 70 to $1.00; ducks each, 12 to 35c; fowls, per pair, 32 to 55 cents; butter (fresh), 20 to 25 cents; do (tub) 20 to 22 cts; eggs, per doz, 19 to 22 cts; flour per 100 lbs, $2 75 to $3.00; oatmeal, $2.50 to $2.75; hay per 100, 60 to 65 cts; oats, 34 to 35 cts; potatoes per bush, 30 to 35 cts; sheepskins, 40 to 50c; cabbage per doz, 36 to 60 cts; pork (cassals) 6 to 7 cts; do (small), 5 to 10c; apples per box, 48c to $1.00; geese, 45 to 60c; turkeys 15 to 25.

OVERBOARD AND DROWNED.—A letter received by John F. Robertson, Esq., from Mr. Montague Stewart of Orwell, reports the sad death by drowning of Captain Angus Young of the schooner C. Squeror. He left Pictou in his schooner on Sunday with a cargo of coal, and when off Flat River went out on the main boom to short in sail. While at this work he lost his hold and fell overboard, and shortly drowned. The only one on board was a boy. He could do nothing to save the Captain, and was obliged to run the schooner ashore. She struck hard and went to pieces shortly afterwards. The boy was saved. Capt. Young was an unmarried man, about forty-five years of age, and a resident of Pictou. The schooner was about twenty-five tons, and was owned by him.

THE November number of the "Pathfinder Railway Guide" is notable as containing all the winter changes, which are of unusual importance this season, and a number of new tables. The publishers seem willing to share the benefit of their largely increased circulation, resulting from the demand for the "Pathfinder" in the midle states, by making valuable additions monthly, and issuing with each number two large colored maps, either one of which would sell for more than the price charged for the Guide. The fact of the "Pathfinder" being the only official Guide in New England has led many to think that its tables cover only that territory, but a careful inspection will surprise persons who have entertained this idea, and reveal the fact that it includes all Canadian and New York state roads, with the important lines south and west. All news-leaders keep the Guide, the price of single copies being 25 cents, or it can be secured for a year by mailing the subscription price, $2.50 to "Pathfinder," Boston.
