Court Order Puts Race Driver Back

COLUMBUS, Ohio, (AP)—A court Tuesday put Wayne (Curly) Smart of Delaware, Ohio, back in the sulky again.

The veteran harness horse trainer and driver won a temporary restraining order against a year's suspension by the United States Trotting Association.

Lawrence B. Sheppard, USTA president, had Smart a one-year suspension Monday, barring him from harness activity until Sept. 7, 1954. Sheppard's action followed a similar order by the Michigan state racing commission last week, after the commission ruled Smart was implicated in the administering of a medicine to a horse at the Wolverine Raceway in August.

Fewer Mallards For Duck Hunters

Mallards, according to Ducks Unlimited, the conservation body operating in Canada and the U. S., are scarce this season. Observation of flights and feeding grounds in western and northern Canada lead to estimates of a 25 per cent decline in numbers over the past season. In all, there are estimated to be 18,000 ducks in the annual migration south.

Veteran Athlete

at a meet.

It was at this meet that he set his last record for the javelin throw with a mighty heave of 167 feet, seven inches. He was high point man at the meet as he won three firsts and a third for a total of 16 points.

For a fellow who returned to the game in 1947 just to coach, he didn't do bad. He states that he just started working out with the boys and when he found that he could throw the hammer and javelin average distances he decided to give it another whirl.

Terrific Record

Since then he has competed as a member of an Abwegweit team in 22 meets. He has been high point scorer in six meets and runner-up in four. He has compiled 270 points for the Abbies with his 36 firsts, 25 seconds and 15 thirds.

In his last appearance here at the Labor Day meet he was runner-up to Bill Keeler of Saint John for the individual point honors. It is fitting that he should be going out of the picture in the manner he came in—at the top.

The Abbies will sorely miss all those points he has accumulated for them in recent years. He has been their big man, the "Old Pro" as they say in baseball, and it will be a long time before another comes along to replace him.

But that's what George intends to do. He wants to develop young athletes to take his place and the club is full of fellows like Walter LePage, Johnny Cash, Dave Beswell, Johnny Naylor and Bill Brawley who were prominent in the Abbie victories of 1948.

He figures that the track game has been good to him. He has met and associated with numerous athletes and he puts a very high value on many of the friendships he has made and cemented at the various meets.

He states that ability for hard work and constant training are necessary for anyone who wishes to participate in track events and he maintains that the rewards will well repay the efforts. He should know, he has met with plenty of rewards and honors.

One exception — only one woman is permitted to pass through the gates of the "Monastery of Our Lady of the Prairie" at St. Norbert, Manitoba. The Trappists bar all females except the Queen of England.

In 1904 the French chemist, Veauvill, succeeded in producing synthetic rubies and sapphires by a lab process. These reconstructed stones possessed all the characteristics of the originals, though they were larger and apparently free from faults. The only exception was that they contained small internal air bubbles.

The Anabaptists of Central and South America is a most remarkable fish in that its eyes are divided into two parts by a horizontal band which, combined with the construction of the pupil, gives it the advantage of two kinds of vision — one above and the other below the waterline.

Stock Car Races Postponed

The stock car races, which were scheduled to be held at the Charlotetown Driving Park tonight, have been postponed until Thursday night as a result of the wet weather of the past two days.

The postponement of the races for a further twenty-four hours will allow the track to be put into proper condition. The races will start at the same time as scheduled for Wednesday night.

Tigers' Manager Renews Contract

DETROIT, (AP)—Freddie Hutchinson, who guided Detroit Tigers out of the American League cellar this year, signed a one-year contract Tuesday to manage the club again next season.

Earlier in the season, when the Tigers floundered in last place, there were rumors that this would be Hutchinson's last season.

Pulled itself together, the team pulled itself together and moved out of the cellar and into sixth place.

The 34-year-old Hutchinson took over the Tiger reins July 5, 1952, from Red Rolfe, who was fired. The Tigers finished last that season for the first time in history.

It looked as though Detroit would finish last again this year. But after acquiring third baseman Ray Boone from Cleveland Indians the club picked up and passed both St. Louis Browns and Philadelphia and clinched sixth place.

Status Of Rookie Award Winner Reported In Doubt

SASKATOON, (CP)—The status of Lorne (Gump) Worsley, National Hockey League rookie award winner last season, is in doubt today.

Worsley, called from Saskatoon Quakers of the Western Hockey League last season to replace the injured netminder Chuck Rayner, now is reported ready to line up with Vancouver Canucks of the WHL. The Rangers have a working agreement with the Canucks.

Johnny Bower, obtained from Cleveland Barons of the American Hockey League, is slated to be the Rangers' regular netminder this season. Bev Bentley, first-string goalie of Rangers' Saskatoon farm club last season, will be the Rangers' reserve goalie this season.

One World Harness Record Broken, Another Equalled

DELAWARE, O., (AP)—One world's record was broken and another equalled Tuesday as Grand Circuit harness racing began its Little Brown Jug week stand at the Delaware County Fair.

Hugh Grant's Adios Betty of Bradford, Pa., driven by Del Miller, erased the 6:20 4-5 divided heat standard for two-year-old pacing fillies in winning the $10,103 Walnut Hall Farm Stake.

Adios Betty won a race off from Walnut Hall Farm's Phantom Lady to clinch the verdict. Grant's Filly took the first heat in 2:05 but dropped the second by a nose in 2:04 2-5, as Phantom Lady's mile equalled the world's record for age and gait set earlier this year by the same Adios Betty.

The third heat was timed in 2:09 1-5 as Adios Betty won by 1 1/2 lengths. The combined times, 6:18 3-5, lowered the divided heat record set by Countess Vivian here last year.

Like Old Times For Reese And Rizzuto In Series

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ

NEW YORK, (AP)—It'll be like old times for rival shortstops Pee Wee Reese and Phil Rizzuto when Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees meet for the fifth time in world series competition starting next Wednesday at Yankee Stadium.

Both veterans, considered by many to be the key performers on their pennant-winning teams, were opposing shortstops when the two clubs got together for the first time in the World Series of 1941; and they're still around 12 years later, a trifle slower, but as classy as ever both at bat and in the field.

For Reese, this is his fifth series-act against the Yanks—and he still is looking to play on a world championship team. Now 34, the Louisville collier has a .297 overall World Series batting average.

Rizzuto, appearing in his eighth fall classic, has been on the winning side six times. The little scooter, who will be 35 Friday, has compiled an overall World Series batting mark of .235.

This season there has been little to choose between them both offensively and defensively. Rizzuto currently is hitting .277 as compared to Reese's .271 batting average. Reese has a slight fielding edge, .984 to .963.

Second base, like shortstop, seems to be a tossup between Junior Gilliam of the Dodgers and Billy Martin of the Yanks. Gilliam, a speedy rookie, has outdist Martin this season, but the Yanks' scrappy second sacker has a knack of cropping up with that clutch hit.

The Dodgers appear to be stronger than the Yanks at first base with Gil Hodges, a long-ball hitter and a good fielder, showing the way to the Yanks' Joe Collins. At third base Gil MacDougald of the Yanks holds a narrow margin over Brooklyn's Billy Cox. Cox has no peer defensively, but he lacks consistency at the bat.

700 Bachelors In Conference In The Netherlands

By NELS SLIS

'GREVENBICHT, The Netherlands, (AP)—Bachelors and spinsters from seven countries danced together until the wee hours Sunday in single bliss—many of them hoping secretly to find a mate.

Mayor Louis Corten told the some 700 men and women of all ages who came Saturday for the three-day bachelors' conference that it was "not meant to be a mating market—but we hope for the best."

Sleepy little Grevenbicht on the banks of the Meuse river has never before had so many visitors.

And that was exactly what Gerar Grein, 36 and single, had in mind when he thought up the idea: Raise Grevenbicht, and lonely men and women, out of oblivion.

Volunteers among the town's 1,000 families and people in nearby villages took in the heavy overflow, since Grevenbicht's hotel has only 50 beds. Special bus services were set up.

Streets of the town were decked in thousands of red and yellow lights, which threw fairyland reflections in the gently-flowing river. Here and there were illuminated V-signs—not for victory but for "vrijgezel", the Dutch word for bachelor.

The first day started out rather solemnly. The mayor and town council, formally attired in morning pants, cutaways and top hats, welcomed the big aggregation of single men and women.

More Spinsters

They ranged from 21 to 75, and the spinsters held a slight majority. They came from Holland, Britain, Belgium, France, Germany and Luxembourg.

Ostensibly they came to confer on how they lived alone and liked it. But the theme had a slightly hollow ring, and some were downright frank about how they didn't like it and wanted to change the status if the right mate could be found.

The atmosphere remained understandably cool during the day. The men and women, still wary, cast only hesitant glances at each other and said little.

Things thawed out, however, when the dancing started. After midnight little Grevenbicht still was awake and fairly rocking with the sound of a dozen different bands playing, among other things, a song specially composed for the conference.

It was a new single man's "inter-national." Its title: Bachelors of The World Unite.

It wasn't clear whether those who sang loudest hoped to unite for the promotion of single bliss—or in matrimony.

Three Picked Up From Plane Down In Atlantic

CHARLESTON, S. C., (AP)—Three survivors of a stricken B-29 Hurricane-Hunter plane, rescued from an 18-hour ordeal at sea, said Sunday their craft burst into flames without warning. Two of the rescued said they fought off a shark.

The trio told of their experiences as the coast guard reported a renewed air search for seven missing crew members of the B-29 which went down Friday night on a flight from Hunter air force base, Georgia to Bermuda.

Six other crew members were pulled from the waters by the steamship Nassau, which also rescued nine men from an SA-16 Gruman seaplane damaged and abandoned in an attempt to pick up B-29 survivors.

Rugby Union To Meet Sunday

TRURO, (CP)—The Maritime Rugby Union will hold its annual fall meeting Sunday in the Scotia Hotel here.

The union will adopt a new constitution and a new name, the Maritime Rugby- Football Association.

Polio Claims 149 Lives In The Four Western Provinces

WINNIPEG, (CP)—Polio has taken 149 lives in the four Western Provinces this year and the daily number of cases reported in two epidemic areas last week still continued at a high level, a Canadian Press survey showed Sunday.

Total number of cases was 3,415, with Winnipeg and Calgary hardest hit. Winnipeg has had 645 of Manitoba's 1,696 cases, while Calgary and district has accounted for 242 of Alberta's 644 cases. Fifty-seven have died in Manitoba; 41 in Alberta.

In Saskatchewan, there have been 678 cases and 37 deaths. British Columbia has reported 399 cases and 12 deaths.

On the brighter side, however, medical authorities in Winnipeg said there is "a definite downward trend" in the city's epidemic area, and the last bans on attendance of Alberta children at schools, theatres and swimming pools have been lifted.

All provinces, except British Columbia, were involved in delayed school openings. Both Manitoba and Alberta set back their openings to Sept. 14 from the original Sept. 1 date. Regina schools were delayed one week, although most other Saskatchewan schools opened on schedule, Sept. 1 and 2.
