Halifax St. Mary's In 3-1 Win Over Beavers In Series Opener

HALIFAX, March 4 — (CP) — Little Rocky Sullivan and winger Bert Steel led under-strength Halifax St. Mary's to a 3-1 victory over Saint John Beavers in the opening game of the Maritime Major Hockey League semi-finals Saturday night.

Sullivan, who missed most of the schedule through injuries, and Steel who joined as a replacement after playing part-time hockey with Truro in the A-P-C League, teamed with big Cy Thomas to score Halifax's goals.

Given first-class protection by his defencemen, goalie Eddie D'Aoust had a shutout until the third period when Saint John's Ted Watson deflected a waist-high shot into the cage.

Beavers could not cope with the powerful play of Saints in the first two periods—most of their thrusts bounded at centre ice. It was not until late in the third, when the strain of coping with three Beaver lines began to tell, that the visitors dominated the play.

Halifax coach Sweeney Schriener was able to ice only two lines because of injuries. One was the regular line of Hughie Campbell-Bill Watson-Muckle Hollett. The other was Thomas-Sullivan-Steel, playing together for the first time.

Saints played strong defensive hockey in the closing minutes. Buck Whitlock of Beavers, the league's top scorer, was well marked throughout. He had one good scoring chance, spoiled when D'Aoust came out of the net for a brilliant save.

Dennis Brodeur had a rough time in the Beaver cage and time after time was left alone to face speeding forwards. In the first frame he blocked 10 shots against five for D'Aoust. In the second Saints hammered 11 drives, two of which went through for goals. Meanwhile, D'Aoust turned aside five.

It was a different story in the last period when D'Aoust stopped 13 drives compared to eight handled by Brodeur. Beavers potted the lone goal shortly after the start of the finale. Bolan fired a high shot from the wing, which Watson deflected past D'Aoust.

Until then, referees Neil Sanford and Charlie Copus had an easy night. But Campbell and Manny McIntyre were caught hammering each other and drew minor penalties. They were still in the penalty box when Thomas and Jack Heon clashed viciously at centre ice and were tagged with majors.

Lineups: Halifax—Goal, D'Aoust; defence, Grabowski, Brown; centre, Bill Watson; wings, Campbell, Hollett; subs, McLaughlin, Powers, Myketyk, Thomas, Diguer, Sullivan, Steel.

Saint John—Goal, Brodeur; defence, Bolan, Carnegie; centre, Whitlock; wings, Ted Watson, Nicolle; subs, Blackburn, Heon, Thaler, Jackson, Jodoin, McIntyre, Ramsay, Platz.

Officials — Copus, Sanford.

M. C. A. Makes Large Donation To Islanders

Maritime Central Airways, with Captain Carl Burke at the controls established a new record Saturday, when a cheque for five hundred dollars, the gift of the company, made a happy landing right in the hand of Mayor MacDonald, for the Islanders Hockey Fund. This is the largest single donation yet received during the campaign.

Maritime Central Airways is a great and growing Island asset, whose fine transportation facilities the Islanders' Club have used all winter long, with money-saving and time saving profit.

Flying was the theme-song of the day on Saturday, with the "Islanders" zooming to a convincing 4-0 victory over Moncton after a perfect take-off. Pilot Lamoureux's boys flew in every period.

The smaller contributions to the Hockey fund still keep reaching the Mayor's desk and as they multiply it is becoming apparent how strongly the citizens of town and country are behind the club.

One donor who threw a five dollar note into the kitty attached a poetic written prophecy to his donation.

We will give the reading audience a clue by saying that he works at the Charlottetown Post office, is a crack shot and a tip-line fisherman.

His poetic effort reads:—

"Five bucks from me
And you will see
The Islanders win
By Jimmy."

The Mayor's committee will meet tonight at City Hall to talk over the progress of the drive, and discuss future plans.

Only a small proportion of the merchants have been called on as yet and no time limit has been set for concluding the drive.

The "Guardian" made its contribution on Saturday.

Anyone interested in the drive is asked to attend tonight's meeting at City Hall at 7 P. M.

The triumph was the third in the big handicap for Longden, the 41-year-old Taber, Alta., money

Bruins Down Chicago 10-2; Rangers-Habs Tied

BOSTON, March 4 — (AP) — Veteran Woody Dumart took off on the wildest scoring spree of his 12-season National Hockey League career tonight with a four-goal effort as Boston Bruins humbled the hapless Chicago Black Hawks 10-2 to the delight of a 7,887 Boston Garden crowd.

The one-sided win enabled Boston to move into sole possession of third place.

Captain Milt Schmidt set up three of Dumart's tallies and Ed Sandford assisted on another as the 34-year-old left winger boosted his all-time N. H. L. goal-scoring total to 196.

Sandford collected two of the other Bruin goals, as did Pete Horeck. The others were provided by Paul Ronny and Vic Lynn.

The only scoring member of the injury-riddled Chicago team to dent the Boston twine was Adam Brown, who countered in the first and second sessions.

It was the first time Boston hit double scoring figures in their 61 games to date.

NEW YORK, March 4 — (AP) — New York Rangers came from behind tonight to deadlock Montreal Canadiens 2-2. It was Rangers' 20th National Hockey League tie this season—a record.

The old record of 19 ties in a single season was set last year by Montreal.

Buddy O'Connor, New York's veteran center, scored the tying goal in the second period after the game had seen-sawed between these two clubs fighting for a Stanley Cup playoff berth.

Ranger goalie Chuck Rayner was replaced at the start of the final period by Emil (Cat) Francis, formerly of Regina and now netminder of Cincinnati's entry in the American Hockey League.

Rayner injured his arm in Boston Saturday and had trouble moving it tonight. Francis thrilled the 15,801 fans with his fine play.

Down Hawks 4-0 To Even Semi-Final Series 1-All In Game Here Saturday

Leo Lamoureux's Charlottetown Islanders came up with an impressive performance here at the Forum on Saturday night when they chalked up the first shutout victory in Maritime Major Hockey League semi-final playoffs by blanking a battling Moncton Hawks aggregation 4-0 before a crowd of some 2,000 fans in a fast, pleasing contest.

Losing the opening encounter 3-2 to the Hawks here on Friday, the Islanders victory deadlocks the best five out of nine game series at a game each. The scene of action will shift to Moncton's home ice tonight where the teams will meet in the third game of the series on the fourth on Tuesday.

Facing a right winger, MacBeaton who shot a brace of tallies, Islanders ran up a 2-0 lead in the first period, added two more in the middle session but were forced to play a nip-and-tuck closing period with the Hawks that remained scoreless.

Beaton chalked up Islanders' first and fourth tallies while Johnny Horeck and Hub Beaudry were the other sharpshooters with one each. Defenceman Phil Vitale, Marcel Clements and Frank Bathgate garnered a brace of assists each.

The game displayed plenty of action that only roughened up in spots and was cleanly played although 15 penalties, all for minor infractions, were handed out with Islanders getting the long end of 11 and Moncton four.

Minor League Playoffs Are Continued

In minor league hockey playoff eliminations held at the Forum on Saturday, the Bantam Hillsboro squad scored a 7-0 shutout over the Royal Bantam Flyers in third round play, while the West Kent School Pee Wee pucksters garnered a close 3-2 verdict over the Queen Square School representatives in that bracket in first round eliminations.

In City interscholastic girls competition, the West Kent and Prince Street School teams battled to a scoreless draw in the opening game of the finals.

In the Bantam contest, Biggar and Nicholson were the leading goalgetters for the Hillsboro squad, chalking up a brace of goals each, while J. Longaphie, Griffin and McGeie tallied one apiece.

Accounting for the scoring efforts of the winning W. K. S. team in the Pee Wee match, Pasher, Lanz and B. Reid garnered a goal each while Mulligan rapped home both of Queen Square's tallies.

Art Perry was the referee for all three matches.

Canadian Ski Ace Wins Again

WHITEFISH, Mont., March 4 — (CP) — Ernie McCullough, crack Three Rivers, Que., ski artist, gained added stature as North America's top downhill runner Saturday as he tipped down Big Mountain in two minutes, 74 seconds to capture the United States national downhill crown.

McCullough, now an instructor at Sun Valley, thus repeated his victory of last week when he defeated the cream of the country's downhill racers in the North American championships at Aspen, Colo.

In last year's U.S. nationals, McCullough combined, giant slalom and slalom events, a feat which he repeated Saturday.

A crowd of 2,000 braved a heavy snowstorm and cold weather to watch McCullough defeat two other Sun Valley skiers, Jack Nagel and Jim Buek, who finished second and third respectively with times of 2:08 and 2:11.3. Guttmom Berge, Walla Walla, Wash., was fourth.

In the women's downhill, Katy Rodolph of Sun Valley won the crown in 1:37.4, besting Lois Woodworth of Banff, Alta., who ran probably the greatest race of her career. Miss Woodworth was timed in 1:40.1.

"Y" Girls Win Hoop Game

In the third and final session was probably the most evenly contested frame of the game with both teams turning on the steam to come up with smart attacks and near-scoring plays that took good goaltending on the part of both custodians to bar the door to all efforts. It was the biggest period of penalties of the game with Islanders playing shorthanded on five occasions and Moncton three times. During the shorthanded periods, both teams pressed particularly hard and Moncton came within an ace of busting goalie Hal Gordon's shutout on a number of occasions, while Les Colvin was also kept on the hop by pressing attacks.

Despite all efforts, the session was a scoreless one and Islanders sent a large Island crowd home happy with a 4-0 victory.

Potting his two goals and coming up with an aggressive all-round performance, Mac Beaton was the choice of the press for the Henderson and Outmore Adam hat award, while Islanders hard-hitting, fast breaking defenceman Johnny Dutchak came up with a solid performance to get the nod from independent judges for the Jack Cameron award, a guaranteed $500 prize.
