

Be Careful.

In speaking of a person's faults, Pray don't forget your own; Remember those with homes of glass, Should never throw a stone; If we have nothing else to do But talk of those who sin, 'Tis better we commence at home, And from that point begin.

A Great Bookkeeper.

We met "Old Mose" yesterday, and noticed that there was a dark cloud hovering over his despondent brow. "What's the matter, Uncle?" we asked.

He shook his head as if he had nothing left to live for, and said: "Use in a peck of trouble. De Lord knows where dis here is gwine to end. I've done, gib it up."

"What is the trouble about?" After several sighs that seemed to come up from the bottom of his boots, he exclaimed that he was the secretary of the local lodge of colored Free Masons; that he was the custodian of the books and that he was paid by the lodge $10 a month; that every Saturday night, after the lodge was over, he carried the books home and turned them over to the "ole 'ooman, Aunt Dinah," for safe keeping, and she stowed them away in her trunk, "along wid her 'fishal flowers, and sich."

He also stated that he had forgotten to mention to Aunt Dinah that he was receiving $10 a month for keeping the books, and he had uniformly forgotten to turn over to her the aforesaid $10, but had squandered the same for his own personal expenses; that some unknown demon had informed Dinah that Old Mose was getting $10 for keeping the books, and consequently, when he remarked the other evening that it was time for him to go to the lodge, and requested her to hand him out the books, instead of doing so she sat down on the trunk, and positively refused to turn over the documents until he paid over the $10. When he told her the $10 were his for keeping the books, she replied:

"Who's been keepin' dem ar' books? Hasn't I ben keepin' de books in de trunk all de time? Han' out dem funds what's comin' to me for de books."

"What did you tell her, Mose?" "I told her I wanted dem books to keep de minits in, dat she didn't know how to keep de books, but she 'lowed she was gwine to show me she knowed how to keep de books, and she is keepin' 'em. De lodge has 'pinted a committee to investigate my accounts, and dare she is squatin' on the trunk holdin' out her han, for de $10 I've done spent. Dosen't yer know somebody who wants $10 wuff of whitewashin' done in advance?"

The best part of the foregoing is, that it is based on actual fact.

The editor of a Virginia paper was asked by a stranger "if it were possible that little town kept up four newspapers?" And the reply was: "No; it takes four newspapers to keep the up town."

A Milwaukee girl's pet dog was sun-struck. She had a tent built over the sufferer and ice-bags placed about his poor head, but her stern father came home and ordered hydropathic treatment in a bag from the bridge.

Women are again becoming numerous among the stock speculators in San Francisco. They are said to be more eager and reckless than men.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in. Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means for enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worried out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct cause of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it.

The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different: the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered. Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniments. After you have tried other plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER. You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.
