THE SWEET BRIAR.

Our sweet autumnal Western-scented wind
Robs of its odours none so sweet a flower,
In all the blooming waste it left behind,
As that the sweet briar yields it; and the shower
Wets not a rose that buds in beauty's bower
One half so lovely;—yet it grows along
The poor girl's pathway, by the poor man's door.
Such are the simple folks it dwells along;
And humble as the bud, so humble be the song.

I love it, for it takes its untouched stand
Not in the vase that sculpture decorate;
Its sweetness all is of my native land;
And e'en its fragrant leaf has not its mate
Among the perfumes which the rich and great
Buy from the odours of the spicy East.
You love your flowers and plants, and will you hate
The little four-leaved rose that I love best,—
That freshest will awake, and sweetest go to rest?

FORTUNE AND LOVE.

BY ELIZA COOK.

Let me live without Fortune, if Providence will it,
For joy can be found where small treasure is shed,
Those who bear a full cup are most fearful to spill it.
And oftentimes walk with the narrowest tread.
I care not, though Fate may deny me profusion.
If earth will but show me some rays from above;
Tell me not that God's light is a dreamy illusion—
I could live without Fortune, but not without Love.
'Tis pleasant to know there are beings about us
Who tune the most exquisite strings in our heart;
To feel that they would not be happy without us,
And that we, in our loneliness, sigh when we part.
There's something divine in the thought that we cherish
A star-beam within us, that shines from above—
To know, that if all the world gives us should perish.
The greatest of Fortune still dwells in our Love:
Oh! 'tis glory to feel that we live for some others,
That self is not all we depend on below,
That affection yet links us to sisters and brothers,
Whose faith will be constant, come weal or come woe.
Tho' the vulture of trouble may harass our bosom,
Ne'er fear while our spirits is fed by the dove,
Let the desert of Life give Eternity's blossoms,
And we'll live without Fortune, while favored by Love.

CURE FOR DEAFNESS.

Mr. S. W. Jewet, writing to the Boston Cultivator, says:—At about three years of age, a daughter of the Hon. Daniel Baldwin, of Montpelier, became very deaf in both ears. In conversation it was quite difficult to make her hear, and she continued in this wretched state until about eighteen years of age, when an Indian doctor chanced to see her, who told the mother, Mrs. B. that the oil of an onion and tobacco would cure her, if prepared as follows:—Divide an onion, and from the centre take out a piece the size of a common walnut fill this cavity with a fresh quid of tobacco, and bind the onion together in its usual shape; roast it, then trim off the outer part until you come to that portion slightly coloured or penetrated by the tobacco; mash up the balance with the tobacco: put it into a phial. Three drops of this oil, Mrs. B. informed me, she dropped into the ear, after her daughter had retired to bed, which immediately gave her considerable pain which lasted for some time. Before morning however, her hearing was so extremely delicate and sensitive, that she suffered by the sound and noise in common conversation! This she soon overcame, and for more than three years past her hearing has been entirely restored, to the great joy of her parents and friends! Having been acquainted with the family for many years, I cannot, in justice to the afflicted, refrain from making this simple and effectual remedy for deafness known.

CURIOSITY OF WATER.—Nor is the hailstone less soluble in earth than in air. Placed under a bellglass with twice its weight of lime, it gradually melts and disappears; and there remain four parts, instead of three, of perfectly dry earth under the glass. Of a plaster of Paris statue, weighing five pounds, more than one good pound of solidified water. Even the precious opal is but a mass of flint and water, combined in the proportion of nine grains of the earthy ingredient to one of the fluid. Of an acre of clay land a foot deep, weighing about one thousand two hundred tons, at least four hundred tons are water; and even of the great mountain chains with which the globe is ribbed, millions of tons, are water solidified in earth.

Water, indeed, exists around us to an extent, and under conditions which escape the notice of cursory observers. When the duyer bys of the dry salter one hundred pounds each of alum, carbonate of soda, and soap, he obtains, in exchange for his money, no less than forty-five pounds of water in the first lot, sixty-four pounds in the second, and a variable quantity, sometimes amounting to seventy-three and a half pounds, in the third. Even the transparent air we breathe, contains, in ordinary weather about five grains of water diffused through each cubic foot of its bulk, and this rarefied water no more wets the air than the solidified water wets the lime or opal in which it is absorbed.—Quarterly Review.

IT HAS BEEN truly said, "The first being that rushes to the recollection of a soldier or a sailor, in his heart's difficulty, is his mother. She clings to his memory and affection in the midst of all the forgetfulness and hardihood induced by a roving life. The last message he leaves is for her, his last whisper breathes her name. The mother, as she instils the lessons of piety and filial obedience into the heart of her infant son, should always feel, that her labour is not in vain. She may drop inot the grave, but she has left behind her an influence that will work for her. The bow is broken, but the arrow is sped and will do its office."

PETULANCE.—Persons of a captious and quarrelsome disposition are dangerous associates, the pests of private company, and notorious troublers of the public peace. They snarl at every sentiment that does not coincide with their preconceived opinions, are extremely apt to enter into legal litigation, and, like the struck tinder, kindle into resentment on the slightest provocation, proceed to execute revenge with instantaneous precipitance, or challenge even a former friend to risk his life in the detested duel.

A man asked a celebrated balloonist what he would do if in want of refreshments, in his ærial voyage, as there were no hotels. He instantly replied that he should have no occasion for them; he would stop at some of the "castles in the air."

A polite young lady remarked one morning, that it was impossible for her to sleep during the night, on account of the outcry of a gentleman hen near by.

"Julius, am you convalescent dis morning?"

"No; I was convalescent yesterday, but I took medicine last night and worked it off."

Why are ladies stays like an opposition railway? Because they reduce the fare.

"I've lost flesh lately!" as thebutcher said, when he sold a quarter of beef to a bad customer.

Why is a husband in these days like a Western steamboat. Because he is at all times liable to be blown up.

A Californian writes that they have fire flies so large in that country, that they use them to cook by. They hang their kettle on their hinder legs, which are bent for the purpose like pot hooks.

CONSCIENCE.—An eminent and witty prelate was once asked if he did not think that such a one followed his cons cience. 'Yes,' said his grace, 'I think he follows it as a man does a horse in a gig; he drives it first.

A NEW MORAL TO AN OLD FABLE.—Don't live in hope, with your arms folded; fortune smiles on those who role up their sleeves, and put their shoulders to the wheel.

To forgive and forget is something of a difficulty, but to forget and forgive in the easiest thing in the world.

Remorse is the poison of life, and repentance its cure.

HERE IS YOUR REMEDY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS, AFTER 43 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70, Saint Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 15, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—At the age of 18 my wife (who is now 61) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed. Her agonies were distracting, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried, but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible. I had often read your Advertisements, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and, strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without seam or scar, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 43 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature.

(Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN.

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG, OF THIRTY YEARS' STANDING

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Wm. Abbs, Builder of Gas Ovens, of Rushcliffe, near Huddersfield, dated May 31, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I suffered for a period of thirty years from a bad leg, the result of two or three different accidents at Gas Works; accompanied by scorbutic symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amputated; yet, in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time, that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact.

(Signed) WILLIAM ABBS.

The truth of this statement can be verified by Mr. W. P. England Chemist, 13, Market Street, Huddersfield.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Penshurst, Kent, dated December 13, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR,—My wife had suffered from Bad Breasts for more than six months, and during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Having before healed an awful wound in my own leg by your unrivalled medicine, I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was, I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends.

(Signed) FREDRICK TURNER.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF A DANGEROUS SWELLING OF THE KNEE.

Copy of a letter from John Forfar, an Agriculturist, residing at Newborough, near Hexham, dated May 15, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I was afflicted with a swelling on each side of the leg, rather above the knee, for nearly two years, which increased to a great size. I had the advice of three eminent Surgeons here, and was an inmate of the Newcastle infimary for four weeks. After various modes of treatment had been tried, I was discharged as incurable. Having heard so much of your Pills and Ointment, I determined to try them, and in less than a month, I was completely cured. What is more remarkable I was engaged twelve hours a day in the Hay Harvest, and although I have followed my laborious occupation throughout the winter, I have had no return whatever of my complaint.

(Signed) JOHN FORFAR.

AN INFLAMMATION IN THE SIDE PERFECTLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Francis Arnot, of Breahouse, Lothian Road, Edinbro', dated April 29th, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—For more than twenty years my wife has been subject, from time to time, to attacks of inflammation in the side, for which she was bled and blistered to a great extent; still the pain could not be removed. About four years ago, she saw in the papers, the wonderful cures effected by your Pills and Ointment, and thought she would give them a trial. To her great astonishment and delight, she got immediate relief from their use, and after persevering for three weeks, the pain in her side was completely cured, and she has enjoyed the best of health for the last four years.

(Signed) FRANCIS ARNOT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—

Bad Legs	Chiego-foot	Fistulas	Sore throats
Bad Breasts	Chilblains	Gout	Skin diseases

REVIEWS OF THE WORK.

"MANHOOD, by J. L. CURTIS—We agree with the Author, that so far from works of this class being objectionable in the hands of youth, or difficulties being opposed, every facility should be given to their circulation; and to strengthen our opinion, we need but refer to the recent distressing events at our Military and Scholastic Academies at Carshalton and Woolwich."—Naval and Military Gazette, Feb. 1, 1851.

"We feel no hesitation in saying, that there is no member of society by whom the book will not be found useful—whether such person hold the relation of a parent, preceptor, or a clergyman.—Sun, Evening Paper.

"CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—Fortunate for a country would it be, did its youth put into practice, the philanthropic and scientific maxims here laid down—one cause of matrimonial misery might then be banished from our land, and the race of the enervate, be succeeded by a renewal of the hardy, vigorous spirits of the olden time."—Chronicle.

Published by the AUTHOR; who begs to inform patients in the East and West Indies, the Mediterranean and the British Colonies, that their cases can be successfully treated by correspondence only, if the usual fee be enclosed, and the most inviolable secrecy may be relied on.
