Bristol
*Mrs. Ben Keeffe received the sad news last week that her sister Mrs. Doyle, had passed away in Halifax after a lingering illness. Mrs. Keeffe and her brothers, Edward and Art Donnelly, left on Saturday morning for Halifax to attend the funeral. The sympathy of them in their hour of sorrow, Mr. W. A. O'Brien, received word on Saturday from Somerville, Mass., that his uncle, Fred O'Brien, of that city was very seriously ill and confined to bed for seven weeks now. If the condition of the sick man becomes more serious Mr. O'Brien will fly to the big city to be with his uncle and special friend where he and Mrs. O'Brien, have spent so many vacations.

The condition of Miss Sheila Gauthier, who has suffered a nervous breakdown is reported as about the same. She has been a patient in hospital for two weeks.

Miss Rachel Sinnott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Sinnott, was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital Saturday night, where she underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis. She is reported as having come through the operation fine.

Miss Mabel O'Brien, principal at Morell graded school, was absent from her desk for a week with an injured left eye. On Thursday Miss O'Brien went to the city to see the doctor and he removed a particle or cinder that was lodged in the lower inside lid. She is back at her duties now.

Visitors and guests at the Village Diner this winter stop to admire the beautiful intermediate Baseball trophy on display there. The two-foot trophy in a lovely glass case was won from Tignish by Morell boys in tough playing last season. Making inquiries last week about the trophy, we are sorry to learn that hopes of retaining the cup for another year are fading as four of the team have already gone to other centers. All in all, however, our boys will as always do their best to keep it here.

Smelt and tommy cod fishing is in full swing now through the ice that covers the river and bay. It is not very thick yet but with time running low the hardy fishermen must keep at it.

Rabbit hunters, who have had a bumper season in this vicinity, are reminded the season is over. Yes sir, it closed, January 31th.

Several flocks of partridge are having it just tough enough this cold weather and where those birds came from is the question as there were none here in the open season; now about fifty are right around this door.

A local truckman lost two bags of shorts off his light truck on Saturday near the city limits. Before they could be picked up a score of cars and trucks went over them and the bags were torn to ribbons. The shorts were valued at around $9.00.

Mr. Eph Malone has resumed his janitor duties at the church of St. Laurence following quite a long period of poor health.

The Misses Margaret and Gertie Henneberry have closed up their residence and moved to the city to reside for the winter and spring months.

Mr. Charlie Mosher, who had been employed in the city for a long period as a carpenter, has taken leave from the big Falconwood Hospital job to do some boat building. This end of the work has to be kept up and boat builders with the proper building for the business are as scarce as hen's teeth.
