THE Norwegian salmon rivers have recently failed. The English anglers thought nothing of paying from $500 to £1,000 sterling for a year or two's fishing. The English sportsmen will be obliged to turn their attention to New Brunswick, which is said by distinguished disciples of Isaac Walton to contain the finest salmon rivers on the Atlantic slope.—Telegraph.

WHENEVER in New York, and the weather is not stormy, William H. Vanderbilt takes his "constitutional" drive every afternoon at an appointed hour, and all business and business associations are summarily dismissed when that hour arrives. When he is found of driving for pleasure, and is undoubtedly the most expert gentleman driver in the country, he values it above all as a health-promoting exercise. He is 65 and vigorous.

Shortly after the accident the bodies of the two colored men were recovered, but that of the white men has not been found.

A violent thunder storm prevailed throughout various parts of England on the 25th. Four soldiers are reported to have been killed by lightning at Chatham.

A Mahomedan attempted to murder the Mayor of Erivan, but his design was frustrated. He asserts that he was hired to commit the deed by enemies of Russia.

The last batch of emigrants for the Swindford Union, 100 in number, are now at Queenstown awaiting shipment to America. It is said the most of them have been in the work-house.

Two thousand political and ordinary prisoners have arrived at Tomsk, Russia, by steamers, on which typhoid diphtheria has been raging. The prisons at Tomsk are full of dying men.

Peter Carey, the Dublin informer, and family have left Ireland. Their present whereabouts and their destination are unknown. James Carey is also going to leave or has already left.

Intelligence from Sierra Leone states that recent British operations against Chief Gbopowe were attended with great atrocities on the part of the native allies, who butchered and mutilated all the males taken prisoners. The steamship "Rhiwindda," Captain Gyles, from New York for Miramichi in ballast, struck on Tor Bay ledges, about two miles off Berry Head, Newfoundland, on Monday morning during thick fog. The crew were saved. The ship is in a bad position, and will probably be a total loss. From the bridge aft is about three fathoms under water. The "Rhiwindda" was an iron steamer, 1,330 tons register, having a crew of 28 hands. She was built at Sunderland in 1878, and owned by Frederick Edwards of Cardiff, from whence she sailed.

Earl Spencer, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, replying to an address presented to him at Limerick, spoke in deprecation of forced emigration. He said that he believed careful aid to emigrants having prospects of success abroad was beneficial both to them and to the districts which they leave. He regretted the necessity for the passage of the crimes act, which was distasteful both to Parliament and to the Government, but he said he abhorred crimes which had rendered it necessary. In conclusion, Earl Spencer said he rejoiced that greater respect was now paid to law and order throughout the land.

The British Postmaster-General has approved of the scheme for the insurance of letters containing money and other valuables. The rates are to be the same as for parcels: 1d. up to £5, and 2d. up to £10. The two insurance schemes will come into operation simultaneously, it appears, and as soon as working arrangements can be made. The announcement is also made by the postal authorities in Britain that on August 1st the department will accept at any post-office in the United Kingdom parcels intended for transmission by the Inland Parcel-Post, those not exceeding 1lb. in weight having to be prepaid 3d. in ordinary postage stamps; exceeding 1lb. and not exceeding 3lbs. 6d.; exceeding 3lbs. and not exceeding 5lbs. 9d.; and exceeding 5lbs. and not exceeding 7lbs. 1s. The size of the parcel has a limit, thus, maximum length, 3 feet 6 inches; maximum length and girth combined 6 feet. Gun-powder, lucifer matches and live animals are excluded.

There are few men living whom the Queen of England has so much delighted to honor as Lord Dufferin, who now wears the decoration of the order of the Garter and thus subscribed to his name the initials K. G. in addition to the three set: K. P. G., C. M. G. and K. C. B.—with which he has already been honored. He started in life as a simple Irish baron, but obtained a peerage of the United Kingdom at the age of 25. Since 1850 he has received no less than 17 distinct appointments or titles—more than one every other year. What Lord Dufferin really needs more than stars and ribbons are pounds and shillings. He has a fine Irish estate, but has been rather Sheridanically careless, regardless of Sydney Smith's sagacious aphorism, "Beware of carelessness. No fortune can stand it long." His mother had not a penny when she married, and his wife had only a few thousand pounds. His plight would have been much worse but for a minority. At Constantinople he had $40,000 a year and two houses maintained for him.

THOUSANDS of promising careers have been wrecked by the fatal habit of spending more than one's income, and the young should, as far as possible, be guarded against it. It is as fatal as intemperance, and has slain as many thousands.—Moncton Times.

A TRUE correspondent writes under date of June 25: Ferguson Natting, 12 years of age, went, in company, with two other boys, to the Salmon River to bathe. No man can remain honest who lives beyond his means, and the higher his position in society the apter he is to become a thief. The only safety is in self-restraint, in repressing the desire for things which we are not able to pay for. The self-indulgent are pretty sure to become dishonest as soon as their desire grows larger than their purses. It can scarcely be otherwise. No such man is worthy of trust.—Moncton Times.

MRS. MACKAY, the Boranza Queen, serves notice that her daughter is not engaged to Prince Philippe de Bourbon, and says: "I mean to give my daughter to an honest man, not to any one of the titled fellows—who are generally ruined and think it a condescension to marry into an untitled family." Moreover, 'in accordance with American custom, her daughter will not receive a penny of dowry on her marriage."

THE potato bugs have made their appearance on the vines in Major James Peake's potato patch. They were discovered yesterday evening, and were promptly removed. Judging from this, we have no doubt that the bug will give our farmers some trouble this season. It would be well for them to be prepared whenever the pest makes its appearance, to give it a hot reception with London Purple and Paris Green. How to use London Purple in exterminating the potato bug is as follows:—Mix it into a smooth paste, and then add water in the proportion of three gallons to each ounce or forty-eight gallons to one pound, stir well, and apply by sprinkling with a whisk, or fine watering pot, taking care not to deluge the plant, but only cover with a fine spray.
