Weekly Lessons from International Series—Jericho Taken. Psalm lxxii. ii.
Power belongeth unto God.

For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds, casting down reasonings and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God and bringing unto captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. 2 Cor., x. 4.

So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine and slew him, but there was no sword in the hand of David. 1 Psalm xvii 50.

Then he answered and spake unto me saying not by might nor by my power but by my spirit, saith the Lord. Zech., iv. 6.

Though scoffers ask where is your gain?
And mocking, say your work is vain;
Such scoffers die and are forgot,
Work done for God, it dieth not.

Press on! press on! nor doubt nor fear,
From age to age this motto shall cheer:
Whate'er may die and be forgot,
Work done for God, it dieth not.

In all the matter of works for souls, the Bible emphasizes love and zeal before and above tact; it puts the inner spirit of outgoing blindness and of dead earnestness, as vastly more important than the external of method and manner. "Ye are my witnesses," says Jehovah to His people. "Ye shall be my witnesses unto the uttermost part of the earth," says Jesus to His disciples. "Testify," "Declare," "Preach," "Exhort," "Bid," "Work," "Intra," these are the injunctions to the witnesses.
But what if the unbelievers do not hear?
Thou shalt speak my words to them, whether they will hear or whether they will forbear. That is the Lord's command to his faithful witness. "If thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at thine hand." Nevertheless if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity, but thou hast delivered thy soul. Nor is it alone the priest or public speaker who is to witness for his Divine Master until all shall know the Lord aright, those who know him have a duty to teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying know the Lord, and lest there should be some question about the timeliness of this, would it be that he should rush from floor to floor and hammer at the sleepers doors with a wild and terrified cry, than that he should quietly withdraw himself from the burning building, and leave its unconscious inmates to perish, because forsooth he never could have tact in such a matter. Instances can perhaps be named where overzeal on behalf of souls has offended those whose welfare was sought without discretion in the time and manner of approach; but for every instance of that sort.

Sisters, come and join our Union, Monday evenings.

Prayer meeting in the churches weekly.
In Baptist Church, Friday, July 20th.

Young men who believe in the power of prayer, seek out your falling brothers, throw around them this wall of protection.
Here they are safe.

We learn the City Marshal has found everything in a very satisfactory condition!
This then has been the case all throughout the uneven gait of so many of our town-men must be accounted for some way. Hip disease must be alarmingly prevalent.
Temperance friends will you please take note, and place the cripples in the hospital!

Just to let thy Father do that he will;
Just to know that He is true, and be still;
Just to follow hour by hour as he leadeth, Just to draw the moments power as it needeth, Just to trust Him, this is all!
Then the day will surely be Peaceful, whatso'er befall, Bright and blessed, calm and free.

—MISS HAVERGAL.

A hundred if not a thousand cases could be pointed to show those who needed invitation or warning received no personal word of loving counsel or of earnest entreaty from christian disciples who were with them or who passed them by, but who lacked the zeal to speak the needed word.
If a hotel is on fire in the dead of night, the servants have more need of zeal than of tact in their efforts at rousing the sleeping guests. The more tact they have the better at such a time, as at every other; but the most awkward and bungling servant in that house ought not to hold back from giving the alarm because he might fail of doing it gracefully. Better illustrations of over zeal in personal pleadings for Christ would probably be found to have won far more souls to their Savior than can be counted as the result of all the prudent holding back, from lack of tact on the part of all the Christian Disciples in our acquaintance.—S. S. Times.

"The man who sits down on the road to success and waits for a free ride will get left." And "The man who has saleable goods and waits for the people to find it out, keeps his goods." "Advertising is the keystone of success."

It is understood that Lieut-Col. Otter, of the Queen's Own, will be offered the command of the infantry school to be shortly established in Toronto.

Canada's Northwest.

MISREPRESENTATIONS CORRECTED.

Falsehoods, like quitch grass, take a deal of killing. Last winter a London daily gave currency to an assertion that the land along the line adopted by the Canadian Pacific Railway was of poor quality. The Dominion Government, ever watchful of its interests, and determined that no untruthful insinuations should damage Canada's great undertaking, promptly refuted this assertion by officially stating that the Surveyor-General reported that the average of good agricultural land is quite as high along the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway as in any other district in the Northwest. An individual, writing to the Field, under the name of "Manitoba," rescindates, and must have the credit of vastly improving upon the original falsehood; for he says "it is notorious the Canadian Pacific Railway runs through about the worst section of country they could find; and the result is they have already refused 5,000,000 acres lying alongside their line." To the first assertion, the official statement referred to above is a sufficient answer, backed up as that answer is by an enormous mass of independent testimony. The Canadian Pacific Railway has the inestimable advantage of not being obliged to take worthless land, and certainly they are shrewd enough to stand upon their rights. Therefore, if we assert, as we can do, that that Company has not rejected one acre of land tendered by the Government, this fact proves at once that the lands through which the line runs are good, and, at the same time, that "Manitoba's" opinion are as worthless as his facts.— Canadian Gazette, July 5th.

SPORTING NOTES.

Leonatus, George Kinney, Pizarro and Barnes, the four best three-year-olds in America, will probably meet in the $10,000 Omnibus stakes at Mammoth park, in August.

Fanny Witherspoon is developing speed and steadiness in John Splan's hands. He drove her recently, on the Cleveland track, four heats in 2:30, 2:20, 2:19, and 2:15.
The Cleveland track, however, is the best in America.

W. W. Bair, late the trainer of Maud S., is said to be the possessor of one of the most promising trotting colts of the year.
The youngster has demonstrated ability to trot in 2:38. He is by Harold (sire of Maud S.) out of Beluira, by Tattler; second dam Belle, the dam of Belmont.

Mr. Frank Work, of New York, is willing to trot Edward and Dick Swiveller, record 2:10, against Vanderbilt's Maud S. and Adine, 2:15, and Rockett's Independence and Cleora, 2:18, for a purse of $5,000 to be given by the Gentlemen's Driving Association, with the understanding that the winner of the purse shall devote the money to charitable ends.

The positions of the base ball clubs have not been changed to any extent, except that the leaders are closing up together.
Detroit has been replaced by Buffalo again, and the New Yorks will probably be in rear of the Bisons by Monday. Philadelphia and Buffalo clubs meet at Buffalo this week, and it is very probable that the Buffalo club will commence to fill in the vacant space between them and Boston. Cleveland's unbroken series of victories lately has given it a good lead for the pennant.

Leonatus has started in ten races this season, and won them all. He made his debut in Blue Ribbon Stakes, at Lexington, Ky., one mile and a half, and won in 2:38; won the Kentucky Derby, the Tobacco Stakes, the Woodburn Stakes, at Louisville; at Covington, Ky., won the Hindoo Stakes, the Ripple Stakes, and the Hymar Stakes; at Chicago, won the Dearborn Stakes, the Green Stakes, and the Illinois Derby, placing to his credit the handsome sum of $20,510. His only engagement East is in the Omnibus Stakes at Mammoth Park.

CURRENT NOTES.

In 1875 Canadian manufactures failed at the rate of three every two days, in 1877 they failed at the rate of two a day, and in 1878 they failed at the rate of three a day.
The free trade organ, with these facts before it, says that during these years there was no manufacturing depression, and the failure of a manufacturer was a rare thing.
Now if the free-traders think that while there are three failures a day there is no depression, it would be interesting to know how many failures they propose that we shall have daily when they introduce their patent free trade, industry-killing policy.—
