

Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen Win Allan Cup 2nd Time In Series With Ft. William

KITCHENER, Ont., (CP) — Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen won the Allan Cup for the second time in three years when they defeated Fort William Beavers 5-3 in the fifth game of the best-of-seven final. The Dutchmen took the series 4-1 in games.

The Dutchmen spotted the Western Canada champions a 1-0 first-period lead, saw it increased to 2-0 early in the second but then sewed up the game with a three-goal spurge before the second period ended.

The added two more in the last 20 minutes while limiting the Beavers to one.

The Dutchmen won the opening game of the series 3-2, lost the second 6-4 and took the next three—6-2, 7-6, and 5-3. They first won the Allan Cup in 1926 and again in 1953 when they whipped Penitence vs four games to one.

START FIRST

Thursday night the Beavers started off fast and left-winger Gerry Therberge tied the count at 2-2 at 5:09 of the second period when he took a goalmouth pass from Ken Lauffman.

Jim Logan and Kowalchuk scored third-period goals to give the Dutchmen a comfortable 5-2 edge before Jerry Kirk counted for the Beavers with only 17 seconds remaining in the game.

The Dutchmen, who have asked to represent Canada in the 1956 world hockey tournament, met their biggest obstacle on the road to the cup final when they had to win the last two games of a best-of-seven all-star series to sideline Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds.

They were assured of a berth in the Canadian final when they beat Moncton Hawks four games to one in the best-of-seven Eastern Canada final series.

Meld Favored To Win Thousand Guineas Today

NEWMARKET, England (CP)—Twelve three-year-old fillies, headed by the probable favorite Meld, are expected to go to the post today in the One Thousand Guineas, second of the season's classic races.

Meld, owned by Lady Anastasia Michaelovna (Zia) Wernher, daughter of a Russian grand duke, has run only two races in her life, but will almost certainly start a strong first choice in the one-mile event, first contested in 1814.

Good String Of Sea Trout

Dodgers Increase N.L. Lead; N.Y. Yankees Regain Take Top Spot In A.L.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Don Larsen pitched the New York Yankees into the American League lead Thursday night with a 11-4 victory over the Kansas City Athletics before a crowd of 32,559, largest of the home season.

In the only other day game, New York Giants took advantage of some shoddy St. Louis fielding at the Polo Grounds to whip the Cardinals 6-4.

Four of the Giants' runs came in the third inning in which the Cardinals made three costly errors. Don Mueller laced out a double and two singles to pace the Giants' attack.

Four games were scheduled Thursday night. In the National League, Milwaukee was at Philadelphia and Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.

In the American League, Washington played at Detroit, and New York at Kansas City, with Cleveland and Baltimore idle.

FURILLO PACES RALLY

At Ebbets Field, in topcoat weather, the Dodgers capitalized on a fat inning, the seventh, scoring all their runs after pitcher Bob Rush had limited them to one stinky hit through the first six innings.

A three-run homer by Carl Furillo highlighted the rally.

Rush started as if he planned to beat the Dodgers by himself. Besides his tight pitching, he slammed a two-run homer in the fifth and went to the seventh ahead 2-0.

Duke Snider opened the Brooklyn seventh with a double, moving up on Roy Campanella's long fly and scoring on Sandy Amoros' infield out. Gil Hodges and Jackie Robinson followed with singles, then came home ahead of Furillo, who hit a lowering drive into the left field stands.

Clyde Labine received credit for the Dodger victory after starter Carl Erskine was removed for a pinch-hitter in the seventh.

THIRD FOR HEARN

Jim Hearn racked up his third victory of the season for the Giants, although he had to be rescued by Merv Grissom in the seventh. Grissom, making his eighth appearance in 13 Giant games, stopped Cardinal rallies in both the seventh and ninth. In each of the two innings the Cards loaded the bases.

The Giants sent Harvey Haddix down to his first defeat with the four-run outburst in the third inning on four hits and three St. Louis errors. The New Yorkers picked up two more in the eighth on three successive singles and a sacrifice fly by Wes Westrum.

At Chicago, Delock didn't permit a hit until the seventh when the White Sox tallied their only run on a walk and singles by Walt Dropo and Sherm Lollar.

The other Chicago hit was a line single by Clint Courtney in the ninth.

Faye Throneberry hit a single, double and triple to lead the assault on losing pitcher Jack Harshman.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Willie Jones hit a lead-off ninth-inning homer Thursday night to give Philadelphia Phillies a 3-2 win over Milwaukee Braves—Robin Roberts' third victory of the year against one loss.

The Phillies tied the game in the eighth. Lew Burdette had shacked the Phillies for the first seven innings on two hits, both coming in the second run. After Stan Lopata struck out, Willie Jones tripled and scored on Stan Paly's trip-out double.

The Braves tied it with a single run in the fourth.

Frank Aaron led off in the Braves' sixth with a booming triple to right field and put the Braves in the lead 2-1 as Adcock singled.

Jones' homer—his fourth of the year—ended things finally and suddenly as the Phils came to bat in the last.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Third baseman Ray Jablonski snapped Cincinnati Redlegs' six-game losing streak Thursday night, driving in all of the Redlegs' runs as they edged Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2. He homered in the fourth to send the Redlegs ahead and doubled home the tying run and winning marker in the eighth.

The victory was credited to Gerry Staley although he was lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth when the Redlegs came from behind. It gave him a 2-2 record.

Southpaw Dick Littlefield, who engaged in a sparkling pitching duel with Staley, was charged with his second defeat. He has yet to win.

Staley set down the first 12 Pirates, not giving up a hit until Frank Thomas led off with a single in the fifth. Thomas was promptly erased on a double play.

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Tigers streaked to their fifth straight victory Thursday night as Billy Hoelt stopped Washington Senators on six singles for a 4-1 decision before 20,820 fans at Briggs Stadium.

Harry Malmberg, reserve infielder, broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth inning with a single to centre which knocked in two runs.

Hoelt walked only one batter while winning his second game against one loss.

Edmonton Flyers Square Edinburgh Cup Series

SHAWINIGAN FALLS, Que. (CP)—Edmonton Flyers battled back with a 6-3 victory over Shawinigan Falls Cataracts Thursday night to square the best-of-nine series for the Edinburgh trophy at two games apiece.

Goalie Glenn Hall turned in a standout performance for Edmonton, turning aside 31 shots, 17 in the final period when the Cataracts went all out to tie the score.

Lorne Davis, a former National Hockey League player with Montreal, Chicago and Detroit, scored two goals for the Flyers. His goal production was matched by Bronco Horvath, Western league scoring champion, while Hugh Collins and Ed Stankiewicz notched singletons.

Gilles Dubs, Claude Provost and Jean Paul Lamirande scored for the Quebec league titlholders.

Two of Edmonton's goals were scored into an empty net after Bob Perreault was pulled from the game. Perreault left and Stankiewicz sewed it up with 25 seconds left to play.

Billy Harris Remains Big Cog In Marlboros Team

REGINA (CP)—Regina Pats find themselves hanging on to their lead in the Memorial Cup junior hockey final, all because a slight centre for Toronto Marlboros lived up to a reputation of scoring when the pressure is on.

"When the going gets tough and the games get bigger, then Billy Harris will get us the big goals," Marlboros president Harold Ballard said last Sunday when the best-of-seven series was tied 1-1.

Harris, his team's top scorer during the regular season, lived up to that fanfare Wednesday night.

His overtime goal, scored from a face-off unassisted, won the fourth game of the series for Toronto 3-2 and gave his team a 3-1 edge in games.

Marlboros could end it tonight with a win in the fifth game, taking the trophy back east where it has been for the last six years.

Harris, expected by his club to fill the vacancy on Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League due to Ted Kennedy's retirement, figured in all three Toronto goals.

Blind Bowlers Banquet After Successful Season

The bowlers of the Friendship Club of the Blind held their first banquet last evening in the Blue Room of the Old Span. It was the climax to a successful year of bowling at the Rollaway where alleys had been provided by Mr. Joe MacDonald.

Bowlers received coaching each week from members of the local Lions Club. Special guests at the banquet were Mr. William Bevins and Mr. Jack Stevenson, President of the Lions Club.

Results of bowling during the past year were presented by P. C. Bower, Representative of the C. N. I. B. who acted as M. C. There were three trophies awarded, two to Phyllis Bevins for having the highest year average of 78.4 and high single, Peter McGarry a totally blind bowler was awarded a trophy for having the high average of 39 in that division. These trophies were donated by Mr. Bevins who presented them to the winners with congratulations.

The Club entered a team in the Maritime Candlepin Tournament for the Dr. J. A. Macdonald Bowling Trophy. The team's score was 222 and as yet word has not been received as to the winner.

The Club also entered a team in the National Candlepin Tournament for the Sadie Brooks Bending Trophy, the local team had a score of 979. St. John, N. B., had a score of 1248. Our bowlers feel that in another year they will make a better showing.

A short talk was given by King Lion, Jack Stevenson, wherein he expressed his high praise to the bowlers for their sportsmanship and assured them of the Lions support in coaching for the coming year. The banquet was followed by a sing-song which was enjoyed by all.

Five Teams Enter 1955 City Softball League

Five teams signified their intentions last night of entering the City Softball League this summer.

The five clubs are the Basical Youth Club, Sunshine Island Dairy, Keeffe Drug, Barrie's Lions and the Navy. The B.Y.C. and the Sunshine Island Dairy are the two sole surviving clubs from the first league formed here four seasons ago.

Keeffe Drug and Barrie's Lions entered the league last season. The Navy team are making their first appearance in City play.

Last year's City champions, Canada Packers were among the teams without a representative at last night's meeting. Other clubs who fielded a team last season but appear unable to play this year are the L.Y.C., Bike Shop, Legion and City Slickers.

Efforts will be made to form an executive exclusive of league players. In past years the players have run the league with a representative from each club on the executive. This year an attempt will be made to have a five man executive from outside the league run the show.

Another meeting will be held on Monday evening to discuss league by-laws and accept entries from other clubs who wish to play softball. According to plans the league will get underway about June 1.

Sid Smith Is Winner Of Lady Byng Memorial Cup

MONTREAL (CP)—Sid Smith, 29-year-old Toronto Maple Leafs' left-winger, is 1954-55 winner of the Lady Byng Memorial Trophy, the National Hockey League announced Thursday.

The trophy is awarded on the basis of sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct combined with a high standard of playing ability. Selectors were hockey writers, broadcasters and telecasters in the six NHL cities.

Smith had 114 of a possible 180 points. Danny Lewicki of New York Rangers was next with 72. Kelly of Detroit Red Wings, winner the two previous seasons, was third in the balloting with 53 points.

In addition to the trophy, Smith gets $1,000 from the NHL. He is a two-time winner, first getting the award in the 1951-52 season. He was the league's top player in the league in the 1954-55 season, with only 14 minutes served in all 70 games. He was also voted to the left-wing place on the NHL first all-star team, recently announced.

Holman Issues Challenge To Rocky Marciano

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—John Holman, an unrated heavyweight fighter from Chicago, Thursday challenged heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano to a title fight here.

Bernard Glickman, Chicago businessman who manages Holman, sent a telegram to Marciano's manager, Al Weil, guaranteeing Marciano a guarantee of $200,000 for a title fight.

Holman, a 27-year-old Chicago Negro, stopped Ezzard Charles here Wednesday night on a technical knockout in the ninth round of a scheduled 10-round televised fight. Charles had been a 4-1 favorite.

There was no immediate answer from Weil, who is in California.

Acropolis Is Favored To Win Epsom Derby

LONDON (AP)—Acropolis, owned by 35-year-old Alice Lady Derby, today is even a slight favorite among Britain's top bookies for the classic Epsom Derby May 25.

Acropolis was 11-2 at Thursday night's betting call-over for the 175th running of the mile and a half race. The horse was a 7-1 favorite three days ago and a 7-1 favorite three days ago and a 7-1 favorite three days ago.

Acropolis is the present Earl and widow of Lord Derby, who won the classic in 1924 and 1933. The race is named after an ancestor.

Our Babu, winner of the 2,000 guineas Wednesday, was quoted as 15-2 for the Derby, followed by Tomcaine at 30-1.
