

Island League Suspended Indefinitely At Meeting

SUMMERSIDE — The Island Senior Hockey League suspended operations last night indefinitely. The decision was taken at a meeting of the league in the Summerside branch of the Canadian Legion here last night.

Jim Kennedy, speaking for the fast-finding committee appointed at the last meeting in Charlottetown, reported that Group Capt. A.G. Dagg, the CO of the Summerside RCAF Station had given a negative answer when asked about the possibility of a station team entering the ISHL this winter.

He stated that RCAF players could play with other teams, but they would not be protected by the RCAF if they suffered injuries.

Sandy Frizell, representing the Charlottetown Royals, said that he would not enter a team in the ISHL because his management could not come to a satisfactory agreement with the Charlottetown rink.

Percentage cuts on the gross gate receipts of games. He said that Myron Bell, of the regular Penguins felt the same way.

This left only the Prince County Comets committed to play in the ISHL.

It was moved by George Gregory and seconded by Andy Gilpin that the league be suspended indefinitely, and the motion was carried unanimously. Frizell moved, and was seconded by Sandy Frizell, and carried unanimously that a vote of thanks be extended to the last year's executive for the fine job they had done.

The management of the several teams reported that they would have teams, play exhibition games during the regular season, and be ready for the play-offs in the spring.

The meeting was chaired by Ptl. Sgt. Matthews.

Tiger-Cats Win Without Top Star

By the CANADIAN PRESS Hamilton Tiger-Cats may have finished first this season in the Eastern Football Conference—but they did it without one honest-to-goodness offensive star.

Final statistics released today show that Ticats didn't have a man among the top five in scoring or rushing. The nearest they had to a backfield standout was quarterback Bernie Finney—second in passing.

St. F.X. Squad Massacres Atlantic Conference Teams

By IAN DONALDSON ANTIGONISH, N.S. (CP) — When Francis Xavier University X-men defeated McGill footmen here early this fall they added a thick layer of glory to football in the Maritime. Since then, it seems, all they have been able to do is rub it off.

The X-men, undefeated by any Maritime team since the end of the 1957 season, have been rolling over their opponents in the Atlantic Football Conference with increasing ease.

Down in Halifax they're really going Toronto will beat us," says coach Don Loney, for he Ottawa pro star who has guided his team to more than 147 the next Saturday in an exhibition game. The massacre of Maritime opponents began—the worst beating suffered by Stadacona Sailors who went into the St. F.X. game defeated. Final score: 90-0.

So powerful are the X-men that it is not uncommon for teams to end up with minus figs for their rushing yardage.

The decks were cleared Monday for the two fighters to sign contracts for a bout, probably in February at a site to be named later.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

Saints Come Through

TWO weeks ago, we deplored the lack of balance in the Atlantic Football Conference. That comment came about after St. F.X. walloped Stadacona Sailors 90-0 and Ed Hillton's Saints had been soundly under by both St. Mary's Huskies and Mount Allison.

Nothing has occurred since that particular Sports Front to give us any change of heart. We are just as strongly convinced we were two weeks ago that both the Xaverians and the Huskies are far too strong for this Maritime football league.

However, we think it only fitting that we should not overlook the doings of Ed Hillton's Saints since we pointed out their return. Mind you, we have not gotten any false ideas about the Red and White strength. Their victories in their last two starts do not give us any notions of victory in their last two outings. Saints now own one more victory over New Brunswick, Stadacona and Acadia Axemen in six starts this season. Details have been supplied by Shaver's Flyers, Mount Allison Mounties and St. Mary's Huskies. Their record is better in 1963 than it was in 1962 and this achievement surely cannot go unnoticed.

A Fighting Outfit

AND so, we are not waiting for Saints to play that last game before paying tribute to them.

That dramatic 15-14 triumph over Stadacona Sailors was the most exciting Canadian football fixture we had ever seen locally. It would have been a great game no matter who emerged as conqueror but the fact that Saints conquered this cliffhanger made it that much more thrilling.

Saints weren't supposed to grab that victory. St. F.X. had a victory but we've heard of no one else making such a prediction. Charley must have had some inside information because Saints predicted that the home team with an optimism from beginning to end. They garnered two touchdowns, a safety touch and a convert while holding their rival foes to two majors, a convert and one single.

IT WAS Saints' ability to contain the Sailors that really won the admiration of the fans. The Tars were reported to have an offensive that the Hilltonites could hold in check.

However Hillton must have found the proper tonic for his collegians as he realized them for this big clash with St. Ed wanted to see them do more than just win another game this season. It was the last stand before the home fans and Ed urged his boys to make it a great one.

Hilton beamed after Saturday's triumph and you couldn't help but feel happy for the big man from Maine. It was indeed a tremendous upset and a real feather in the hat of Mr. Hillton.

Another O'Brien

EVERYBODY on Saints' lineup was a star on Saturday. It was a real team effort, the kind of an effort that keeps coaches from turning gray. It's hardly fair to single out any player because key plays were supplied by just about everyone on the team.

But one year ago after Halifax, Saints threw a real scare into this same hallowed outfit and a young man, Mike O'Brien, stole the show that afternoon.

One year later, it was more than a scare as Saints edged out the triumph and another O'Brien, Mike's brother Dave, played an outstanding game. The fleet-footed halfback was injured during the home game and did "one queer street" for a spell. But Dave shook it off and was back playing the greatest game of his football career.

All in all, a great afternoon for Ed Hillton and his boys and the many supporters who follow their doings with the greatest of interest.
