WOMEN HAPPENINGS

Audrey Jenkins, Women's Editor; Phone 4-8806

The Art Society Workshop scheduled for Tuesday night at 8 o'clock has been postponed until Thursday, November 28th, when there will be a special guest speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. David Jameson have returned to Gaspeaux after visiting for two weeks, with friends in Boston and Medford, Mass.

Mrs. Yvonne MacNeill has returned to Florida after spending the past month at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Gordon, Murray Harbour.

The Central Bedouque Women's Institute sponsored a croquet party in the Central Bedouque School last week. After an enjoyable evening, lunch was served by Institute members. It was decided to hold another party in the near future.

Mrs. Frank Roche, St. Mary's Road, has returned to her home after visiting her brother, Harry Jameson in Quidary, Mass. Her sister, Mrs. Herbert Johnson, Havertill, Mass., and friends in North Hampton, N.H., and Mrs. Earle D. Leard, Central Bedouque, returned home on Monday from Bangor, Me., where they visited Mrs. Leard's family. They were accompanied by Mrs. Charles Howatt and friends in North Hampton, N.Y. who attended the Pan-American Seminar of the United Nations held at the United Church of Canada from P.E.I.

Attending the semi-annual meeting of the P.E.I. Home and School Association held at Kensington last week was Mrs. J. J. Flauder, who is a delegate to the annual meeting of the P.E.I. Home and School Association held at Kensington last week.

The toast to the bride was proposed by her godfather, Major R.D. MacGillivray and responded to by the groom, Lorne Letcher, uncle of the bride, proposed the toast to the maid of honor.

Telegrams were read by the toastmaster, Michele Gillis, RN, classmate of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Flood are residing in Charlottetown where the groom is employed by Douglas Brothers and Jones and Mrs. Flood is on the nursing staff of the Charlottetown Hospital.

The president, Mrs. D.L. McInnis presided at the wedding. Mrs. Lloyd Howard agreed to lay the wreath on Remembrance Day representing the W.A. and G.U.I.

It was noted that new flags are needed for the church.

The Christmas sale was planned for November 27; articles for the bazaar will be priced November 27 at Mrs. J. W. Shen's home. The Christmas party was planned for December 3, with a potluck supper. Assistance with study material for the G.A. was asked for by the W.A.

The treasurer, Mrs. Moore, reported the sum of $12.25, made at the supper for the Mas-ing there, we know, the new of the springtime will be! Until tomorrow, Diary Good-night....

From that pretty black hen, "Ellen" James reminded us with a twinkle, when the machine was about to go down the driveway "remember when you're in town, that you're not just a visitor to the island!"

"Meaning" our chauffeur, the one girl of the place, checked, "you have a home to care for!" Like the countryside, the town has lost now its bright lights from the streets have dimmed that old seasonal glow of cold. But across the span of the months ahead, now enchant-

Regional High School last Wednesday were Mrs. Earl Foster, president of Parkside Home and School, E.G. Dennis, treasurer, Mrs. E.G. Dennis, Mrs. Gordon Rice and three named delegates, Mrs. Keith Boyce, Mrs. Audrey Found and Mrs. Don Milton. All were enthusiastic over the worthwhile and challenging program that was carried out.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tanner have returned to Edmonton after visiting Mrs. Tanner's three brothers, Warren, Keith and Walter Lord. (She was formerly George Lord of Cape Traverse). Before returning home they toured the Cabot Trail with friends from Edmonton.

Rev. E.R. Woodside, Bathurst, N.B., is visiting in Kensington, where he is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Glover.

Mrs. Colin Craig, who spent the summer at the home of her sons Walter and Wilfred in Middleton, left recently for Vancouver where she plans to spend the winter with members of her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trewin, Hawthorne Ave., is spending a week's holiday on a hunting trip to New Brunswick.

Oshawa King Street United Church was attractively decorated with standards of white mums for the wedding of Heather Francis Webb, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Webb of Bowmanville, and Harold Dewar Ballen, son of Mrs. J. W. Ballen, Charlottetown, and the late Janina Ballen.

The marriage was a solemnized in September by the Rev. L. Wesley Herbert, assisted by the Rev. Byron Howlett of Guelph, Ont., a first cousin of the groom. Rhysdill Williams was the organist and the soloist, Fred DeSham, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love." The music for "O Perfect Love" was composed by Rhysdill Williams.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of soft flowered lace over satin. The gown was styled with a fitted bodice, boat neckline, hip-pointed sleeves and a very full skirt. A nylon petal headpiece, in rose form, caught her shoulder length veil of silk illusion, and she carried a handbag of white lace mums.

Mills was tendered a shower by her former school mates at the home of Elaine MacEwan, Summerside. A community shower was held in honor of the bride and groom at the home of Mrs. John MacDonald, St. Elizabeth's.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside in Hampton, N.B. where the groom is employed.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Tartan Restaurant, Summerside. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Prior to her marriage Miss received the guests and wore a street length dress of dusty rose lace over taffeta, matching dusty rose high crowned fur felt hat and elbow length gloves. She also wore an Autumn Haze fur cape. She was assisted by the groom's mother who chose a raspberry crepe souffle dress, white fur hat, white gloves and black seal cape. Both wore corsages of white mums.

The bride's going away dress was a raspberry, all wool shift with long sleeves, and her high, velvet turban hat was of three raspberry tones. Her corsage was of white mums.

Since returning from their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Ballen are residing at 250 Marlborough Avenue, the Diplomat Apartments, Oshawa.
