

Queen Smiles Through Final Day Of Charlottetown Visit

BALCONY SCENE AT PROVINCE HOUSE

The Queen waves gloved hand to crowd with matching smiles from Premier and Mrs. Shaw, Prince Philip and Solicitor General J. Watson MacNaught.

COLISEUM PRACTICALLY BURSTS ITS SEAMS with 10,000 young people greeting their Queen.

"PA" OF THE PONDEROSA,

Lorne Greene, in costume of his TV role of Pa Cartwright, made a big hit with his songs at the youth rally.

LINDA MATHESON

reads address to the Queen on behalf of Island youth.

THE QUEEN SIGNS

her name in the visitors' book at the Province House.

WE WERE HERE BEFORE

Prince recalls, pointing to 1959 entry.

QUEEN AT YOUTH RALLY

escorted past cheering youngsters by Brigadier W.W. Ried of the co-ordinating committee for the Royal Visit here.

FORMER HOST GREETS THE QUEEN AT STATE DINNER

Former Lieutenant-Governor F. Walter Hyndman, who was the Island's official host for the 1959 Royal Visit, pays his respects in the reception line last evening.