

Canada. Thus, through that Province, we lost the benefits of free trade with the United States, and now through her opposition, assisted by Governor Dundas, we are prevented from renewing it. So it is that the action of Canada towards us, resembles the conduct of the "dog in the manger." We do not wish to give the Government any facts or opposition. When they are deserving of praise we will readily accord it to them. On the question of Reciprocity, we feel satisfied that they did their best, and if they failed in obtaining it, it was through no fault of theirs. Circumstances, and local jealousies were combined against them, and the man from whom the Colony had every reason to expect material assistance, was false to its interest.

EDUCATIONAL.

The Legislature of the Province of Quebec, better known as Lower Canada, has passed a Bill to amend the Common School System in operation there, which is spoken of as a model of moderation and justice. In Lower Canada, as our readers are well aware, the majority of the population is Catholic, and they have the power to mould the School System to suit their own wishes. If the people chose to take advantage of their position, there is nothing to prevent them from having the Catholic religion taught in all schools maintained at the public expense. However, they have not taken advantage of their numbers to force a system obnoxious to their Protestant fellow-citizens. On the contrary, they have acted in this matter with a spirit of justice and good faith which ought to commend itself to the rest of the Dominion. If our Legislature only imitated the good example of Lower Canada, there would be less grumbling about the injustice of the School System in operation here. The Toronto Leader, an organ of the Orange party in Canada, gives its impression of the Quebec School Bill as follows:—

"The bill, as M. CHAUVEAU clearly explained in introducing it, contemplates the establishment of a Council of Public Instruction which shall consist of fourteen Catholics and seven Protestants. This Council will be divided into two committees according to the religious distinction of the members, to whom shall be referred all matters specially affecting the educational interests of Catholics and Protestants respectively. The members affecting the educational system generally, notwithstanding religious questions, shall be dealt with by the whole Council. It is virtually a division of the system—giving to Catholics a control of their own, and to Protestants the control of the dissentient school, while at the same time the advantages of minor sects are allowed the whole Council to act in concert in regard to non-religious matters. But should the two branches be divided into separate committees, provision is made whereby they can be entirely separated and each allowed to pursue its own policy without hindrance from the other. The public money granted to the Council is to be divided between Catholics and Protestants in proportion to their numbers, and wherever there are dissentient schools established the sums derived from local taxation for educational purposes are to be divided in the same way. These are the main principles of the measure so far as they affect the common school system with regard to superior education the same equitable provision is made that all grants made by the government shall be divided between Catholic and Protestant institutions according to population."

The School Question has been agitating the public mind of this Colony for some time past. We contended that a share of the school fund should be given to the Catholic portion of the population, for the support of the educational establishments under the control of the Bishop, and for so doing we were denounced by the Patriot as a public enemy. Our object, however, was justice to a section of the people who are badly treated in the matter of education. We did not wish our Government to go as far as the Legislature of Quebec. Our demands were very moderate, still the appeals which we made for justice were not listened to. Now, in Lower Canada, when the Protestant portion of the population complained that the School System was unjust to them, the Legislature promptly remedied the evil. The liberal action of the Legislature, of Quebec on this vexed question should shame our Government into doing something like justice to the Catholics of this Island on the subject of Education.

The pulse of our Island home beats low. From all appearances we will soon cease to exist as a separate Colony. In view of the recent despatches of the Colonial Minister, in which he informs us that Her Majesty's Government will soon cease to trouble itself about our affairs, it will require all the wisdom of the Legislature to avoid having the Colony required to be a province of the Confederation. It will require, too, the united action of the people to avoid such a calamity, for it is well known that, as a member of the Confederation, we will have to pay twice the amount of taxes we now pay. At present the sympathy of the Catholics is alienated from the Government, because of its illiberal policy on the School question. In granting a small sum of money in aid of Catholic schools, the Government would "remove from the sphere of political discussion a perplexing question which has caused ill-feeling in the past," and which is likely to do so in the future. Would it not be good policy on the part of the Government to grant the sum asked for by Mr. Howland, and thus secure united action on the part of our people in the present threatening and complicated state of affairs. We are merely throwing out the suggestion. We are sure that all moderate men will agree with us in this view of the case. The Patriot, as usual, we feel convinced, will denounce us for our want of patriotism in this matter, and say we are asking a price for our assistance to the Government is its difficulty; but we do not view to please that consistent sheet. Our views on the question of Confederation are too well known, to need reiteration here. Our object is simply to secure the united action of the people so that we may be the better able to face the difficulties which surround us. Patriotism mainly consists in the people being dealt justly with by the Government. It is a very hard matter to force people to be patriotic when they have been badly treated. The sum demanded by the Catholics is not so much, a matter of three hundred pounds a year or so. Will the Government try the experiment and grant the small sum asked? We feel satisfied it will be worth their while to do so, especially if they intend to maintain the present independent position of the Colony.

It is rumored that the Charlottetown Harmonic Society has been invited to join the ladies getting up the forthcoming Gipsy Concert. As it is well known that this Society is composed of some of the best vocal material in the city, the affair is likely to be no interior in effect to that recently given in Halifax, was previous received, that the Society will refuse to aid the ladies in their present effort, considering the cause.

Benevolent Irish Society.

At the Annual Meeting of the above Society, held at St. Andrew's Hall, on the 10th March last, the following gentlemen were appointed Officers for the ensuing year, viz:—

Patron, Hon. D. Brennan, (re-elected).
President, James Rodin, Esq., do
1st Vice, Mr. J. A. McKenna, do
2nd Vice, do
Treasurer, Mr. Martin Hogan, (re-elected).
Secretary, John S. O'Neill.

Committee of Charity:—Mr. James F. White, Chairman; Messrs. Michael Kelly, H. G. MacIntyre, Daniel Griffin, Francis McGroarty, Standard Bearers:—Messrs. P. Duffy, M. Kelly, and A. Sullivan.

POLITICAL.

Under the head of "the Situation" the Patriot of the 27th ult. pours its "seven vials" on the head of the Hon George W. Howland. Mr. Howland is no exception to the rule pursued by the "four gun battery" of the Patriot towards all public men who differ from these self-constituted censors on the public questions of the day, for the Hon. Col. Gray, T. H. Haviland, the Messrs. Pope and others come in for a share.

The head and front of Mr. Howland's offending was, that he sought simple justice from the hands of his party for the Bishop's memorial. In Charlottetown His Lordship educates some four hundred and sixty children, and receives not one farthing from the public funds, whilst the Government Schools in Charlottetown and Royalty educate some eight hundred and twenty and draw upwards of £2,112, which comes alike from the pockets of Catholics and Protestants. According to the above statement it will readily appear to any person taking the trouble to make the calculation, his Lordship ought to receive, pro rata, the sum of £1,700. Mr. Howland and the other Catholic members did not, however, request any such amount, but that merely the sum of £300 should be granted for the present to St. Dunstan's College, leaving the question of the other Schools to go over until the next election. Mr. Hensley, whom some rumor sets down as being of the same opinion as Mr. Howland in those matters, notified his Protestant supporters that he wished to consult them on the question, and would, some day soon, hold a "caucus" for that purpose "Tonal" as once got his "moccasins on" and it is reported that between "Tonal" and himself the subject of the matter was discussed in the Pavilion Hotel, whilst instructing the members boarding there "not to give way to Howland and the Bishop." "Let their watchword be 'no surrender.'" "If you give way now, there is no knowing to what length this will lead." "It is assisting Popery," "Tonal" says to "David," "now we have got them; and they shall have a lesson, as I have heard it stated, also that the new member for Summerside was willing to go for the "Grant," but presently Sheriff Hunt appeared on the scene, and made him all right.

The Patriot folk were "jubilant," "Tonal" says to "David," "now we have got them; and they shall have a lesson, as I have heard it stated, also that the new member for Summerside was willing to go for the "Grant," but presently Sheriff Hunt appeared on the scene, and made him all right.

"The best laid schemes of mice and men oft go awry," the only thing that surprises us in this matter was the very modest request made by Mr. Howland and his associates; and the Roman Catholics, as well as the liberal-minded Protestants of the Colony, will see what a miserable, bigoted, and narrow-minded set of men are the Protestant supporters of the present party. Withholding all that grant, which, if the "laborer is worthy of his hire," His Lordship is fully entitled to, shows how little dependence is to be placed in the great "Liberal Party" of this Island. There is no class of people on the Island who have such a vested interest in the Catholic party. Money has, to the extent of hundreds of pounds, been spent; hardships have been endured from the East Point to the North Cape to secure a majority for this Party. At the last Election, also, every Catholic who had a vote cast it in favor of this Party, and yet, notwithstanding all that, the sum of £300 is withheld upon no other grounds than that we are Catholics.

If the Catholic people of this Island are satisfied with this state of things, we are much surprised. For we believe Bishop Melville's labors in aid of Education would not go unrewarded in any House of Assembly in the other Colonies, from Vancouver to Newfoundland, and all those Catholics who, in the past, have opposed the present Government too strongly, will now know how far we were wrong in our estimate of them.

The member for Casouapung, Herbert Bell, Esq., and George Sinclair, Esq., for Egmont Bay, were, we understand, among the loudest in their denunciations of the Bishop's Memorial. These gentlemen are like the frog in the fable, very much puffed up with their own importance. We never expected any thing better from them, inasmuch as they do not represent the views of the majority of the people of their Districts. The people of Egmont and Egmont Bay will know how to estimate the assertions and "self-worth" of these very liberal and high-minded gentlemen.

In conclusion, we do not believe the Protestants of the Island are fairly represented by such worthies as the Messrs. Laird, Sinclair, Cameron, McNeill, Bell, Coles, Callbeck, and McMillan. No; we have a much higher opinion of the Protestants who follow in the path of the "Whelan Memorial Fund." As a literary production, we judge this to be one of the happiest efforts of the Island Muse, creditable both to the heart and to the hand of the author, and also to the memory of his departed friend, whose early history, in connection with Liberal Politics, is celebrated by the poet in easy and flowing verse. Our own recollection of the past does not reach so far back as to embrace all the topics introduced into these stanzas, but we believe the principal incidents in the past history of the deceased statesman, are produced with candor and like-like accuracy; and we are sure there are thousands of hearts in Prince Edward Island that will willingly respond to the truth of the sentiment, so feelingly expressed in one of the concluding verses of the Monody:

"Our early friends alas! how fast they go!
Like falling leaves that one another chase,
Although the chief may their records trace—
Old friends, by death removed, new friends can ne'er replace."

We have seldom seen a finer display of ladies' Dress Materials than that exhibited by our friend Robert Young. They consist of 100 yards of variety of fancy Dress from 100 per yard upwards, Colours, in almost every shade and quality. Winseys, good and heavy, from 14 per yard, French Merinos and the leading colors, very cheap, Prints from 8d per yard very good, and nice Gingham, from 8d. Ladies would do well to take a note of this.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EXAMINER.

Sir:—In your last week's issue in your article giving well-deserved praise to Messrs. Blake and others, for their spirit and enterprise in providing those very superior animals exhibited at the Easter Show, in the list of names of the breeders, the name of "Blake's Ox (Mutt's)." This, calculated to lead to the impression that the ox was bred by the gentleman you name, which is not the case.

I have noticed in other of the City papers mention made of the parties who bred the different beasts. Generally, in other countries, when honorable mention is made of valuable stock, the breeder comes in for a share. It is your opinion that this is the consequence with us?

I am,
Sir,
Your constant reader,
AND A SUBSCRIBER.
Queen's County, 31st March, 1869.

In answer to the above correspondent we would state that in our opinion the "Breeder" of cattle is entitled to as much praise as the person who "Feeds," but in this case as in almost everything else, of a similar nature, there is a difficulty in securing authentic information. We hope for the future that the Agricultural Society for Queen's County, now organized, will take the matter in hand, and not only supply all necessary information, but also be in a position to offer a handsome reward to both the Breeder and Feeder of Stock. The present session of the Legislature we are also in hopes of having the steamer on the route as last summer. She has not altogether given satisfaction, but it would be retrograde step to suspend her entirely now. She can now come to the end of winter and of the breaker, so there can be no excuse as far as morage is concerned.

The Edinburgh Review for January, 1869, has come to hand. This number will well repay perusal. The contents are:—1. Spain under Charles II. 2. Lord Kingsdown Revolutions of the Past. 3. The League of the South. 4. Foreign Realities. 5. The League of the South. 6. Government Telegraphs. 7. D-an Milner's Annual of St. Paul's. 8. Hunters Annual of Rural Regard. 9. General Ullyses Simpson Grant; 10. Mr. Bright's Speeches.

The WORKINGMEN'S UNION.—On Thursday evening last, the mechanics and workmen of Summerside held a public meeting for the purpose of forming a club. Capt. James Welsh was called to the chair. Many of the men complained of the mode of payment of the mechanics, and pressed a desire to work on the "cash system," even at a more reduced figure than is at present obtained. The meeting was opened, and a large number of the meeting adjourned until last Monday, when they met again, and formed a constitution and committee of officers. The meeting was held in the "Working Men's Club." They met again on Tuesday evening next. We will have news to say about this society in a future number.—Sum. Jour.

A Telegram received by E. D. Tucker & Co., yesterday, from New York, states that the ship "Hank" had arrived at St. John's, from the ice, full of seals. The Master of the "Hank" reports, that the "Merlin," another steamer, is also full.—H. Express.

By late Newfoundland papers we see "that no liberal arrangement shall be made for the admission of the iron ore to the Island, which will be made to the people at the rate of 25 cents per ton."

VELOCIPEDE COMPETITION.
By an advertisement in another column it will be seen that a competition will take place in the Market Hall, on Wednesday evening next. Judging from the attendance at the last competition, we are not surprised at the number of city folk will visit the Hall on that evening. This being the best Velocipede in the City, the room being more spacious, and the managers courteous and obliging, we would recommend parties desiring to acquire a knowledge of the art of riding the Velocipede, to apply to Mr. Hickey at the City Hall.

Pownal Literary Institute.
On Wednesday evening, March 31st, Donald Ferguson, Esq., East River, delivered a highly interesting and instructive lecture at Pownal Hall, on the subject being, according to the request of the officers of the Institute, the "Life and Times of George Washington." The lecture was fully appreciated by a large and respectable audience, and the comparative ease, energy, and other excellent traits, by which he proved that in private or public life, the merit of Washington has scarcely ever been exceeded. The learned lecturer gave a history of the Revolution, and the gratitude of America, as his services were rendered from a state of liberty, and not from necessary motives.

John Butler, Sec'y.
Young Men's Christian Association.
The sixth and last lecture of the course, before the Y. M. C. Association, will be delivered at the Infants School Room, on Wednesday evening next, the 28th inst., by the Rev. David Fitzgerald, A. B. Subject, "Botany, in connection with Horticulture and Agriculture."
Doors open at 8. Chair to be taken at 8 p. m. Admission free 2d.

Charlottetown Debating Club.
On Friday evening last the question—"Should the people of the Island be allowed to elect a Governor?" was opened by Mr. A. McNeill, and after an animated discussion, it was decided in the negative by a small majority.

The subject for debate on Friday evening next, the 9th inst., will be—"Was the Government of this Island, in its present form, the best for the Colonial Minister to pass a law to compel Proprietors to sell their lands?" Opener—Mr. R. Shaw.
F. L. HASKARD, Sec'y.

HARD TO HEAT.—There is to be seen, at the barn of Thomas Sims, Esq. of Kensington, Lot 19 a BULL CALF, of the Ayrshire breed, nine months old, which is five feet and is well proportioned. Experienced judges allow that his dead weight would be about three hundred and fifty pounds. The calf was on exhibition at the Fair held here last fall. The Stock Farm will find it hard to beat the calf, either in size or breed.—Sum. Jour.

Y. M. C. A. Literary Class.
The subject for debate next Wednesday evening will be "Beat the Poets."
The subject for this session, a full attendance of members is requested.
W. F. DAWSON, Sec'y.
