MONTREAL EAST.—The working men and Liberal-Conservatives are smiling broadly at their great victory in Montreal East. The Grit organs supported the late member in the general election, and always classed him among their alleged supporters. The present result is therefore a constituency redeemed.

They will play the New Glasgow and Victoria teams on their way home. A committee has been appointed to solicit subscriptions from the citizens to help defray the expenses of the team. We trust that they will meet with success.

THE RIOT AT SAWYERVILLE.—In explanation of the news of riot at Sawyerville, Quebec, the following statement is made:—"The contractors engaged in building the Hereford Railway, who left the country, had 700 Italian laborers, who have not been paid any wages since August 1. These laborers congregated together near Sawyerville, and several riots with laborers engaged by the railway company, occurred. As more serious trouble was anticipated the militia were called out to quell the disturbance."

TWENTY-SIX WIVES.—The youthful Emperor of China has evidently not been impressed by Mrs. Mona Caird's article on "Is Marriage a Failure?" He considers that marriage is a success, and, in fact, that he cannot have too much of it. According to a Shanghai paper, on the 9th of July there were selected for him twenty-six wives, of whom half a dozen came from Mandarin families. There were no fewer than 136 candidates for a position in the Emperor's harem, but one hundred and ten were rejected as unsuitable.

EXHIBITION NOTES.—The live stock entries, which closed last night, show a very large increase over preceding years.

The Gaslight Company as well as the Electric Light Company are notified to supply all the lights they can possibly place on the grounds and building.

Representatives of the press are invited to visit the exhibition building during the afternoon and evening of Tuesday next, as well as on the two following days.

Exhibits in the fine arts, woollen goods, manufactured articles, &c., will be received on Monday, in order to be able to attend the Roots, Vegetables, Fruit, &c., on Tuesday up to 2 p. m., when the doors will be closed for the judges to commence inspection.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. [April 1 '88

A telegram from Ottawa stating that the Dominion Government had received advice from the Australian Governments urging negotiations for closer trade relations between Australia and Canada is arousing comment in Great Britain. The Daily Chronicle voices the general sentiment in an editorial wherein it rejoices at the movement as distinctly tending to imperial unity, and says if both the colonies wish to enter into such negotiations it is quite safe to assume that the Imperial Government will gladly give the required assistance. The Australian invitation is opportune, seeing the possibility of relation by the United States. It hopes the various parts of the Empire will ultimately recognize the wisdom of forming themselves into a sort of Zollverein Empire, which could afford to adopt the American free trade policy between the various States, and protection in dealings with other countries.

The Dean of Mancheser preached to an immense congregation in the open air at Peel, in the Isle of Man, on Sunday.

Ode of Welcome.

TO MR. MEIKLE AND DELEGATES AT THE RAILWAY MEN'S CONVENTION.

BY MRS. A. D. MACLEOD.

No flaunting of martial array
No trumpet-tongued herald of war,
Nor minstrelsy, chastened or gay,
Hath noted your coming afar.

Endowed with the loftiest aim,
Rich freighted of missions sublime,
Nor lured by the mirage of fame,
Nor hedged by the limits of time.

'Clad in the wisdom of right
Safe girt with the Spirit's keen sword;
High over sect, ye star the night
With emblems of our Saviour-Lord.

In His name we bid ye "All Hail!"
Blest King of our blest brotherhood;
His crown, which the years may not pale
Is gemmed, not with great, but with good.

Ho! voices which speak in the life!
Re-echo your teachings of weal;
To wordings, sore vexed in the strife,
A Christ-life of beauty reveal.

Not sad, with a fashion of sadness
Low soaring on weak, drooping wing;
But glad, with a right to your gladness,
As sons of a glorious King.

*Thou! leader in our righteous cause
Whose zeal of old quelled the godless will;
Bright faith, brave hope, Heaven's perfect
Laws,

Inspire and aid thy efforts still.
Still, firm in the courage of candour
Thy war upon evil ne'er cease;
Still, souls realize their own grandeur
And rise to the summits of peace.

Wherever the mighty steam-power,
The highway of travel hath won,
From the land of the lotus-flower,
To the home of the setting sun.

T'will bear, as on pinions of wind,
The sweet message of Love Divine,
Till the far, dusky tribes of Ind
Arise from Vishnu's, Jager's shrine.

And Mammon, base god of the West,
Down-fallen, shall burrow in shame;
Whist joy-peals in souls of the blest,
Ring out in the ne'er ending acclaim.

Ring out o'er the past with its gloom,
Its want, its injustice, its woe;
Ring forth to the future of bloom
The home which no sorrows may know.

Then haste on millennial days,
Re-utter the story around,
Till prayer shall vanish in praise,
The victor with glory be crowned.

*Mr. Meikle.
