VOICES APPRECIATION —Two events of the present week—the inauguration of the Dr. Robertson memorial lectures at Prince of Wales College and the Government supper tendered the members of the Legislature at the Vocational School, were commented on with marked appreciation in the Legislature yesterday by Hon. Dr. MacMillan, leader of the Opposition.

HAPPY OCCASION — In the Legislature yesterday Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, leader of the Opposition, was the recipient of a handsome bouquet and many warm tributes from members on both sides, the occasion being Dr. MacMillan's sixty-ninth birthday anniversary. Premier Jones led off by extending his felicitations, and was followed by Mr. R. R. Bell, Hon. W. E. Darby, Hon. H. H. Cox, Mr. George Saville and Hon. Mr. Baker.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS EMILY S. EVANS
MRS. A. N. LARGE

The death occurred in the P. E. I. Hospital on Thursday, March 16 of Miss Emily S. Evans, 12 Havilland Street, Charlottetown. Although the deceased did not enjoy the best of health during the past four months, it was not apparent that her condition was critical as she had entered the hospital for treatment only one day prior to her demise. Her generous and cheerful nature which endeared her to all was ever foremost.

Miss Evans was a lifelong member of St. Paul's Church and was ever present at its services. Although in failing health she was overjoyed to be able to attend the service on Christmas Day.

Her passing was a great shock to her family and friends especially to her only and dearly beloved sister, Mrs. A. N. Large. Other relatives include one nephew, Gordon Evans and two nieces, Mrs. Russell Beers and Mrs. Herman Feavyour.

The funeral service was held on Saturday, March 18 from St. Paul's Church and was conducted by the Rector, Rev. J. T. Ibbott. Hymns used were "Abide With Me" and "Forever With The Lord." Interment in the People's Cemetery.

Following the funeral service of her sister, Mrs. Large was stricken with a sudden illness from which she never rallied; being tenderly cared for by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jack Large, Euston Street, she passed peacefully away on March 21 surrounded by her loved ones.

Mrs. Large, nee Mary Evans, was the widow of Albert N. Large of Charlottetown who passed away in 1931. Mr. Large was a partner in the firm of Large Bros., Livery Stable. Her two sons predeceased her, the eldest son Frederick in 1921 and Jack in 1937. She is survived by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jack Large and two grandchildren Joan and Donald.

Mrs. Large was a valued member of St. Paul's Church and took an active part in all its activities. At the recent annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England in Canada, Mrs Large was to receive a Life Membership but was unable to attend due to her sister's illness.

Her funeral service was held at St. Paul's Church on Thursday, March 23. Hymns used were "Abide With Me" and "Safe In The Arms of Jesus."

Both Miss Evans and Mrs. Large were widely known in Charlottetown where they lived the greater part of their lives and they leave behind many happy memories for friends to cherish.

They were the last surviving members of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Evans of Torquay, England. They were inseparable companions in life and undivided in death.

The floral tributes were beautiful and bear silent testimony of the memory of the departed..

"From the dust of the weary highway
From the smart of sorrow's rod
Into the Royal Presence
They are bidden as guests of God".

FUNERAL THURSDAY — The funeral of Cecilia Agnes Campbell was held at 8:45 on Thursday morning, March 23rd, from the residence of her mother, Mrs. James D. Campbell, 99 Pownal St., to St. Dunstan's Basilica, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Francis MacDonald. Mrs. Joseph Dougan was organist and Rev. Bernard Gillis, D.D., and Mr. Albert Blanchard sang the Mass. Honorary pallbearers were Byron Bowness, Walter Hennessey, Dr. T. E. E. Robbins, H. F. MacPhee, Gordon Hutcheson, Jack Doyle. Active pallbearers were James Lonergan, Gregory Hughes, Gerald Maddigan, R. N. Cameron, Edward Garnhum, Somerled Trainor. The remains were taken from St. Dunstan's Basilica to St. Michael's Church, Corran Ban for interment. Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Father Wood.

WELFARE SERVICES — Speaking in the Legislature on Thursday, Health and Welfare Minister A.W.. Matheson pointed out that in this Province it would mean an increase of 70 percent in old age pensions if the age for the means test was reduced from 70 to 65 years, and an increase of 150 percent if the age was reduced from 70 to 60 years. In yesterday's issue he was inadvertently misquoted on this subject. In referring to mothers' allowances, he stated that the maximum payment was $60 a month.
