If the Prussian conscription were applied in India, England would have 2,500,000 regular soldiers actually in barracks, with 800,000 recruits coming up every year.

The cheapest animal to raise is the sheep, and with the growing appetite for tender lamb and mutton in this country it is one of the most profitable.

As She Viewed It.
The man was nearly out of breath. When he could speak he said to the wondering woman:

"I have just saved your husband from a watery grave. He threw himself into the river, and at the risk of my own life I jumped in and saved him."

"Well," she said, as she resumed her frowning, "I always feared that you'd try to be revenged for being refused by me seven years ago, but I never dreamed that your hate would lead you to do such a thing as this."

Then she began singing a lullaby to the bare legged little boy who was rolling on the floor.—Exchange.

Saw It First Thing.
Fuddy—Hilton went home the other day and found the house empty. He thought he wouldn't tell his wife he had been at home, but she found it out the moment she entered the house.

Duddy—Left the pantry door open or forgot to close a window or something of that sort?

Fuddy—No. He sat down on a chair for a moment, and of course he mused the tidy in his usual way.—Boston Transcript.

Don't Be Angry.
It doesn't pay to get angry. Anger uses up the nerve forces of the body. So does worry; so does hate. A bad temper wears you out. It makes you needless enemies. It spoils your looks. A man with a bad temper had better tie a stone around his neck and throw it into a lake. If he doesn't, it is liable to drag him—but we won't speculate about that.—Denver News.

Fatal Error.
"N. Peck's wife leads him a rather merry game, I fancy."

"Oh, yes. When he was courting her, he told her one day she looked pretty when she was angry. And now it has got to be a habit."—Indianapolis Journal.

She Knew It.
Police Passenger—Madam, this is the smoking car.

Old Woman (producing her pipe)—Yes, I tho't it be. Great convenience, ain't they?—Ohio State Journal.

No hero expects people to pat him on the back for his acts. Heroism is spontaneous, and he who stops to count the reward loses both the opportunity and the glory.—St. Louis Star.

When a man is calm in a shipwreck, it does not necessarily follow that he is brave. He may be seasick.—Detroit Journal.

LOCAL NOTICES.
A whole concert in itself "the Graphophone Grand" to rent apply to Miller Bros.

Order your double windows now. All sizes on hand.—A Duchemin & Co. 31.

A Big Shipment—Geo. Carter & Co have just received a carload of fancy goods, toys, dolls, games, chinaware, toy picture books, etc, and have lots more to follow. The little folks wants are going to be looked after by this firm for Xmas gifts. 269 Sins.

Brighton Brewery is turning out very superior Ale and Stout. See add on first page of this issue.

Are you all supplied with good warm Underclothing? Every man and boy who still want the best value in Underclothing go direct to J B Macdonald & Co.

Keep warm. All wool home mad blanketing, one or two yards wide, very cheap.—Prowse Bros. 313.

Another lot of men's and boys' sweaters in cardinal, navy and fancy mixed colors—will be sold at very low prices.—J B Macdonald & Co

The best way to avoid sickness is to keep yourself healthy by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

Keep your hands warm with a pair of our nice warm gloves.—R. H. Ramsay & Co.

For oilcloth squares, ends of oilcloth and general house furnishings try Paton & Co's.
