Mrs. E. H. Norton, Mrs. Rooms and Prof. D. J. McLeod have kindly consented to sing at the concert on Friday evening at the Lyceum.

15 doz. Nasal Balm 12 doz. Pills Pills and 12 doz. Hansons Corn Salve, opened at wholesale prices. The place to buy is at Dadds Medical Hall.

Don't forget the entertainment by the Juvenile Templars in McLeod's Hall to-night. You may be sure of a good time. Admission only 10 cents.

We understand that Mr. H. L. Hertz has given notice of his resignation of the leadership of the First Methodist Church choir.

The steamer William, owned by R. McMillan, Esq., will be launched again after undergoing repairs, next week. She will proceed to Boston as soon as the ice will permit.

MR. JUSTICE YOUNG has, as usual, a splendid collection of hyacinths this year. He has a table covered with these fragrant flowers, which he keeps in a cool place in full bloom for about two months.

The Rev. W. W. Brewer delivered his lecture on "The Sunny Side of Life," at the students of Prince of Wales College. The lecture was greatly enjoyed by all present, and their appreciation of the same was fittingly voiced by the chairman, Wm. Hooper, Esq., M. L. C. and the Rev. J. W. McKenzie. Proceeds devoted to passage purposes.

The big discount, which so many have taken advantage of that James Paton & Co. have been giving on their carpets for the past three weeks will only be continued one week longer, as they have received advice that their new carpets will be here in a few days. If you want a bargain in a carpet don't let this week pass.

A VERY successful Pic Social was held at Mt. Stewart on the evening of St. Patrick's Day, in the interest of the new Methodist Parsonage. Friends of all denominations rallied to the help of the committee, a pleasant evening was spent, and sixty-six dollars were realized. Readings, music and singing added to the enjoyment of the occasion, and an address from Rev. W. W. Brewer brought the gathering to a close and all went away in the very best of good humor.

We cannot refrain from speaking a word of praise in favor of Prof. McLeod for the deep and active interest he has been manifesting in the highest welfare of the students of Prince of Wales College. The success of the College Y. M. C. A. has been marked. The majority of the students have become members, and one night each week and on Sunday afternoons they gather together in a room which they have rented and fitted up themselves for religious exercises. The effect of these meetings on many of the students has been marked. To Prof. McLeod, who is the head and front of the movement, great praise is due.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

IN future the Government Steamer "Stanley" will run during the winter months between Charlottetown and Pictou, while the ice will admit of her making a return trip each day, commencing on the 1st December.

When the ice becomes so heavy that she cannot make return daily trips, the ice boats will carry the mail between Cape Traverse and the Island throughout the winter, weather permitting, and the "Stanley" will then run between Pictou and Charlottetown for the purpose of carrying passengers and freight, making only one trip each day, leaving Pictou on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings at 7 o'clock, and leaving Charlottetown on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday mornings at the same hour.

Notice of her arrival at Charlottetown will be made public by the Agent of the Marine Department at Charlottetown each day, and also the hour of her intended departure from Charlottetown.

As soon as the "Stanley" begins making a return trip between the mainland and the Island in the early part of the year, the ice-boat service at the Cape will be discontinued, so that as far as possible, a daily mail each way will be conveyed between the mainland and the Island through the winter.

The "Stanley" will continue on the route until the 1st May in each year, and will continue longer than that date if the Company's boats are not able to keep up daily communication with the Island.

W. M. SMITH, Deputy Minister of Marine, Department of Marine, Ottawa, 3rd February, 1891.

How the Treasury is Robbed.

Special Despatch to the Times.

WASHINGTON, March 6.

The officers of the present administration are very quick to discover the shortcomings of their predecessors, and numerous suggestions are made by them of much needed reforms, not only in regard to civil service changes, but in the manner of conducting the routine of business, so as to secure greater economy and protect the treasury from fraud upon the government.

A prominent treasury official says that the method of keeping books and files and of conducting the general office business in the departments had not kept pace with the times, but is the same as that in vogue when the government was first organized.

For instance, as General Rosecrans, the present Register of the Treasury, said to-day, no precaution whatever is taken to prevent the duplication of bonds or treasury notes should the plates fall into dishonest hands, and he says the government has paid millions of dollars in the redemption of bonds and notes which have been taken from true plates.

In 1871 duplicates of coupons on bonds amounting to over thirteen millions of dollars were discovered, and as they bore the signature of Jay Cooke & Co., they were paid by the government. These coupons were undoubtedly taken from the true plates. A record is kept of the redemption of bonds by number and designation, and of their cancellation, but no record is kept of greenback notes, consequently there is no way to prevent the redemption of any number of copies of the same bank note.

When a private bank contracts for the printing of its notes the contractor is made responsible for any duplication, and if a duplicate is discovered the contractor is to pay for it. But the government has no recourse. The General suggests that the present administration shall issue a new series of notes, with all the modern improvements as to paper, style and form, and precautions similar to that adopted by private bankers against duplication should be taken.

But this seems a hard matter, and as the case stands these scoundrels have everything to suit themselves, as they are certainly backed in their nefarious work by some person high in government favor, and it seems almost impossible to unearth this bold and successful scheme, or even to get the slightest clue to whom they deal with and how long the fraudulent issue of greenbacks has been going on in a hard matter to say, as they carry on their work with such secrecy that there is no chance of bringing them to justice, as the work is so perfect it is a proven fact they are in collusion with the engraving department, and this accounts for the millions of greenbacks that have been issued without the knowledge of the government. Thousands of dollars of this spurious issue has been used by the Republican party to further their interests on election day, and it is positively asserted that officials high in government favor have been sending these spurious greenbacks to their friends to be distributed on election day.
