Clawson - MacPhail Wedding

At a pretty wedding ceremony at the Baptist Church, Charlottetown, on Monday, June 8th, at half past ten Isabel Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward MacPhail of Southport, and Ernest Alexander Clawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Clawson of Charlottetown exchanged marriage vows.

Mr. J. D. Davison, minister, performed the double ring ceremony, while the organist was Mr. Royston F. Mugford, who played "Chanson sans Paroles" by Tchaikovsky and Handel's "Largo" before the ceremony. The processional was Wagner's "Bridal Chorus," and the recessional "March of the Wedding March."

The church was decorated with lighted candles and bouquets of apple blossoms. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a ballerina style gown of white lace over satin with shoulder length veil of illusion, and she carried a bouquet of red and white roses. The bride's attendant was Mrs. John Hodgson, as matron of honour, wearing a ballerina length gown of yellow, and headdress matching her gown. She carried a nosegay of yellow and white flowers.

The groomsmen were Mr. Robert Clawson, brother of the groom, and ushers were Mr. Lloyd MacPhail, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Alexander Ross, cousin of the groom. The bride's mother chose for the occasion a dress of coral brown, with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of Tailsman roses. Mrs. Clawson wore a dress of navy with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride in Southport. The bride's table, arranged with a lace cloth, a bouquet of snapdragons and lighted tapers in silver candelabra, was centred with the bride's cake. Mrs. Grafton Robey poured, and assisting in serving were a number of friends of the bride - Miss Audrey Cutiliffe, Miss Lois Arsenault, Mrs. Donald McLennan, Mrs. Ronald Woodgate and Miss Betty Roberts. Mr. Davison proposed the toast to the bride, which was responded to by the groom.

The bride and groom left later by motor for Toronto, where Mr. Clawson holds a position at the head office of John Inglis Co. planning to visit points of interest along the way. The bride wore for travelling a brown dress, with brown and yellow accessories, and a yellow corsage. Among the out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Grafton Robey of Boston, Mass., aunt and uncle of the bride; Mr. Alexander Ross, Maitawa, Ont.; Mrs. John Hodgson, Halifax, N. S.; Mr. Robert Clawson of Wrentham, C. B.; Mr. Roland Cooper, R. C. A. F. Station Summerside.

MEMORABLE OCCASION - The Special Visitors Book in the Confederation Chamber in the Provincial Building had a memorable occasion recorded in its pages yesterday when an Archbishop, a Bishop and three Canons of the Church of England inscribed their names as visitors to the historic room.

Brown of the staff of Pictou Academy, and Dr. H. W. Curran, Director of Extension at Queen's University, Kingston, Ont. The latter was attending the Atlantic Regional Conference of the Canadian Association for Adult Education held at Antigonish.

HOLMAN STORE NEWS

HERE'S food for thought... G. H. M. - being given plenty of time to think it over! Our GILLIAN HOGG is beginning to make plans for her SPECIAL ORDER TRIP - her tentative idea to visit Montreal and Toronto toward the end of August, when she will call on the manufacturers of finer Dresses, Coats and Suits for Fall... If you are or will be interested in procuring garments that will be exclusively Yours (you won't meet yourself on every corner) Think it over and contact Lilian Hogg, she will help you decide and she'll be happy to shop for you while she is away. It's reminding you every now and then about this Important Special Order Trip.

You'll definitely want one of the truly SUMMERY FROCKS of delicately patterned Puckerd Nylon that I eyed in the Ladies' Wear Department this morning. They're real "dream stuff" and some have attached Crinoline Petticoats for the desired bouffant look! The styles are simply darling - with wee collars, full billowy skirts and no sleeves... Cool in appearance and cool to wear. These beautiful Summer Puckerd Nylon Frocks, in Junior sizes are priced 14.95 and 16.95 in the Ladies' Wear at Holman's.

SEAM-FREE NYLONS are prettier on your legs than the best teased suntan you could possibly acquire. The Accessory Department has these in Ram Resistant Sheer weight with the new "Face Powder Finish"... They're Cameo Nylons in a glorious rosy-beige shade ("Secret") They are Summer-popular, clear as the sunrise and with the short, no-show, heel reinforcements. You'll have no thought or worry about twisted seams in these Nylons and no thought or worry about runs - they really are run-resistant! Give your "gams" glamour! with SEAM-FREE NYLONS, the sizes are 9 to 11, priced 1.50 a pair in the Accessory Department at Holman's.

Interesting Recital By Dancing Students

An interesting demonstration of tap dancing, ballet exercises and dancing ball room and folk dancing was given when the parents and friends of dancing students of Mrs. J. F. Millar gathered at her home Monday evening for an informal recital.

At the close of the recital, square dancing was enjoyed by a number of students and their guests, and refreshments were served. Those taking part in the classes were Miss Kitty Gass, who was awarded a prize for her year's work, and the Misses Carol Anne Hogan, Carolyn Owen, Margaret Parker, Winifred Anne Macmillan, Carol Chandler, Wendy Armstrong, Elizabeth Anderson, Kathrine Campbell and Gail Montgomery, each receiving a memento from their teacher, who was in turn presented with a gift from the students.

Altar Society Holds Annual Tea

Their annual spring tea was held Wednesday afternoon by the Holy Redeemer Altar Society, under the convenerhip of Mrs. Vincent Dalton, assisted by Mrs. John Robertson and Mrs. Joseph Costello, at the Holy Redeemer Community Centre.

Mauve and green formed the theme of the color scheme, which was carried out in lovely bouquets of spring flowers, and the table, covered with a lace cloth and tastefully arranged with yellow tapers in silver candelabra and a basket of multi-colored tulips, was presided over by Mrs. Allan MacDonald, Mrs. George Moran, Mrs. Emmet MacDonald and Mrs. Philip Rossiter. The guests, received by Mrs. James Coyle and Mrs. Aeneas Curley, were ushered into the dining room by Mrs. Leonard McDonald and Mrs. Ed Gallant.

Mrs. David Lecky, Mrs. E. Tanton, Miss Louisa Rossiter and Miss Leah MacMahon replenished, while Mrs. Jack Martin, Mrs. Herbert Gallant and Mrs. Fred Steele were in charge of the tea tables. Other members of the Society assisted in serving. A very successful fancy work table was in charge of Mrs. Fred MacQuaid and Mrs. J. Mullally, while Mrs. Maurice Hughes and Mrs. Gus Dowling presided over the candy table. Miss Bethany McDonald was pianist for the afternoon.

QUEER FISH - TAUPO, N. Z. (CP) - Taupo lake in New Zealand claims the world's best trout fishing, but a fisheries ranger made a record catch. He spotted three men fishing in illegal hours - at 1 a.m. - and when they fled he began winding one of their lines in. One of the fishermen was at the end of the line, his clothing tangled in the hook.
