TO LET PEAKE'S WHARF (NO 1)

Wharfage storage and yardage, at reasonable rates. Arthur G. Peake. Nov. 4

FOR SALE. RARE CHANCE

The property occupied by J. J. Gay and son in the village of "Royal," 7 miles from Charlottetown, is offered for sale. The premises have been carried on a large market garden nursery, and seed business for thirty years, and the purchaser will no doubt retain a large share of the local trade. The premises comprise a large dwelling house, store, warehouse, barn, shed, orchard, and about 15 acres of the most fertile land on the island. This land has been manured year after year for so long that as an old man said the other day: "It is all a bed of manure and would be hanted for top dressing." This would be an ideal spot for a country merchant, and it would be admirable for a summer resort. The situation is one of the most beautiful on the island. Good bathing, fishing, boating, shooting, and within easy distance, churches, post office, school, telephone and shops all at the door. For terms and further particulars, apply to Mrs. Clure Gay, J. J. Gay & son or to JOHN T. MELLISH, Solicitor, Charlottetown

CURTAIN RAISERS.

Bronson Howard has completed a new play, which will probably be produced this season. Wright Huntington has been secured as leading man of the stock company at the Alcazar theater in San Francisco. George Backus has won fresh honors by his clever and original interpretation of the title role in "Christopher, Jr."

It will cost Fanny Davenport $60,000 before the curtain goes up on the first performance of her new historical play. Nat C. Goodwin will first play Shylock during his coming engagement at the Knickerbocker theater, New York city.

James Young is meeting with success in a Shakespearean repertory. He is the youngest and one of the best of American tragedians. Charles B. Henford has received a letter from Paris which announces the fact that Bulwer Lytton's "Richelieu," translated into French by Charles Samson, is being released at the Theatre de l'Odéon.

Frank Daniels has produced his new opera, "The Idol's Eye," with conspicuous success. Mr. Daniels plays the role of an adventurous aeronaut, who drops among the British soldiers and nautch girls. Jessie Dartlett is branching out as a composer. She has set two of her poems to music, and they are meeting with much success. "Retrospection" and "Success of Scrow" are the titles of her songs.

Finero is a great admirer of Annie Irish. It was through him that she joined Edward Terry's company in London and played the role of Minnie O'Millian in "Sweet Lavender" for over nine months.

CROWN JEWELS.

The Princess of Wales's favorite flower is the lily of the valley, and the largest grower of these flowers in Great Britain has his garden near Sandringham. Out of compliment to the Emerald Isle the Duchess of York appeared in scarcely any other color than green—in some one or another of its various shades—during her recent visit to Ireland.

The German emperor has been put on an almost entirely fruit diet. He is not allowed to drink tea or coffee, and his physicians consider it imperative that he should always have eight hours' sleep. King Oscar of Sweden is said to bear his age so well that no one would suspect him of being 68 years old, nor would any one fancy him to be a king judging by his affability and utter absence of hauteur.

The Princess Bernadotte, crown princess of Sweden, who as an intriguing maid of honor captivated the heir to the throne, is almost intemperately addicted to the delights of a full fledged cigar, a penchant which is said to be shared by the queen of Saxony and the Grand Duchess of Baden.

It is said that more than half the reigning monarchs of Europe are troubled with defective eyesight. Among those who wear glasses in private are Queen Victoria, the king of Denmark, the czar, the queen regents of Spain and Holland, nearly every member of the house of Hapsburg and the Prince of Wales.

Elastic Advertising Rates.

When the advertising agent of one of the greatest shows on earth—for in the circus business "greatest" is not a superlative term at all—visited a small town in Kansas last summer, he called upon the editor of the local paper and inquired the cost of a double column display advertisement in the next two issues.

"Two hundred and eighty dollars," was the reply, without a second's hesitation. "Great Scott! Are you crazy?" cried the agent. "What would you charge us for a full page?"

"Two hundred and eighty—just the same." "But how do you figure it?" expostulated the circus man. "Haven't you any settled rate for space advertising?"

"See here, mister," earnestly remarked the editor, "I don't pay any attention to space in this deal, but I do know just what an advertisement in this paper will cost you. You may have a column, or a page, or the whole blank paper, just as you like. There's a mortgage for $280 on this shop, and your circus has got to help me out with it. If it doesn't, I'm a goner, that's all. You may move right in here and run the whole shooting match for a couple of weeks to suit yourself, but we've got to ante up $280 before next Saturday night. Now, then, are you a friendly Indian or are you a hostile?"

All the dates and extra posters used last season by that show throughout the west were printed in a little one horse newspaper office in Kansas. The paper is still issued regularly, and its editor shows every evidence that he is at peace with all the world, and is prospering.—Chicago Times-Herald.

A Moral Courage Hero.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond, in her account of the Jameson raid, tells a good story of a "moral courage" hero, one of those who remained in Johannesburg, "guarding the women and children," instead of going out to meet Jameson. It seems this gentleman gravely said to her, "If there had been war, I wonder if I should have had the moral courage to keep out of the fight?" "I looked into his face," said Mrs. Hammond, "and, seeing there his character, answered with dryness, 'Oh, I suspect you would.'"

Go to the Fountain.

That Gives Vitality and Robust Strength.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND THE WORLD'S GRANDEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

A few words of advice to the weary, dis-eased, broken down and despairing it is too late. You are evidently still in the slough of dependency, wondering what all your former efforts to obtain health have failed.

Ah! suffering brother and sister, you have not yet found that fountain of healing and health that tens of thousands of others have reached. In the past you have been misguided and deceived. You have followed the advice of friends and doctors who failed to grapple with the seriousness of your case, and now you are deeper than ever before in the mire of suffering.

Tens of thousands who suffer greater agonies than you have endured are now well, active, and enjoying the blessings of health, while you are still a slave to disease. The rescued ones found their new life in Paine's Celery Compound, earth's truest and grandest foundation of vitality. You have the same privileges—the same right to claim its healing powers. Neglect to do so means continued sickness, agony—yes death.

If you are in earnest in search of health, use the great health giver today; your case is too desperate to admit of delay; prompt action is your only hope. Mrs. W. Wigglesworth, of Liverpool, N. S., a cured lady, writes as follows:

"For fifteen years I suffered from nervous diseases and other serious troubles. A lady friend recommended me to use Paine's Celery Compound, and I have since received great benefit. Paine's Celery Compound has done what no other medicine could do for me. I can sleep well now, and my appetite is splendid. I advise all sufferers from nervousness and other diseases to use it. Seven bottles restored my health wonderfully."
