THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MARCH 10, 1893.

—The remark is made that now that Sir John Thompson has gone to Paris the Opposition at Ottawa will have much fun with Mr. Foster. The Montreal Gazette remarks that if it is followed by such a reply as the Finance Minister made to his critics at the close of the debate on the Budget speech the fun will not be more with than at the fun makers. When occasion requires Mr. Foster can pour vinegar on an opponent's raw spot as effectively as the next one, and his vinegar has a biting quality excelled by none.

—While the winter steamer Stanley is unfortunately disabled, we are having the mails and passengers conveyed with unprecedented regularity and promptitude by the brave couriers of the Capes. On the last three days the mails were brought across the Straits and delivered in Charlottetown by half past eleven o'clock in the forenoon. This breaks all previous records, and reflects great credit upon he service as conducted by the Government, as well as upon the experienced and able men in charge of the boats.

—Mr. Charles S. Bird, shows plainly in the Boston Herald (1) that New England cannot do without our coal, and that she must have it; (2) that there is a probability that coal will be admitted free into the States before long; and (3) that if the Americans, particularly the people of New England, get a fair chance, it will be to their interests as well as ours that the coal duty be abolisheds which means unparalleled activity in our coal mines in the future. The folly and wrong of giving our coal mines to a foreign syndicate is, under these circumstances the more apparent.

—The Montreal Gazette remarks that Sir John Thompson's speech upon the Manitoba school question "was not so much a defence of the action of the Government as it was a calm, clear, exhaustive factum of the whole case, every point and argument being carefully and plainly put, so that there could be no mistaking his meaning. He is determined that the strictly legal aspect of the case shall not be lost sight of in the attempts of demagogues or fanatics to drag it into the arena of politics, but at the same time he made it abundantly clear that there was not the slightest intention of attempting to escape full ministerial responsibility for all advice given to His Excellency."

—An occasion of great rejoicing to all lovers of woman's advancement is the action of the Wyoming legislators. The unanimous adoption by a body of men, of a resolution setting forth the unqualified success of Woman Suffrage in the past twenty-five years is the strongest endorsement possible. Coming just at this time, when the enemies of the franchise have been demanding a retraction of the privilege, it is an event of no ordinary significance. Here is the resolution in full; cut it out and send it to every doubting Thomas:—

"Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Wyoming: That the possession and exercise of suffrage bo the women of Wyoming for the past quarter of a century, has wrought no harm and has done great good in many ways; that it has largely aided in banishing crime, pauperism and vice from this state and that without any violent or oppressive legislation; that it has secured peaceful and orderly elections, good government and remarkable degree of civilization and public order, and we point with pride to the fact that after nearly twenty-five years of woman suffrage, not one county in Wyoming has a poor house, that our jails are almost empty, and crimes, except that by strangers in the state almost unknown, and as the result of experience, we urge every civilized community on earth to enfranchise its women without delay.

Resolved, That an authenticated copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the Governor of the state to the Legislature of every state and territory in this country and to every legislative body in the world; and that we request the press throughout the civilized world to call the attention of their readers to these resolutions.

Farmers' Union.

The members of the above union, of Lots 45 and 46, having severed their connection with those of Lot 44, through no fault of the former, held their weekly meeting at the Rockbarra Schoolhouse, on Friday evening, 3rd inst. Upwards of fifty members were present, and the first meeting under the new regime was an unqualified success. Mr. John Allan McDonald was delegated to the chair and Mr. John Alfred McDonald was appointed secretary. An interesting discussion followed.

A TREBLE AFFLICTION.—In obituary column this evening will be found announced the death of a young son of Michael Murphy, 161 Gottingen Street—Howard Francis, aged 3 years and 9 months. This is the third death in the family within five weeks. The others were a son, Ambrose, aged 20, who died of consumption on the 7th inst.; and an infant of five months who died of meningitis on the 17th of January. In this treble affliction the bereaved parents will have much sympathy.—Halifax Recorder, Feb. 23rd.

[Mr. Murphy is a son in law of the late Edward Mullen, Covehead Road.]

HAMILTON, April 20, 1892.
I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp. They told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snowflakes. Hearing of Anti-Dandruff, I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years; when half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair-dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

The Flag.

AN INCIDENT OF STRAIN'S EXPEDITION.

I never have got the bearings quite,
Though I've followed the course for many a year,
If he was crazy, clean outright,
Or only what you might say was "queer."

He was just a simple sailor man.
I mind it as well as yesterday,
When we messed aboard of the old "Cyane."
Lord! how the time does slip away!
That was five and thirty years ago,
When ships was ships and men was men,
And sailors wasn't afraid to go
To sea in a Yankee vessel then.
He was only a sort of bosun's mate,
But every inch of him taut and trim;
Stars and anchors and togs of state
Tailors don't build for the likes of him.
He flew a no-account sort of name,
A reg'lar fo' castle "Jim" or "Jack,"

With a plain "McGinnis" abaft the same,
Giner'ly reefed to simple "Mack."
Mack, we allowed was sorter queer—
Ballast or compass wosn't right;
Till he licked four juicers, one day, a fear
Prevailed that he hadn't larned to fight,
But I reckoned the captain knowed his man,
When he put the flag in his hand the day
That he went ashore from the old "Cayne,"
On a madman's cruise for Darlen Bay.

Forty years in the wilderness
We toiled and suffered and starved with Strain,
Losing the number of many a mess
In the Devil's swamps of the Spanish Main.
All of us starved and many died.
One lay down in his dull despair;
His stronger messmate went to his side,—
We left them both in the jungle there.
It was hard to part with shipmates so;
But standing by would have done no good.
We heard them moaning all day, so slow
We dragged along through the weary wood.
McGinnis, he suffered the worst of all;
Not that he ever piped his eye,
Or wouldn't have answered to the call
If they'd sounded it for "All hands to die."
I guess 'twould have sounded for him before,
But the grit inside of him kept him strong,
Till we met relief on the river shore;
And we all broke down when it came along.

All but McGinnis. Gaunt and tall,
Touching his hat, and standing square:
"Captain, the flag" . . . And that was all.
He just keeled over and foundered there.
The flag? We thought he had lost his head,—
It mightn't be much to lose at best,—
Till we came, by and by, to lug his bed,
And we found it folded around his breast.
He lay so calm and smiling there,
With the flag wrapped tight around his heart—
Maybe he saw his course all fair,
Only we couldn't read the chart.

JAMES JEFFREY ROCHE.

PUBLIC OPINION.

The Meeting at Little Pond.

A meeting was held at Little Pond School House on Monday evening, 6th March, inst., to consider the provisions of the Reserved Bill of last session. Notwithstanding the short notice given, there was a large attendance. Charles McDonald Esq., occupied the chair, and Edward A. McDonald acted as secretary. J. C. Underhay, M. P. P., explained the various provisions of the bill, showing that the mortgage vote might be used as a means to control and everrule the vote of the people in every district in the Province, that the disfranchisement of any portion of the electors by rearrangement of the districts or any other means, without direct instructions from the people, was a power which no legislature should assume, and if acknowledged by the people might be used at any time to retain in power a party in opposition to the wishes and interests of those who elected them, and that the proposed hiving of Lot 56, DeGros Marsh and Sturgeon was alike unjust to the supporters of both parties.

Mr. J. Nichol followed, strongly condemning the various provisions of the bill, and pointing out clearly the disadvantage it would be to the people of Lot 56 to be included in the District of Georgetown, and concluded by moving the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the revival of the mortgage vote, the disfranchisement of any portion of the electors, the re-arrangement of the districts for political purposes, or any other legislation calculated to retain any party in power otherwise than by honestly conducting the affairs of the Province so as to advance the interests of the people, does not meet with the approval of this meeting.

CHARLES MCDONALD,
Chairman.
EDWARD A. MCDONALD,
Secretary.

Entertainment at New Perth.

The entertainment at New Perth on Tuesday evening, Feby. 28th, was in every way a decided success. The meeting was presided over by C. Shaw, M. P. P., and the best of order prevailed. The schoolroom was so crowded that several persons were unable to obtain admission. The programme consisted of addresses, dialogues, vocal and instrumental music. Where each did so well it is needless to particularize. The perfect order that was maintained during the evening, and the rounds of applause that greeted the performers at the close of each act clearly demonstrated the appreciation of the audience. The proceeds are to be appropriated towards the building fund of the New Perth Hall Co. The young people of New Perth are to be congratulated on their laudable efforts toward erecting a public hall, and by the talent and ability displayed on Tuesday evening last there can be no doubt as to the success of the enterprise.—COM.
