Mrs. Walter Darrach of Charlottetown, and children, spent the week-end in Coleman. —O.

Rev. John M. and Mrs. Sheen of Elmsdale and their two sons were visitors to O'Leary on Saturday, April 7. —O.

Mrs. Martin Buchanan of nearby Mount Royal has received word that her sister, Mrs. Henry MacDowell of Ayer, Mass., had passed away at the home of her daughter, Louise. She was formerly Ida Silliker, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Silliker of Knutsford. —O.

BANQUET TENDED TO O'LEARY MAROONS TEAM

On Friday night, April 6, in the new O'Leary Legion Hall, the O'Leary Athletic Association, helped by a number of merchants and others of O'Leary, tendered a reception for the O'Leary Maroons Hockey Team who this year won the Intermediate B. Championship Trophy of the Physical Fitness Department. The Master of Ceremonies was William Turner, Principal of the O'Leary School. Short congratulatory speeches were made by Rev. C. O. Howlett, Upton Seaman, E. W. Turner, manager of the Maroons and Lloyd Silliker, the coach. A game of Darts was enjoyed and an enjoyable dance was held. O'Leary is proud of the fine sportsmanship of his hockey team and of their successes during the past winter season. —O.

Despite a torrential downpour of April showers on Sunday, April 8, there was a fine attendance of sixty-six students, most of them primary and junior ages but there was a good attendance in the young people's class, at the O'Leary United Church Sunday School. The Superintendent is a veteran Sunday School superintendent, Mr. A. J. Matheson, and leader, who on Sunday, May 27, will be retiring from active Sunday School work, completing fifty-three years of devoted and consecrated service. Mrs. A. J. Matheson will also be retiring on that date, completing forty-eight years of equally devoted service as the teacher of the junior girls' class. These devoted servants of our Master have influenced generations of the youth of O'Leary for truth and Christianity. A number of Mr. and Mrs. Matheson's former students are now active in the business world and in Church and State. May they richly enjoy their coming retirement for they have certainly earned it. —O.

On Friday evening, April 6, the parents and friends of the Knutsford Eagles Hockey Team held a most successful and enjoyable party in their honor for having won the Mathew and Ozon Trophy as the best team in the Community League which include the O'Leary Atomics, the Nonvale Hornets, Mount Royal Ramblers and the Knutsford Eagles. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodside kindly opened their lovely and spacious home for the happy occasion with about fifty present. The entertainment consisted of delightful movies shown by Messrs. Heath Woodside and Brenton Smallman. Mr. Robert Woodside then welcomed the gathering on behalf of Mrs. Woodside and Heath and called on Mrs. Dan Smallman who read an address of congratulations to the team and thanked Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Smallman who were responsible for arranging the party. Brenton being the team's manager and Mr. and Mrs. Woodside were also thanked for giving their home. Mrs. Woodside replied in her usual pleasing manner and expressed the wish that the boys would be successful next year and the parents and friends would again be celebrating the happy occasion. Rev. C. O. Howlett of O'Leary was the next speaker and expressed the hope that basketball could be organized for the summer and that blanket insurance could be arranged for the hockey team in winter. He congratulated the winners and stressed the part of good sportsmanship in the game. Mr. Ralph Ozon, O'Leary, one of the donors of the Trophy, then congratulated the Eagles and said that when the Trophy was donated, it was with the object of encouraging the boys in the country to participate in organized teams, thus creating friendly competition. This part of the program ended by the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." The ladies then served a very delightful and bountiful lunch and at a late hour all dispersed, feeling that our country life is enriched by such good cheer and fellowship. —O.

seem to be these days. It didn't take him long to find out that if he would have a home in the ground he must dig it himself, and the harder he worked the better the home.

He soon found out that it wasn't safe to go far from his own doorway, for many sharp eyes were always looking for young Crabs. So if at first he was a wee bit fussy about what he ate he soon got over it. I don't say that he was fussy, but if he was it didn't take him long to learn how foolish and dangerous that was. He ate whatever food was nearest to his doorway so that if need be he could scuttle back to safety in an instant. Anything he could eat he ate — green things, fruit that might drop near, fish if he was near the water and a dead fish happened to be washed up. He didn't care whether it was fresh or was what you or I would call spoiled.

So he ate whatever he could find where he found it, and the
