Duke of Windsor Calls on Eden

LONDON (Reuters)—The Duke of Windsor called on Prime Minister Eden Thursday at 10 Downing street.
The duke, uncle of the Queen, customarily sees the prime minister in his visits to England and the meeting was purely social, an authoritative source said.
He arrived from Paris by night ferry on Monday and is staying at the Earl of Dudley's home here.
A member of the Earl of Du-ley's staff said the duke is "doing some shopping and seeing old friends." He has no special engage-ments.
The duke is expected to return to Paris on Sunday.
