

Miss

X.

Dear Miss X,
My boyfriend never tells me if I look good or not. Sometimes a good looking girl will walk by and he'll comment. I know that he would never cheat or anything but its nice to hear sometimes if he thinks I look good. Sometimes I look at other girls and wonder why he goes out with me. He just says I wouldn't go out with you if I didn't think you were good looking. I just wish he would say so sometimes. Need to Know.

Dear Need to Know.
Maybe he just isn't comfortable saying how he feels. If he is not going to cheat then you have nothing to worry about. Just understand that he likes you and take the little things he does or says that show he does care. Miss X.

Dear Miss X.
I'm a sophmore student and I am in business at university. I don't think I will make 3rd year. What should I do if I don't. Scared.

Dear Scared,
Well if you really want a business degree take some of your courses over again to higher your marks (if you don't make it) or you could switch your major to something else. But it is not the end of the world if you don't make it so stop whining and start working harder.

Dear Miss X,
I'm always skipping classes. When I'm in bed, I just don't want to get up. What should I do? Signed Sleepy.

Dear Sleepy,
If you continue to skip classes you are certainly going to fail your courses. Maybe you should go to bed earlier. If this is not the problem then you should see your doctor maybe your blood is low. You should do something soon or you will waste a year of education and many $$ Miss X.

Dear Miss X;
Last week I went to a party at a friend's place and discovered something new. I have seen naked men before, but on this night after I drank too much something strange happened. He actually turned me on. This is really hard for me because this is the first time I have felt this way and it's scary. I'm not sure if it was the liquor I drank or if I was really turned on by his perfect body. Perhaps I have been repressing homosexual feelings all along. I'm not sure how to deal with this but I do need advice or it will be a very long year. Signed Confused

Dear confused,
I think you should get some counselling to find out if you are really harbouring homosexual desires. I am not in a position to tell you whether or not you are actually homosexual. There are counsellors on campus at Student Services and there are Self help groups in Ch'town unfortunately I don't have the phone number on hand, you can find out in the classifies of the Guardian/Patriot.
