Jr. World Wide Guild Have Fern Levy Guild

The Junior World Wide Guild met at the Baptist Church on January 14, with the members of the Fern Levy Guild as its guests. The president, Mrs. Windsor Brehaut, presided. The devotion followed by Call to Worship, followed by the hymn, "Work for the Night is Coming." The devotional theme was based on The Great Commission and was conducted by Mrs. Douglas Cameron, Mrs. Blois Manuel, Miss Jean MacArthur and Miss Norma Newton. The scripture was read by Mrs. David Hertz, who also led the group in prayer. A few minutes of silent prayer for the missionary work in Bolivia, and the new missionary language students in Portugal were also observed. Several of the songs were sung. The devotion closed with all members repeating the Guild Covenant. Mrs. Kenneth Yeo was pianist for the evening. Mrs. Milton conducted a very interesting and informative study on the work in Bolivia, describing some of the difficulties the missionaries encounter, and showed slides of the mission stations there. This was followed by a missionary contest, also conducted by Mrs. Milton. A vote of thanks was extended to the Junior Guild by Mrs. Ross Affleck, president of the Fern Levy Guild. A delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge. The meeting closed with the Friendship Circle and prayer by Mrs. Milton.

N. C. W. President Gives A Challenging Message

Dear Council Members: On January 1st, 1957, my personal wish for the New Year was that together we might successfully carry out responsibilities for the meeting of the International Council of Women; that our places for the comfort and entertainment of our visitors should be without flaw with sufficient money to pay our expenses; but even more that our attitudes and the spirit of our hospitality should be without flaw. I am sure when it was over we sincerely felt that we had gained for ourselves more than we had given. We had been rewarded by the friendship, understanding and wisdom of those who came from far away to meet with us. At the beginning of 1958 I wish for the extension and strengthening of the National, Provincial and Local Councils of Canada. "Proud heritage" has stirred me beyond measure. I feel unworthy of our pioneers. May we have the wisdom and grace, the stature and vision to play our full part in Canada and throughout the world. The challenge is even more serious and the need for great women never more urgent. Frauenda Eaton.

50th Wedding Anniversary Is A Very Happy Occasion

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. MacMurdo, Kelvin Grove were "at home" on Wednesday afternoon and evening, January 15, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary when relatives and friends from Summerside, Charlottetown, Kensington and intervening points, called to offer felicitations to this worthy couple who have made a creditable contribution to the life of the community on the personal level as friends and neighbours, and as members through the years of church or community endeavours. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Waugh assisted the celebrants in receiving the guests, Mrs. MacMurdo wearing a corsage of yellow roses and Mrs. Waugh yellow mums. A daughter, Mrs. James MacKay welcomed the guests in the afternoon, while another daughter, Mrs. Thomas Baker, performed the same pleasant duty in the evening. A grand-daughter, Miss Gwyneth MacMurdo was in charge of the guest book. Gold mums and potted plants, the gifts of friends and family adorned the rooms. Gold colored candles in twin crystal holders lighted the table covered with a lace table cloth and centered with a three tier gold trimmed wedding cake. Mrs. Sterling Millar presided over the service. Assisting Mrs. Eric MacMurdo, daughter-in-law of the celebrants were Mrs. Horace Paynter and Mrs. Lorne Crozier, and in addition in the evening, Mrs. Erskine MacMurdo, Mrs. Leaman Caseley, Mrs. Robert Hogg and Mrs. Morris Caseley. During the evening the honored couple were the recipients of an address and presentation when Mrs. Erskine MacMurdo acted as Master of Ceremonies, and Mrs. Walker pinned the gift card on a space saver davenport, the gift of neighbours and friends. Mrs. Morris Caseley presented Mrs. MacMurdo with a jewelled costume pin on behalf of the Women's Institute, and a number of individual gifts were received. Mrs. Erskine MacMurdo read a suitable address. The gift of the family to their parents was an unholstered armchair. Mrs. Alfred MacKay entertained with violin and vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. Edward MacMurdo at the piano. Flash pictures recorded the festivities. It is interesting to note that older residents believe this may be her first Golden wedding ever celebrated in the district.
