Local and Other Items.

CLEOPATRA.—This latest work of Rider Haggard, is at the Diamond Bookstore.

FISH MARKET.—The fish vendors on Market days should be compelled to remove all offal from the Square before leaving.

I. O. O. F.—Widley Lodge meets at eight o'clock to-night. The second and third degrees will be conferred, and the election of officers for the ensuing term takes place.

STEAMER ASHORE.—While the government steamer Newfield was going into Halifax on Saturday morning, she grounded inside Point Pleasant buoy, where she remained until high tide between 12 and one o'clock, when she floated off uninjured.

SAVED.—A fine family of children were all afflicted with scrofula. Two died early; the rest would soon have followed, but for the timely and persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which built them up into a healthy and vigorous manhood.

A GRAND SUCCESS.—The farmers of Mount Mellick held their club picnic on Saturday, as advertised. The committee in charge deserve every praise for the manner in which they had things arranged. So says an "Onlooker."

I. O. O. F.—At the regular session of St. Lawrence Lodge held last evening the following brethren were elected officers for the ensuing term: N. G., Wm. N. Riggs; V. G., Charles Lawson; R. S., John T. Hardy; P. S., Fred. H. Sellar; Treasurer, Theo. L. Chappelle, P. G.

NAVAL REVIEW.—Some 1,600 sailors from the warships in Hellenophon, Tourmaline, Pylades and Comus, will take part in a marine review on the north common, Halifax, to-morrow, (Wednesday) forenoon. The men will engage in a sham fight, in which the ships' field guns will be used, together with small guns, cutlasses, etc.

SECULARISM.—The St. John Sun, of Saturday last, publishes in full the letter of Charles Watts, in which he replies to the refusal of the Evangelical Alliance to meet him in debate. He offers to come to St. John and debate the question "Which is the best suited to meet the wants of mankind, Christianity or Secularism?" The proceeds to be given to any charitable institution which may be named.

PRIZE WINNERS.—The County Prize for King's County in the Dominion Prize Competition, offered to the schools of the Dominion by the Witness Publishing Co., has been won by a pupil of the Georgetown School—Reginald Stewart—and he has received his prize, a set of Macaulay's History of England. Miss Fanny Lawson, winner of the prize for Charlottetown, has also received her prize.

REMEMBER.—Mrs. Scott-Siddons arrives on P. E. Island this afternoon and will give one of her excellent recitals in Summerside to-morrow morning she will come to the city and remain at the Hotel Davies. She will entertain our citizens with one of her choicest dramatic recitals at the Lyceum to-morrow evening. This is the only opportunity our people will have of hearing this renowned woman. Secure your tickets at once.

SUDDEN DEATH.—At Catalone, C. B. Catherine McDonald, widow of Archibald McDonald, died suddenly. She performed her usual work with her wonted activity, and appeared to be in her usual health. While tidily ready table was being set, she took her baby grand-son in her arms, and with him sat in an arm-chair. A few minutes afterwards she was seen reclining backwards as if going to sleep. But it was the sleep from which there is no waking. She was about 56 years old.

A MATRIMONIAL BOYCOTT.—Mr. Hickey County Waterford, Ireland, has been boycotted not only by the men but by the women. At a recent meeting, a Miss Sheehan, seconded by Miss Sullivan, moved this resolution:—"That we, the young girls of Waterford, Tipperary and Kilkenny, resolve and promise to treat with scorn and contempt any matrimonial proposals from Michael Hickey." Thus Mr. Hickey finds himself not only boycotted but girlcotted as well.

THE CHANCE OF A LIFETIME.—Never before have we had the pleasure of anticipating a visit from such a world-renowned artist as Mrs. Scott-Siddons, and Wednesday evening will be the only occasion on which she may be heard. Of such a prominent and peerless reciter it is not necessary to indulge in praise. Her reputation as the greatest actor in her line at the present day is well established. The costumes which she will wear are simply superb; they were all made in Paris especially for her American tour.

DYING TO AID SCIENCE.—Dr. Edward N. Small, of Sedalia, Mo., as a joke, offered to give $500 to the man who would consent to be bitten by a mad dog he had, and then trust to a madstone for cure. He had several applications, and one man, a stranger from Arkansas, not to be named, bit his arm, and the dog immediately bit a piece out of it, dying in convulsions immediately after. The madstone was applied to the man's wound, and though he still lives and is apparently well, his recovery is deemed doubtful. He is evidently demented.

A MODERN MIRACLE.—The day of miracles seems to have returned. An importing firm recently entered at the port of New York a quantity of what purported to be vinegar. It was inspected and the officials were convinced it was wine. The importers protested, and upon a review of the matter the department at Washington has decided that the fluid is, in fact, wine, and must pay duty as such. Now the gentlemen who entered it assert with all gravity that it was vinegar when shipped and must have been changed by the ocean voyage.

A MCGILL PRIZE.—In a McGill University announcement of the faculty of arts for session 1889-90 is the following: "Charles G. Coster, Memorial Prize." Value $30. The prize, intended as a tribute to the memory of the late Rev. Charles G. Coster, M. A., Ph. D., principal of the grammar school, St. John, N. B., is offered by Colin H. Livingstone, Esq., B. A., to the undergraduates (men or women) from the maritime provinces, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. In April, 1889, it has not been restricted to any academic year, but in April, 1890, it will be awarded to that undergraduate of the first year, from the above provinces, who in the opinion of the faculty has passed the most satisfactory sessional examination.

IN LUCK.—An old man named James O'Connell, who died recently at Herring Cove, N. S., left an estate valued at $75,000. O'Connell came to this country from Waterford, Ireland. In 1832 he married Sarah Louise White, of Portuguese Cove, who died in 1887, after bearing him twenty children, six of whom still live. The survivors are all married and have families. Ellen, wife of Edward Blackburn, of Charlottetown, is the second eldest. She was present at the funeral. To each of the six survivors Mr. O'Connell, either during his lifetime or in his will, gave $10,000. To his grand and great-grand children, and other relatives, he wills special donations. The residue of the property goes to his elder daughter, Susan, who is now living at Herring Cove, for her own separate use and benefit.

A SUCCESSFUL STUDENT.—Among the successful competitors for first-class license at the recent examination, was Mr. John T. McNally, of Summerside, a young man whose course at school deserves something more than general commendation. Before he was 15 years of age, he obtained after close competition, one of the scholarships assigned to Prince County, and accordingly spent two years at the Prince of Wales College. At the close of the first year he came out with honors, but the second year, owing to ill health, he was unable to prosecute his studies regularly. A few weeks ago he captured the Governor-General's Silver Medal, for the best all-round scholar, the highest prize awarded at the College. Since then, as we have stated, he has passed the examination for first class teacher. On Monday, 24th inst., being then 18 years old, he had the proud satisfaction of demanding his diploma, which is withheld until that age is attained. Our young friend, who is the only son of J. T. McNally, Esq., J. P. of Summerside, furnishes evidence of what hard work and good conduct can accomplish. He is a modest youth, of undoubtedly brilliant parts, and we understand that it is his intention to take a University course.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Policeman George Kuhn, of Halifax, had a narrow escape from a terrible death a few nights ago. It appears that one of the telephone wires fell, and, in falling, came in contact with the electric light wire, as a result of which the telephone wire was burned through. Officer Gerrish was on duty in the neighborhood at the time, and very nearly fell over the wire. Thinking that the broken wire might possibly be the means of killing someone who might run against it, the officer tried to push it aside with his billy, but failed. He then placed his baton under it, and catching hold of it with both hands, commenced to pull. As soon as the baton touched the wire, and the circuit being formed by the policeman catching hold of it with both hands, the officer experienced a terrible shock which prostrated him for a short time. On releasing his hold, he found that his baton had been nearly burned through. Had Kuhn's hands remained in the position they were for a second or two longer, the wire would have burned through the baton and fallen on his leg, which would no doubt have caused his death. As it was, the officer certainly had a close call.

N. B. and P. E. I. Conference.

CONFERENCE SAYINGS AND DOINGS.

(Special Correspondence of The Examiner.)

FRIDAY, June 22.

I was not able to tell you last night of the excellent Sunday School meeting held in Queen Square Church yesterday evening.

Rev. Mr. Kirby read the report. Addresses were made by the Chairman, J. Black, Esq., M. P. P., Rev. J. C. Barrie and J. Irvine, Esq.

A service was held on Sheffield Street at the same hour by a number of the ministers of Conference, accompanied by a mission band from the Centenary Church.

SATURDAY, June 22.

The session of this morning opened with the usual devotional exercises.

Several communications were read to the Conference upon which suitable action was taken. The minutes were read and adopted. The resolution submitted by Dr. Sprague re the St. John Preacher's Meeting, referred to by your correspondent, was then taken up de novo in the open Conference.

An amendment and an amendment to the amendment were proposed:

Whereas, No sufficient proof has been brought forward to the effect that the St. John Preacher's Meeting has departed from the traditional policy of Methodism in its recent memorial to the Local Government, therefore this Conference deems it inexpedient that it should produce an opinion thereon.

The discussion lasted throughout the morning, and the amendment to the amendment was carried by a small minority, which was to the effect of throwing out the original resolution, with the understanding that the policy of the Conference had been sufficiently indicated by the discussion.

On Saturday afternoon an hour was spent in the discharge of some routine business, the pastoral address was read and adopted, and the session adjourned.

A largely attended Holiness meeting was held at night, which was of a very elevating character.

SUNDAY, June 23.

Besides the regular services in our own churches, and many supplies for other denominations, several missions and open air services were held in different parts of the city by members of Conference.

A wonderful meeting of the United Methodist Sunday Schools was held in Centenary Church at 3 o'clock. The body of the church was filled with a brilliant assembly of about 2,000 scholars. Effective addresses by Revs. Campbell, Dawson, Chappell and Lodge.

PERSONAL.

The Shah of Persia has arrived at Antwerp. Emperor William has decided not to visit Alsace-Lorraine.

Morton, Rose & Co., of London, have been selected as the financial agents of the U. S. Department of State in England.

No pessimist is old Professor Blackie. He says that a century ago was a time of miserable humbug, and he is thankful that he lived in better days.

Rev. A. B. McLeod, of P. E. Island, was amongst the clergy men officiating at a special service on board the SS. Halifax, at Halifax on Sunday last.

Ex-President Cleveland, with a large New York fishing party, will arrive at Glenora, Ont., some time in July. It is expected that they will spend several weeks fishing and exploring the Bay of Quinte.

Rev. John Read, of this city, preached in Queen Square Methodist Church, St. John, on Sunday evening last. His text was "I can do all things through Christ, who strengtheneth me."—Phil. 4. 14. The Sun says the discourse abounded in vigorous passages, apt illustrations and powerful appeals, and was one long to be remembered.

Mr. Gladstone's activity in his eightieth year is thus commented upon by so staunch an opponent as the London Times: It is, we believe an absolutely unparalleled feat that under such conditions a statesman should not only hold his place as a party leader, like a Palmerston or a Thiers, but should undertake a missionary expedition to one of the strongholds of his opponents.

LIGHTNING'S FREAKS.—Europe has had a week of thunder storms, and lightning has killed a good many living things, from men and women to flocks of sheep, as is its custom, but at Norwood, one of London's suburbs, there was a streak which did something original. It struck the glass eye of one Laura Adams. Laura felt that something had happened, but didn't know until she got home that lightning had smashed that artificial optic into a score of pieces.
