Sleet Storm Stalls Road, Air Traffic

Traffic was moving at a normal pace on Prince Edward Island's highways again last night after a crippling sleet storm early yesterday morning. Always a keen sportsman, he was a charter member of the Montague Curling Club, an ardent horse racing fan, fisherman and nirod, and enjoyed these hobbies for many decades. He leaves to mourn one son, Hubert, of Hamilton, Ontario; one daughter, Marjorie (Mrs. Frank Stevenson) of Proctor, Vermont; four grandchildren, David Mabon of St. John; Barbara Mabon of Montreal, Paula and June Stevenson of Proctor, Vt. He was predeceased by his wife on January 13th, 1958.

Mr. Mabon was a member of Trinity United Church, Montague, from where his funeral will be held on Monday, January 26th at 2 p.m. Interment will take place in the Montague Community Cemetery.

He was always active in civic politics, having served on the town council as mayor and councillor. He was a member of St. Andrew's Masonic Lodge, the Oddfellows Lodge and the Shriner's Lodge.

He was the son of the late Major Ralph Mabon and Mrs. Mabon of Tryon and was the last member of a family of five sons. Mr. Mabon began his career in 1897 as an apprentice with Lawrence W. Watson, druggist of Charlottetown, and completed his training in Boston, Mass. Prior to opening his business at Montague in 1915, he opened a drug store at Murray River for H.A. Ellis and J.W. Carruthers, from where he moved to Souris where he successfully operated his own drug store for 10 years.

He became an optometrist in 1914 he enlarged the facilities of his business when he completed a course in optometry and opened an optometrist shop in conjunction with his drug store. In 1947 after long years of service to the public he was honored by the P.E.I. Pharmaceutical Association when they presented him with a plaque denoting 50 years of service and active interest. He will also be remembered as one of the founders of this association.

In 1951 Mr. Mabon retired from the druggist business when he sold the firm to Cyril Johnston, who still operates under the name of Mabon Drug Co. Mr. Mabon carried on his optometry business until late last year when he retired to live with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Stevenson.

temperatures zoomed to a high of 49.1 early last evening to alleviate the dangerous travelling conditions caused when freezing rained glazed roads and city streets. The sleet stalled air traffic in the early morning and fog grounded most other flights. The slippery roads held up the Tignish and Souris buses at their terminals, but the bus to Borden got to its destination although arriving late. No reports of unusual breakdowns were heard from Maritime Electric nor the Island Telephone Company. Temperatures climbed all day until reaching the high of 49.1. But they began dropping again and were expected to reach the low 20s last night with a threat a light snowfall.
