

Grandpapa and Little Flo.

Down the shady lane they go, Grandpapa and little Flo. Hand in hand; Happier man was never seen, Nor a happier child, I ween, In all the land.

See! those locks all snowy white Falling on his shoulders light Tell his age; Four-score years—aye, even more; God has added to his store Another page.

Little Flo, a fairy child, With great eyes, so blue and mild, Leads the way; Seeks the smoothest place of all For his feet, lest he should fall By the way.

Down the lane they go, Grandpapa and little Flo, When, tis bright; And the birdies in the trees, Flitting light among the leaves, Bless the sight.

Household Hints.

Meat on ice.—Uncooked meat should not be placed directly on ice, as the juices are withdrawn in this way. Neither should they be kept in wrapping paper, but put, uncovered, in a dish or pan, and then placed on the ice.

Eggs and Beet-root.—Take some slices of dressed beet-root; toss them in fresh olive oil made perfectly hot; arrange them in a dish; place some poached and trimmed eggs in a circle round the beet-root; add pepper; squeeze lemon juice over, and serve directly.

Peas in American Style.—Only enough water is used to boil them tender. When dry, add rich milk and plenty of butter; set them on the back of the stove to simmer ten or fifteen minutes, which brings the dressing to a creamy consistency. Season with salt and pepper.

Blackberry Jam.—Allow half a pound of sugar to each pound of fruit. Boil the fruit one-half hour, then adding the sugar and boiling ten minutes. Skim out the berries and boil down the juice to about one-third, then pour it on the berries, and they will keep in any cool place.

Gooseberry Jam.—Put your fruit in your kettle and bruise them as they cook, to get the juice out. Let them boil ten minutes and then add sugar in the proportion of three quarter-pounds to each pound of fruit. Let it boil slowly two hours longer, stirring all the time, when it thickens like jelly when cold it is done. Season if you like.—Wild Bird.

Green Pea Soup.—Cut up a chicken, or take a few slices of ham, and boil it until the meat is entirely done. Remove the chicken or meat, and throw into the liquor a quart of shelled peas, some pepper and salt. Boil until entirely done, and then chicken the soup, when you may add another pint of peas boiled in a different vessel and a lump of butter the size of a goose egg.

Aphorisms.

Many are ambitious of saying grand things—that is, of being grandiloquent. Eloquence is speaking out, a quality few esteem and fewer aim at.—Hare.

Religion gives part of its reward in hand, the present comfort of having done our duty; and for the rest, it offers us the best security that Heaven can give.—Tillotson.

The lightsome countenance of a friend giveth such an inward decking to the house where it lodgeth, as proudest palaces have cause to envy the gilding. Sir Philip Sydney.

There is a thread in our thoughts as there is a pulse in our feelings—he who can hold the one knows how to think, and he who can move the other knows how to feel.

Open rebukes are for magistrates and courts of justice. Private rebukes are for friends, where all the witnesses of the offender's blushes are blind and deaf and dumb.—Feltham.

People may make inquiries worse by unreasonable conduct, by giving way to anger and satisfying that for the moment instead of thinking what will be the affect in the futures.—George Elliot.

A good memory is the best monument. Others are subject to casualty or time, and we know that the pyramids themselves, rotting with age, have forgotten the names of their founders.—Fuller.

To divert at any time a troublesome fancy, run to thy books. They presently fix thee to them, and drive the other out of thy thoughts. They always receive thee with the same kindness.—Thomas Fuller.

What we call miracles and wonders of art are not so to Him who created them; for they were created by the natural movement of His own great soul. Statues, paintings, churches, poems, are but shadows of Himself.—Longfellow.

I always fancy I can hear the wheels clicking in a calculator's brain. The power of dealing with numbers is a kind of "detached lever" arrangement, which may be put into a mighty poor watch.—Holmes.

THE STARR KIDNEY PAD.

Indubitable Evidence, (Condensed) From Doctors Druggists, Merchants, Farmers.

Some of the additional home testimony received since publication of last pamphlet, GIVING ENTIRE SATISFACTION. Pictou, April 20.

Gentlemen,—I find that your Pads are giving entire satisfaction, and wish you increase sales for so valuable a remedy for disease of the kidneys J. B. MOORES, M. D.

OF SERVICE TO PATIENTS. Lime Lake, April 23. Gentlemen,—Your Pad has been of great service to some of my patients already. Jno. MAXWELL, M. D.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE CONQUERED. Enterprise, April 13. Gentlemen,—Five years ago I fell with a bag of grain, which caused weakness in my back, and also brought on an attack of Bright's disease, and which caused me to lose considerable in weight. After wearing your Pad for six weeks, I gained 13 pounds. All pain and weakness has left me. I would have been yet in the doctor's hands, had it not been for my using your Kidney Pad. Signed, Wm. WOOD, Miller.

THE ONLY PERMANENT CURE. Tamworth, April 13. Gentlemen,—I was troubled with painful back, and could not retain my urinal secretion, from painful inflammation of the bladder. I have been treated by a dozen physicians to no purpose, but have worn your Special Pad six weeks. The pain, swelling and inflammation are gone and I am well. Your Pad is the only cure for kidney disease. J. A. FRASER, Manfr. of Wooden Ware.

ALL PRAISE THEM HIGHLY. Tamworth, April 13. Gentlemen,—An accident 12 years ago wrenched my back. I could hardly walk, and never lifted anything. The Pad purchased from Mr. Jas. Aylsworth has nearly made me as strong as I ever was. I know of several being used, and all praise them highly. JAS. FUMMERS, Enterprise, April 13.

Gentlemen,—Your Pad is helping me wonderfully. My complaint is inflammation of the kidneys. J. A. GOURLE, sole agent Georgetown. J. A. ARSENAULT, Tignish.

THE STARR KIDNEY PAD CO. TORONTO, ONT. [de 15 wky]

Dr. Bennet, Halifax. DEAR DOCTOR,—Just a few lines as promised by me. I am more than pleased with the "Liver Pad" I got from you when in Charlottetown, and can conscientiously say that it is the best thing I ever saw or heard of. It has done for me what all kinds of medicine and different physicians could not do for me. I removed a very nasty body eruption, which had given me a great deal of annoyance for more than two years; and, more than that, I have not been troubled with a single headache since I have used it. Before wearing the Pad I was troubled with severe headaches continually; and that very objectionable feeling of sluggishness and dullness has entirely left me—in fact I am a new man, to what I was before wearing it. I am truly thankful to you for what you have done for me, and I hope that you may be long spared to the benefit of the public. Believe me, Yours sincerely, FRANK ELLIOTT.

DR. BENNET'S PADS can be had at FRASER & REDDIN'S DRUG STORE, [june 12.]
