HE HAS MADE A FORTUNE.

Reported Luck of a Charlottetownian at Dawson.

The Journal, of Ottawa, lately received a letter from George J. Jamieson, of Dawson City, formerly of Ottawa, telling of the good fortune of Mr. T. G. Owen, son of A. W. Owen, Esq., a native of Charlottetown, who is reported to have made a fortune in Alaska. The letter is as follows:

"Having left my home in Ottawa to seek my fortune in the gold fields of Alaska and having met with a great many young men from our district in this part of the country, I thought that a few words about one of the most prosperous would be of interest to his many friends in Canada. The young man of whom I tell is T. G. Owen, of Ottawa. Mr. Owen left his home the early part of last April to fill a government position on the Stickeen river, which position he held until September. Having heard of the wonderful discovery made in this part of Alaska, he resigned his position and came to Dawson City, arriving here on October 3rd, 1898, and in the short space of two months has by good luck and management made an independent fortune, which his many friends will undoubtedly be pleased to hear.

"Mr. Owen is but a young man, having seen but 22 summers, but is as capable of transacting the business connected with his interests as any man in this part of the gold region.

"Mr. Owen's start was made through a claim on French Hill, which he purchased for $250, and in ten days he had disposed of the same for $3,500. Having then a capital with which he could operate, he quickly increased his original capital until now he has a small fortune, of which many of the old-timers are envious. Mr. Owen is the youngest son of Mr. A. W. Owen, of the marine department. Mr. Owen will leave this country for the east this coming summer. Mr. Owen is very popular among the business men of this city and is known as "Lucky Tom."

HOUSEKEEPERS can buy Linen Goods, Sheetings, Pillow Cottons, White Cottons and Counterpanes at a lower price than the goods were manufactured for. You may ask how can it be done. We bought Messrs Beer Bros. stock at a big bargain and can afford to sell the above mentioned goods at a lower price than they paid the manufacturer for them; that's how we can afford to give such values at the Banner White Wear Sale at "My Store" next week.

You have never seen such a handsome display, and you've never seen such values as will be offered at the Banner White Wear Sale next week at Sentner, McLeod & Co's.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND.

Convention and Meeting of D. C. S.—Papers relating to the Work of the Church.

The annual Convention of the Church of England in this Province, was held in St. Paul's Schoolroom yesterday afternoon. The President, Mr Justice Fitzgerald, occupied the chair and delivered a forcible address on the work and needs of the Church.

A capital paper on the relationship of the clergy and the laity was then read by Mr. James Millman, of French River.

Remarks upon the excellence of the paper were made by Archdeacon Reagh and Judge Warburton.

Rev. Mr. Withycome then read a paper on the work of the Sunday School. Subsequently Mr. Withycome gave an interesting account of the formation and success of the Boy's Brigade of Summerside.

On motion it was requested that both papers be again read at the D. C. S. meeting.

The officers for the ensuing year were then re-elected, viz., Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, President; Mr. Percy Pope, Secretary.

The annual meeting of the Diocesan Church Society was held in the evening, the Venerable Archdeacon Reagh in the chair. After singing and prayer, and a few preliminary remarks, the Secretary read the following ### REPORT.

Your committee in meeting you again after the lapse of another year is glad to be able to report that the work of the church as a whole is progressing favorably.

In July last, the two conventions were held, one at Port Hill and one at Irish town, which were well attended and which undoubtedly contributed towards deepening the zeal of those who were present.

It is a matter of sincere congratulation that we are again to enjoy the benefits of a resident Archdeacon, and we especially welcome the appointment of the Rector of Milton, being assured that his zeal and experience will, in no small measure, assist us in carrying forward our work.

The vacancy in Georgetown and Cherry Valley has been filled by the appointment of the Rev. J. W. Godfrey to the Rectorship of Georgetown-Souris, whilst under an arrangement, made by the Bishop, Cherry Valley is to be served from St. Paul's. We have much pleasure in welcoming Mr. Godfrey, and trust that his efforts will result in the rebuilding of the church in his parish.

Owing to the resignation of the Rev. S. J. Andrews the parish of Crapaud is now without the services of a resident clergyman. We trust that ere long the vacancy will be satisfactorily filled.

Even until the day of our meeting we could have said that our ranks had remained unbroken by death; but to-day we are called upon to mourn the loss of an old and valued member of our Society, Dr. Leeming, whose knowledge and experience will be missed not only by us but also by the community at large.

We cannot close without referring to the visit of the Diocesan and the missions held by him which were deeply appreciated, and we regret that the time and season did not permit of his remaining longer with us.

The clergy of the various parishes report as follows:—

ALBERTON.

Rev. J. W. Forbes regrets the emigration of forty-four members of his congregation and the death of nine others, making a total loss of fifty-three, twenty-two being communicants. Still there is much to be thankful for. Services have been held regularly in all sections of the mission. During the summer months, he held four services every Sunday. St. Luke's Church, O'Leary has been renovated, and the energy and pluck of the church people in that locality is highly commendable. Alberton section is also doing nobly. Mr. Forbes tenders his thanks to his parishioners for many acts of kindness.

PORT HILL.

Rev. Henry Harper reports an interesting and stimulating meeting of the Church Convention. The new church at Ellerslie is almost completed, and is a little gem. The excellent work done on it by Messrs. H. W. Williams and E. England, is highly commended. St. James Guild is still in a flourishing condition, and the Sunday school has been better attended—though there is still room for improvement in that regard. Mr. Harper concludes with thanks to his parishioners.

NEW LONDON.

Progress is reported by the Rev. H. C. Aylwin, the rector, who acknowledges the help he has received from the Rev. Arthur White, of St. Paul's, the venerable Archdeacon Reagh, of Milton, and others. The Church convention held at Irishtown would have been an unqualified success, but for the absence of the city delegates. Meetings of the Gleaners' Union have been held at Irishtown and New London; and the Kensington branch of the same union has been reconstituted. A missionary spirit is growing throughout the parish.

OBITUARY

At East Baltic, Lot 46, on the 27th inst., after a lingering illness borne with exemplary patience and resignation to the Divine Will, Annie Chapman, beloved wife of F. H. McIsaac, at the early age of 28 years, deeply regretted by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Consoled by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church by the pastor, Rev. D. F. McDonald, she passed peacefully away to enjoy the reward which a life of suffering and sorrow in this world has merited for her through the atoning blood of Jesus Christ her Savior.

The deceased, who was always of a pious, amiable character endeared herself to a large number of friends and acquaintances, who will long cherish her memory.

The esteem in which she was held was amply attested to by the large number of people, of all denominations who followed her remains to St. Mary's Church on Sunday afternoon—the cortege numbered over ninety sleighs—thence to St. Mary's Cemetery where the last rites were performed and the mortal remains of a mostly estimable lady laid at rest.

She leaves a husband, two children, a mother, two sisters, one brother and a large number of friends and acquaintances to mourn their loss.
