What's a team to do?

—Dave Valley President of Marian Hall

On behalf of the residents of Marian Hall and the Pit Bulls:

Congratulations to the Soccer Team on winning the UPEI Winter Carnival Hockey Tournament. Where did Marian finish? We didn't. We, along with The Rulers, were kicked out of the tournament for getting involved in a bench clearing incident that we hope will not have to be repeated. With just over 6 minutes to go a fight broke out. When The Rulers jumped the boards in defense of their player, our hockey team simply followed suit. No further fights occurred but the intramural council saw it in the best interests of the league that both teams be suspended from further tournament play.

We are not making excuses for our actions. Any team would have done the same given the circumstances, in either our case or that of The Rulers. The point in hand, however, is that it seems everyone likes to point fingers at Marian Hall and say we are to blame. Granted, it takes two to tangle, but why is it that other teams like to do their tangling with us? Opposing teams seem to think that we are just a bunch of goons and are only capable of playing dirty hockey. Nothing could be further from the truth.

From the very beginning of the intramural season our intentions have been, and will continue to be, to play good, fair, competitive hockey. We are capable of giving any team in this league a run for their money, as our 10 and 2 record shows. If the other team skates hard, we try to skate harder; if they play a physical game, of course we'll hit them back; and if they want to play it dirty, we have plenty of qualified players who are capable of making it rough. This is not a threat and we hope no one takes it as one. All we do is play hockey and make sure that no-one tries to deliberately harm one of our players.

If other teams can't take our jokes in this paper or our pre-game rituals with the music and chants then maybe they should stay away from the rink. All we are trying to do is create a little excitement and spirit around this campus. The Engineers tried to do this and everyone s**t on them (including us we are proud to say). At least they had the guts to try and generate some interest in the everyday life around UPEI, which is more than most faculties, societies, classes, etc. can say. The Bios try once in a while, and sometimes you can hear a faint grunt from The Engineers, but let's face it, things just aren't like they used to be.

Well, The Pit Bulls refuse to let good times die at UPEI. If there is a cause, be it a mock funeral or the Terry Fox run, we will be there. If you want people at your pubs, issue us a challenge. We love challenges. We will take on anybody, anyplace, anytime, at anything (well, almost anything). What bugs us the most are those who gripe and complain about having nothing to do or that it's no fun here. Well, no one can accuse us of not doing our part. We are having fun, we have always had fun, and we will continue to have fun. And by the way, the next time you see us having fun, you can do one of two things. 1) Have some fun too- there's lots to go around, or 2) You can ply to pucker off. Now that that is all out of our system let's talk about something else.

The Marian Hall Pit Bulls resumed league play on Monday and suffered only their second defeat of the season. Blanchard Hall struck quickly and before we knew it we were down 3 to zip. With 4 straight goals, however, the Pit Bulls showed their true dogged determination and a win seemed possible. This was not to be the case, however, as Blanchard fought back for a final 6 to 5 victory.

No less than five Marian Hall veterans, including Brady "Crazylegs" MacVarish, Greg "The Hammer" Wilson, and Kelly "MAD-DOG" VanBuskirk; were absent from the game and had they been present, a different tale might have been told. In any case, the Pit Bulls played an excellent game, and showed their offensive depth. All Marian's goals were scored by rookies. Gino "The Flying Frenchman" Cormier had 1 goal; Tony "The Weasel" MacKenzie had two goals; and Chris "Puck" Robinson had two goals. The score was kept close by the incredible moves of Bert "The Fish" Ronahan. You had to be there to appreciate it.

Quote of the game goes to John "Brophy" Dalton, honorary coach of the Pit Bulls. He was heard to say "...it wasn't dirty, it wasn't rotten, and nobody got hurt. What the hell happened here, a hockey game?"

LOCKER ROOM NOTES:

The boys from Marian wish to thank the intramural council for allowing the championship trophy for the winter carnival tournament be named in the honor of Scott Holt. Scott was a freshman student at Marian Hall who was very active in sports and noted for his sense of fairness and good sportsmanship. One month after moving into residence, he was diagnosed as having leukemia and died less than one year later. Though we regret being suspended from the tourney, we look forward to next year.

Happenings

Now on a lighter note.

To the certain female at Bernadine Hall who mistakenly referred to Marian Hallers collectively as "nothing but garbage...":

Just because your love life is shot to Hell and you can't have your own way, doesn't mean you have to take it out on us. Come down off your pedestal and take the time to actually meet the guys before you pass judgement. We're not as bad as you think we are.

Behind the Scene at Bernadine

The nuns get out

The House President was in rare form Saturday night. Rumor has it she got 'leid' four times. When questioned about it, DL gasped, "I don't remember a thing!!"

BM was being her usual sociable self, except nobody remembered to tell her to take her mind, because it was too late to be out alone. "Where am I?"

GC, TD, and NM are still looking for their stick. If any of the hockey jocks have seen it please return it to room 222, 322, or 422.

Alky Al, just off a four-day alcoholic binge was heard complaining that she would not be able to hold her lunch down if she had to go to the caf.

CR - That's not the way to get an older man! If he's wearing a business suit, he probably has money - Hold on to him!!

BG, AD, LS, PA, and CM recently celebrated Sam and Amanda from Another World getting back together by getting drunk in the middle of the afternoon. Look out for the wedding in a couple of weeks, girls! They'll be sending the invitations for the reception BYOC - bring your own champagne!!

Here we are back again, the nuns at the Convent. This week Mother Superior has forced us to put the seats back on our bicycles. But that's OK - we can still ride the bus! Recently, our sleigh ride and ski trip were both huge successes - we told you you should have gone! Oh, well, there'll be more. This week we will be holding our first Kraft Dinner contest - watch for further details. Just a reminder of Intramurals in Broomball, Volleyball, and Basketball for those who signed up. The Trivial Pursuit Tournament will also be starting soon. Teams must consist of 2 men and 2 women so get out there and make those teams; it should be a good time. Til next week ...
