INTER-MARITIME MATCH. — The team chosen to shoot the Inter-Maritime match at Drury Range, St. John, on Thursday next, is as follows: Major Longworth, Capt. Crockett, Capt. Hooper, Lieut. E. Stewart, Sergt. J. Crockett, Corpl. O. Baird, Pte. W. Smith, Pte. J. H. C. Acorn. At the team practice on Saturday an average score of 86 points was made. The team will leave on Wednesday morning via Point du Chene.

FREAKS OF LIGHTNING.— The Halifax Chronicle says: The heaviest thunderstorm ever experienced here passed over West Merigomish, Pictou county, on Sabbath morning. A large amount of damage was done to fences and buildings. On the north side of many of the houses exposed the glass was totally destroyed in the windows. A shed on the farm of Alexander Murdock was torn to fragments and scattered over the adjoining fields; and a barn nearby was moved several feet from the foundation. The ice that fell in large quantities caused damage to the windows. The lightning struck some brush near the rear of Arbuckle's farm and set it on fire.

DAIRYING AT EMERALD.—The new cheese factory at Emerald was opened to-day. The milk received this morning weighed 6813 pounds, quite a large amount for the first day. One patron, Mr. John Hughes, headed the list by supplying 617 pounds. The people of Emerald are to be congratulated on possessing a first-class factory, thoroughly equipped with the latest machinery and appliances. At present the factory is under the management of Mr. Keefe, of Rollo Bay, and Mr. Hazeltine, of Ontario. When the manager for the Emerald factory arrives in the course of a day or two Mr. Keefe will take charge of the Campellton factory, and Mr. Hazeltine will be transferred to New Glasgow.

A GREAT HIT.— It is said that the burlesque "Trilby" has made a great hit at the Garrick theatre, New York. As in Mr. Potter's play, Svengali is the central figure. He is a terrible personage. He enters by the window in a flash of lightning. He has a green light for all his exits. He hypnotizes everybody and everything. In the theatre he is the manager, while faithful Gecko—an acrobat from the music halls—keeps the box office. In this scene he encounters Mr. du Maurier and tries to hypnotize him, which so enrages the novelist that he determines to change his plot. This he does by bringing forward Mrs. Svengali and a young Svengali to claim the erring husband and father. Svengali then dies, but recovers and flies up the side of the proscenium arch of the make believe stage, and presently, from one of the upper boxes he caricatures one of du Maurier's well-remembered pictures: "Hast Thou Found Me, Oh, Mine Enemy." The laird appears in kilts and a silk hat.

SCIENCE AND THE BIBLE.—Mr. J. Spencer Ellis, of Toronto, lectured yesterday afternoon in the Market Hall on Evolution and Creation, and in the same place in the evening on Science and the Bible. The lecturer made but a weak presentation of his case, and at both lectures it was very clearly shown by the audience that he was overmatched in argument by Mr. J. M. Duncan, who took up the cudgels on behalf of Christianity. Science was an element particularly lacking in the lecture last evening. Mr. Ellis read a number of verses from the Bible, which, apart from their context, became somewhat ambiguous, but repeated calls for a little science were unheeded. Some questions asked by Mr. William Harris at the conclusion of this talk were unanswered by the lecturer, to the evident disappointment of the audience. Finally Mr. Duncan went over the principal points made by the lecturer, and was applauded when at the conclusion of his remarks the meeting broke up without any further argument being offered.

CRICKET.

Though enough cricketers to make full sides did not muster at the Park Saturday afternoon a very pleasant game was nevertheless played. That practice makes perfect is equally as true of cricket as of any other sport or labor one may undertake. As the days roll by the beneficial results arising out of these friendly tussles of each succeeding Saturday afternoon are becoming more and more apparent. All are rapidly becoming steadier in their play, while not a few have almost attained perfect form. This latter remark applies more particularly to those old timers who have many a time and oft wielded the willow. Murray, Moore and Carvell all had on their batting clothes on Saturday, and the way in which they drove the ball in all directions afforded their respective following no small amount of pleasure. Murray was especially effective, and gave his opponents lots of opportunity for leather hunting. Two splendid hits, one for five and the other for six, very materially added to his score of double figures. All the boys are improving in their play and storing up useful knowledge that is expected to make itself felt when rival teams make an onslought upon their wickets. As yet many of the old standby's have failed to show up at practice, but their speedy coming is assured—though some say it will only be when the splendid new outfit of the Phœnix Club arrives from the home of cricket across the big pond. It is very probable that the Phœnix and Cabot teams will meet in a match game next Saturday afternoon. The sides in Saturday's game were captained by W. Murray and H. Carvell, the former's side winning by 23 runs. The scores was as follows:

THE FEMININE IMAGINATION.—A downeast dressmaker tells of an exacting patron who brought back a dress because it was too large in the waist, and wanted it refitted. It was left for the purpose, but before it was touched my lady sent for it. Thinking her customer was "notional," the dressmaker allowed it to go as it was, saying nothing. The lady thought it had been fixed, and now complained that it was too tight in the waist. It was left as before, but nothing was done to it, as the dressmaker had now grown wise on the subject. It remained a few days and was again tried by the customer. This time the fit was perfect, and the lady has since repeatedly declared she never was so well suited.—Lewiston Journal.

A jury in Maryland has decided that a young woman has a lawful right to break an engagement to marry a young man who eats coffee to kill the odor of rum on his breath.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

ROSSIN AND DICKINSON.

SIR,—In your issue of the 6th inst. I observe two contradictory sentences over the signature of "James Dickinson." If James Dickinson refers to me as the "doctor at Stanley," I have only this to say, I never heard that he had kicked the man calling himself Rossin from his house. If "James Dickinson" has charges to make against me I would thank him to formulate them in specific language, and if worthy of notice will receive attention.

Comme il faut is the Frenchman's description of good society, &c.—it is made of the spirit more than the talent of men, and is a compound result into which every great force enters as an ingredient, viz: virtue, wit, beauty, wealth and power.

James Dickinson may rest at ease for his affairs give me little concern. There is no law to prevent a man from changing his name, nor any law to prevent a man from adopting a member into his family, so long as there is no person to dispute the right. Mr. Dickinson's cunning is like what is called in England "the turning of the cat in the pan."

Yours truly,
R. MACNEILL, M.D.
Stanley Bridge, 7th June, 1895.

A PROTEST.

SIR,—I think that our Market Hall committee had very little to do when they rented the Hall for the use of Ellis. It was simply disgraceful that the doors of the Hall were allowed to be opened to children of tender years to listen to our Bible being made fun of and ridiculed.

A PARENT.

SUBMITTING TO JAPANESE RULE.

Advices from Formosa indicate that chaos is rapidly giving way to order, now that the Japanese troops have reached Haipehfoo and established their army headquarters at that point. The natives of Formosa are submitting readily to the rule of the Japanese. The Japanese lost only eight men during the military movement in occupying the island. The Chinese carried away millions of dollars worth of property from the Chinese fortifications during the firing which followed the detention of the steamer of the ex-governor and ex-president Tang Ching, who was making an effort to escape from the Island. Seven persons were killed and seventeen wounded on the steamer as a result of the firing. The German gunboat Iltis replied to the bombardment from the fortifications of Formosa, and the native gunners detorted their positions. The forts were quickly silenced. Thirteen natives were killed by the cannonading of the Iltis.

NEWS NOTES.

The discovery that two innocent men have been in prison in New York for a year is something unusual. Usually the error is on the other side of the books. A good many guilty men are at large.

A despatch from Tangier, Morocco, says four cart loads of salted heads of rebel Rahma tribesmen have arrived at Rabat, on their way to Fez. But, on arrival at Rabat, the heads were found to be in such a bad condition that the government officials compelled a numbers of Jews to re-salt them.

The Parliamentary grant for elementary education in Great Britain was distributed last year in the following amounts:—Board schools received £2,653,656; Church of England schools, £2,732,436; British and undenominational schools, £410,127; Roman Catholic schools £321,421; and Wesleyan schools, 198,276. The average attendance of children at these schools is about 4,250,000.
