

THE DAILY EXAMINER

JUNE 20, 1899.

CONCERNING EXHIBITIONS.

WHILE the Government of Prince Edward Island has deprived our farmers of their exhibitions, it is pleasing to observe that they have still left to them the privilege of competing at the exhibitions held in the other provinces. This is a privilege they invariably take advantage of, but it is one which they may not long enjoy. Unless something is done towards a maritime exhibition in Prince Edward Island, it would not surprise THE EXAMINER to see the other provinces close their doors against exhibitors from this province. This would be very regrettable, but it is within the range of probability. The exhibition at Halifax this year, it may be added, will open on the 23rd September and close on the 30th. Besides gold, silver and bronze medals and diplomas the sum of $17,000 is offered in premiums. The exhibition at St. John opens on the 11th September and closes on the 20th. The prizes aggregate $13,000. At both exhibitions special attractions will be provided. Arrangements are being made to accommodate hundreds of visitors.

A PROPHET OF EVIL.

It is pointed out by the Mail and Empire that when the Yukon contract, giving 3,750,000 acres of land to a railway company, was before parliament, the Toronto Globe declared that if it should fail to pass we would incur the following calamities: "A loss of millions to the cities, the traders, and the manufacturers of Canada. Less work for Canadian factories, and less labour and lower wages for Canadian workmen. Decreased earnings for Canadian railroads. Canada to pay half a million a year in ruling and holding the Yukon district. A great loss of life among the thousands who are rushing into the Yukon over the dangerous routes and passes. Neither the churches nor the medical and charitable organizations to be able to do their humane work effectively in that country. The British flag to be imperilled and Canadian authority set at defiance. Government from Washington rather than a Government from Ottawa." But, thanks to the Senate, the contract was not ratified by parliament. Yet none of the evils predicted by the Globe have come to pass.

LINE OF SAFETY CROSSED.

THE Montreal Gazette has an able article dealing with the phenomenal borrowing and spending proclivities of the Laurier-Tarte administration. Here is what the Gazette says: "The supplementary estimates for the current year, laid before parliament on Monday, authorize an expenditure of $2,647,628. Those adopted at the last session gave authority to spend $47,970,948. The total authorized outlay for the twelve months ending with the current June will, therefore, be $50,618,876. Last year (1897-98), when the record in free spending was made, the outlay was $44,240,786. The increase in the present year is, therefore, likely to be quite six millions of dollars in excess of its predecessor's figures. Canada is growing, and an expanding trade warrants an expanding public expenditure. No one expects the cost of the government services to be curtailed, or even to remain stationary. A recognition of the legitimate requirements of the country, however, does not justify any such rate of increase in the public charges as is implied in these figures, which exceed by over twelve millions the sum ($38,000,000) which in 1896, Sir Richard Cartwright declared to be a scandalously large outlay for Dominion purposes. Public opinion in Canada has not been educated to dislike free spending, particularly of borrowed money. The contemplation of what the Laurier government is doing is, however, likely to cause those who appreciate what it means to think that it is time for calling halt. The line of safety has been crossed when the annual national expenditure reaches $10 a head.

The Gazette strikes the nail on the head, as it usually does. "The line of safety" has most certainly been crossed and it is high time a halt were called. Remembering Tarte's historic remark, "wait till you see us next year," the prospect of the exercise of an economical policy in the near future does not seem any too bright.

MORE CRIBBING.

SIR,—Your article upon cribbing was good, but it did not cover the whole ground. "Cribber" supplied some of the omissions, but not all. What of the innocent who are placed under the reproach of those general accusations? The character of the honest student should be protected. This can be done by bringing the guilty to justice. The student who cribbs or secures his license dishonestly is not morally or intellectually fit for the position of school teacher, and our college should be managed to prevent such being imposed on the public. In the writer's school days cribbing was an unknown quantity. You, Mr. Editor, can probably testify to this. It is rather a recent invention, more probably the outcome of our educational systems than of inheritance. The alteration of students alleged in the Prince of Wales College is at best only a preventive measure. If in spite of this copying has been successfully done must all whose papers are alike be declared guilty, or must the innocent be protected by unearthing the guilty. The cribber can easily be detected by a teacher possessed of common judgment. The student carrying highest honors is not generally the thief. An oral examination by the teacher of a suspected student upon the subject matter of his paper would soon bring to light his criminality. Circumspetion in the Prince of Wales College, our only training school, is badly needed.

Another feature scarcely ever approached is the tendency to bring this institution under political subversion. If the college walls could only speak they could tell some curious tales. It is dangerous to impartial administration to have the college under the supervision of a board consisting of a paragon Government presided over by a premier to whom political expediency is the first consideration. A diploma or license secured by a wink from one in authority is just as dishonesty secured as if taken by cribbing. The students have their own complaints along this line, and the larger lists of graduates of today compared with the numbers in the days of honest, non-partisan management, tend to give color to what we hear. Most of the students consider that devotion to studies is the best passport to honors. For the child of a conservative it is the only one. There are those however, to whom the favor of their political deity is the equivalent of a successful examination. This species of cribbing is as bad as the other, worse in fact as it has its origin in political corruption.

Investigation by an independent committee from the legislature or before a competent commission of citizens should be insisted upon as the best means of allaying the dissatisfaction prevailing all over the province upon the several features of Prince of Wales College management.

ALL ABOARD! 1000 PASSENGERS FOR MORELL TEA.

The Century Jubilee Tea

—TO BE HELD—
AT MORELL,

—ON—
TUESDAY JULY 4th, 1899.

Will be the crowning social event of this closing year of the 19th Century

Here we are again, with the old name—The Great Jubilee Tea. Is it not like meeting an old friend with whom you once spent a pleasant and enjoyable day? Somebody has asked, what's in a name, we will not venture to answer that question as it regards names in general, but will merely submit that this particular name, JUBILEE TEA inasmuch as it designates the great social gatherings held at Morell is a guarantee of the high excellence in all that pertains to tea-parties.

In confirmation of this assurance we confidently appeal to the many thousands of persons from all over the province, who attended our first great Jubilee Tea in 1893. It is because of the reputation for excellence acquired by our great Jubilee Teas, that we have retained the old name, and we will spare no efforts to make the present tea the peer in every respect of its namesakes, which have gone before it.

The Tea will be held on beautiful and spacious grounds adjoining Lot 40 Station about 1 mile from the village of Morell, and within easy reach of Stookley, the historic site of the old Acadian town of St. Pierre where social gatherings were held in the olden days, before our grandfathers were born. If you wish therefore to have the pleasure of attending the first, largest, and best tea of the season, arrange to be present at the CENTURY JUBILEE TEA to be held at Morell on July 4th. Should this day be unfavorable the tea will be held the first fine day following.
