Island Native Dies In Ont.

The death of John J. McNeill, formerly of Tignish, has been learned by members of his family residing in P.E.I.

Mr. McNeill, about 43 years of age, suffered a heart attack as he prepared to leave his home in Smith Falls, Ontario, for a weekend holiday in Ottawa.

In addition to his wife, a native of Italy, and their five children, the late Mr. McNeill is survived by the following sisters and brothers: Genevieve, Mrs. Watson Craswell, of Charlottetown; Debra, Mrs. Kline Court, of Summerside; Kathleen, Mrs. William Keirstead, also residing in P.E.I.; and Bernard MacNeill, of Halifax.

The late Mr. McNeill has resided in Ontario for the past four or five years.
