The British Zollverein.

The New York World, a Free Trade Organ, in a somewhat remarkable article comments upon the proposal to establish between Britain and her colonies a trade Zollverein.

While British exports to the United States in those branches of trade in which British capital and British labor are most heavily interested, are falling off, the exports of Canada and Australia are increasing in spite of the 'protection' with which those colonies have been recently shrouded.

indicate must meet with due appreciation by all parties. It has often been asserted that the interests of the North West and of the company are identical, and the steps which the board has taken at its Winnipeg meeting go far to establish the correctness of that position.

Short Crops.

RATHER DISCOURAGING REPORTS ON WEST, ESPECIALLY FROM INDIANA.

CHICAGO, August 8.—The quarterly report of the State Board of Agriculture of Kansas shows that 1,975,083 acres in this State were planted with winter wheat, and the product is estimated at 23,154,400 bushels.

Despatches from Indiana say the wheat and corn prospects are decidedly discouraging. The ground was never so devoid of moisture, notwithstanding the light showers and all vegetation is being fairly consumed as if by fire.

The Grand Lodge of Oddfellows.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., Aug. 11.

Routine business occupied the attention of the members of the Grand Lodge of Oddfellows last evening and this morning. The election of officers was the business for this afternoon, and resulted as follows:—

John Richards, Fredericton, Grand Master. Thos. Turnbull, Halifax, Deputy Grand Master. J. A. Gourlie, Summerside, Grand Warden. J. C. P. Frazee, Halifax, Grand Secretary.

H. A. Taylor, Halifax, Grand Treasurer. John Pringle, Pictou, Grand Representative.

Theo. L. Chappelle, Charlottetown, Grand Marshal.

Duncan Campbell, New Glasgow, Grand Conductor.

C. C. Carleton, Souris, Grand Chaplain. F. Masters, St. John, Grand Guard.

G. H. Simmons, Fredericton, Grand Herald.

By invitation of Dr. Sawyer the members of the Grand Lodge were shown through the Acadia College buildings and the adjacent grounds. All were delighted with the appearance of this beautiful building.

To-morrow the members of the Order in this place have prepared for a grand demonstration. A picnic will be held in the morning; a drive to points of interest in the afternoon, and a banquet and concert in the evening.

The Grand Lodge will hold a late session this evening in order to wind up the business.

Icelanders Going West.

A Truro correspondent writes to the Times:—"A party of Icelanders passed through Truro, en route to the West, on Wednesday. The Nova Scotia Government assisted these people to settle in Halifax County some six years ago, by giving them land free, and also helping them by finding seed for the first year and putting up buildings for them. It seems that they have not prospered. The reason given by member of the party to the correspondent was that the land was poor and heavy and they were too far from the market.

Those who are acquainted with the locality will easily see how this is when they are told that this settlement is situated between Mosquito and Tangier, a few miles from Mosquito, where gold was first discovered in Nova Scotia. There were originally about twenty families. A short time ago two of these sold out and went to Manitoba. They have written such accounts of the advantages of the West that whole families have decided to emigrate thither. The party in question consists of eight families of forty-five persons old and young. Eight families still remain, but their intention is to move shortly.

Their farms consist of from 16 to 30 acres, and they sell for $20, $50 and as high as $100 a piece. Many of the present party were not able to get through tickets to Manitoba, but their intention is to go there as soon as possible. Your correspondent was strictly charged to say that the people were very grateful to both the old Government and the present for the interest taken in them. They thought it was only a mistake in having them located where they were. This opinion is shared and has been fully expressed by many of the people who know the circumstances."

The ancient Jewish colony in China, known to the Jesuit missionaries of the seventeenth century, as their annals show, has been rediscovered. The chronicles of the colony date back two thousand years, during which the laws and rites of the Hebrew religion were observed and followed. Now, however, the people are beginning to deny the faith of their fathers—and are rapidly joining the Mohammedans; they have dropped all practice of Jewish ceremonies, they have lost all their knowledge of Hebrew, and scruple not to intermarry with Pagans. They still, however, possess the ancient rolls of the law written in strange characters, which neither they nor any ordinary Hebrew scholar can decipher. A great competition amongst the savans of the western world is expected to take place to obtain possession of those rolls, now that the fact of their existence is established.

After receiving a new supply the men resumed their voyage in good health and spirits.

DANIEL GOODNOW, a cotton merchant on Commercial Street, Boston, has, it is alleged, been swindled by G. A. Fuller, lately a cotton merchant, who represented himself as an agent of the Pepperell Manufacturing Co. of Biddeford, Me., and induced Goodnow to purchase a ship, the "Western Star," and store it with $20,000 worth of cotton and merchandise, and ship it to Biddeford via St. John, N. B. The vessel reached and cleared from St. John last month, since which time nothing has been heard of her or the parties negotiating the transaction. The Pepperell Co. had no knowledge of the affair.

STRONG LANGUAGE.—The Patriot, commenting on the proceeding of "The Commission of Synod" appointed to settle the Stewart-Lawson case, states that "It is as if the Commission had deliberately tied Mr. Stewart to a stake and permitted his relatives and most vindictive enemy to hack, and hew, and torture him at his pleasure." This is, indeed, very strong language to use against a Commission composed of such men as the Rev. Dr. McCulloch, Rev. Mr. Alex. McLean, and a number of other gentlemen of the Presbyterian Church, whose spotless lives give the lie to the slanders of that "vile sheet"—the Patriot.

Commission of Synod.

The following is the finding of the commission of Synod in the Stewart-Lawson case:—

1st. Dismiss the appeal and sustain the finding of the Presbytery in declaring S. G. Lawson guilty of covenant breaking.

2nd. Sustain the appeal on the ground that whilst Mr. Lawson had proved neither dishonesty nor complicity in fraud against W. D. Stewart, the Presbytery refuse to grant Mr. Lawson a commission by means of which he could obtain proof of the charges made by him.

3rd. The Commission without sustaining or rejecting this appeal and whilst strongly condemning not a little of Mr. Lawson's spirit and mode of expression, yet do not in the circumstances regard the matters referred to worthy of being dealt with by the Presbytery in the form of a libel.

4th. Decline to sustain the appeal or to affirm the judgment of the Presbytery on the grounds that the finding appealed against is not a judicial act, which in the circumstances it should have been, but an expression of opinion on the part of the Presbytery.

5th. The Commission in view of all the facts of the case, find that Mr. S. G. Lawson deserves rebuke at the bar of this court and hereby authorizes the Convener to rebuke him, and warn him to walk more guardedly in the future.
