BOARD OF TRADE—The monthly meeting of the Summerside Board of Trade was held in the Town Hall on Thursday night with Lucas R. Allan, president, in the chair. There was a good attendance of members and matters of routine were considered.

DEATH REGRETTED—The death took place Wednesday night of Master Harold Peter Carver, youngest son of the late Mr. Oliver an Mrs. Carver, Summerside, at the age of one year, after a short illness, the funeral was held Friday morning to the R. C. Cemetery.

Eastern Guardian

PLAY entitled "Uncle Josh" will be presented in St. Margaret's Hall by the St. Andrew's Dramatic Club on Saturday evening, June 3rd. Proceeds in aid of St. Margaret's building fund. The performance will begin at 8 p. m. sharp. Pie social in connection.

NAME OVERLOOKED—In referring to the death of Mr. Lewis Goss, whose death occurred at Bridgetown on April 29th, the name of his son William of Vancouver was omitted. Mrs. H. Frazer, of Boston is also a daughter.

FASHION HAS DECREED black and white for summer footwear. See the popular styles at SINCLAIRS.

PROPERTY SALE—Mr. Clovis Richard of Harvard Street, Summerside, has disposed of his property to Mrs. Yes of Lot 16, who will take possession at once. Mr. and Mrs. Richard, after disposing of their household effects, will leave on a three months' visit to Rumford, Maine.

WHERE WAS THE CART? The strong wind which prevailed on Thursday afternoon made the streets of Summerside very disagreeable for anything but motor traffic. Dust, refuse and loose papers were flying through the air and the merchants were sort o' wishin' that the watering cart would take a pasour along the business section of the town, but the fond hope did not materialize.

SERIOUS FIRE—The roof of Chester Rayner's house at New Annan was almost completely destroyed by fire on Thursday after noon, a slight blaze caused by a chimney spark being fanned by the high wind into a fire which had gained considerable headway before it was finally subdued. Chief Mathieson and members of the Summerside Fire Department motored to the scene but a few hand chemicals were sufficient to extinguish the blaze.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Masie Peters of Howlan who died at her home on Friday, May 5th, was held on Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. from her home to St. Anthony's Church where the funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Gaudet, who also performed the solemn obsequies at the grave. On Monday morning a Requiem High Mass was sung in St. Anthony's Church for the repose of her soul.

CONCERT AND ENTERTAINMENT—A school concert and entertainment was held in Unionville school on Friday night, May 5th, under the management of Miss Matthews the teacher incumbent. The program consisted of dialogues, monologues, readings, recitations, and choruses. The following persons took active part in the program: Miss Matthews, Miss Horn Ina Gard, Goldie Evans, Rilee Bernard, Viola Bernard, Helen Bryan and William Bryan. Mr. Edward Bryan acted in the capacity of chairman and conducted the ceremonies with great solemnity. The net sum of $16.00 was raised which will go towards laying a new hardwood floor in the school. The rate payers feel that they have in Miss Matthews an able and energetic teacher and it possible at all they will hold her for the coming term.

SUDDEN DEATH—The residents of Mill Road were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. John Botts, who was afflicted by a few days. Deceased contracted a heavy cold which developed into pneumonia and although she had the best medical skill she possessed into the Great Beyond on 27th. The late Mrs. Botts was an exemplary Catholic and died terrified by the last Holy Sacrament. The funeral was held on Wednesday morning at 9.15 to St. Anthony's Church where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Gaudet, who also conducted the burial rites at the grave. The funeral was largely attended by all classes and creeds testifying to the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held by all who knew her. The Guardian extends our sincere sympathy to the bereaved husband and family.

—Mr. Frank M. Stewart, of the firm of Bruce Stewart & Co., Charlottetown was in Summerside on Thursday on a business trip.
