HON. J. C. POPE left Charlottetown this morning to join his Ministerial colleagues in Montreal.

THE Band group was photographed at Lewis' Photograph Rooms, and not by Mr. Tanton, as inadvertently stated yesterday.

A BOLD attempt was made, on the night of the 12th, to rob the agency of the Merchants Bank of Halifax, at Weymouth, N. S.

JUDGE YOUNG, of this city, delivered an interesting address at the Reform Club meeting in Parisboro, N. S., on Thursday last.

THE Band of the 62nd Battalion will leave for home to-morrow morning. To-night is the last chance our people will have to hear them perform.

THE October session of the Supreme Court will terminate in Prince County on Thursday. On Tuesday evening the great wharf suit between the trustees of the McEwen estate and Charles Green, which lasted for four days, was brought to a close. A TELEGRAM to Mr. M. A. Cameron, Insurance Agent of this city, brings the intel ligence of a heavy fire at Bray, Lot 9, on Tuesday night, when the steam mills of McKinnon Bros., of that place, were burned to the ground. The loss is estimated at $5,000. The mills were insured in the Canada Fire and Marine for $2,500.

MESSRS. J. H. MEACHAM & Co. have presented us with portraits of the Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise, litographed especially for the Illustrated Historical Atlas of Prince Edward Island, which they are now preparing for the press. The likenesses are, we think, good; and the pictures are artistically finished.

A REPORT comes from Shediac that on Saturday some scoundrels desecrated the grave of the late Mrs. Smith, opening up the coffin and filling the grave with slabs and other rubbish. It is probable that the miscreants hoped to find some jewelry about the body, but, whatever the motive, it is greatly to be hoped that the severest punishment the law allows will speedily be meted out to them.

AT the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court, this forenoon, Daniel McNevin, drunk and disorderly on Euston street, was fined $3 and costs or 14 days; John McQuaid, for assaulting Michael King, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment with hard labor; Alex. Carpenter, for assisting in a fight on Hillsborough Square, was sentenced to 20 days' imprisonment; James Kneed was fined $2 and costs or 8 days for being drunk and incapable.

THE preliminary examination of John McQuaid, who violently assaulted his father-in-law, Michael King, with a stone on the 25th ult., was concluded at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon. Several witnesses were examined, and the assault clearly proven. The Magistrate gave the prisoner his choice of trial by jury or magistrate. He preferred being tried by the latter; and confessed that he assaulted the old man while he was excited and under the influence of liquor. The Magistrate lectured him pretty sharply and ordered his imprisonment for six months with hard labor.

FATAL ACCIDENT,—A brakeman on the I. C. R., named Frank Kemble, came to his death at the St. John railway station yesterday. He was to be on the night train from St. John for Halifax last evening, and was loitering around the station as No. 3 (Shediac freight) came in. He was walking away from the train when, from some cause, he lost his balance and fell off the narrow platform to the track,—falling in such a position that, the train being right upon him, his left arm and both legs were severed from his body, which remained between the rails. The unfortunate man died a short time after. Deceased was a young man, unmarried, and belonged to St. John. He had been a long time on the line—was formerly a conductor, but was recently put back to brakeman.

"The Best of Friends Must Part."

PUNCH TO LORD DUFFERIN.

Must part! Punch protests it seems almost a pity,
And yet such a muster of fairly-won friends
As bade you farewell in Quebec's famous city,
For parting's sharp pang make most pleasant amends.
Young Canada gave you a warm hearted vale,
And tribute of praise seldom better deserved
Than by him who has governed as wisely as gaily,
In tact never failed and from sense never swerved.

An Irishman! Yes; and few Sons of Old Erin
Show more of the best of that nimble-brained race;
And rare is the Saxon who'll prove him your peer in
The right Celtic mixture of gumption and grace.
With the flow of warm feeling, the skill at fine fooling,
As native as nous to the Sheridan blood,
You're a type of the people whose powers of ruling
You merrily vaunted in whimsical mood.

The man who can graciously brag is a master
Of chords dull mock-modesty never may move;
The sprightly-thrasonic binds spirits the faster
In fun spangled fetters of fancy-fed love.
The fuss of the proser, the whine of the canter,
Are foreign as falsehood and fudge to the tongue
Which has lent a fine charm e'en to blarney and banter,
And glamor of grace o'er formalities flung.

Yet serious business has found you no fumbler
Fun's dear at the figure when toil it would shirk;
But who would be such an inveterate grumbler
As chide a good workman who sings at his work?
Small wonder that Canada sorrows at losing
A chief who can rule and not bungle or bore,
Who, working or playing, is aye found suffusing
The wisdom of Monck with the fancy of Moore.

Whilst pinchbeck Imperialism is posing
As England's new idol, 'tis pleasant indeed
To find one who contrives, without gammon or glosing,
To bind branch with branch of our old Island breed.
Heart ties, after all, form the only safe tether,
If we and our stout Western scion agree,
In fair or foul weather, to foot it together,
Large thanks will be due to such bricks as Lord D.

Punch swells the full chorus that sounds from Ontario,
He'll welcome him home, from our colony far,
Who, steadfast as Douglas, while gay as Lothario,
Good jest will not mull and tough task will not mar.
Let us hope your successor in brains not behind you,—
He will find it no trifle to stand in your shoes,—
But John Bull a fresh berth must right speedily find you,
For in faith, my dear Lord, you are too good to lose!

—Punch.
