SUMMERSIDE AFTERNOON AUXILIARY

Parishioners Honour Rev. R.W. Coupland

—"The Power Within", a colored sound film produced by Crawley Films, Ltd., for the Missionary Society of the Church of England, and an Honorable Mention winner in the Spring Film Competition in Montreal, was shown in St. Mark's Hall, Kensington, on Friday evening May 29th before a comparatively small but well satisfied audience.

The film carried both entertainment and instructive value in large measure, giving a pictorial survey of the work done by the Society both at home and abroad.

After the showing of the film the meeting was addressed by Mr. Ernest Mill, who welcomed friends from the Burlington Church and voiced regret in the fact that the Rev. Mr. Coupland had found it necessary to resign as rector of New London Parish and would be leaving soon for Ontario. He then called upon Mrs. J. G. Townsend, who read an address to Mr. Coupland, and a gift was presented by Mr. Cecil Mill.

The chairman next called upon Mrs. Ellis Profit who read an address on behalf of St. Stephen's Church in Spring Valley, Burlington and vicinity, and a gift was presented by Mr. Everett Sudsbury.

Mr. Coupland expressed his thanks and said that he hoped to return at some later date to this diocese in the capacity of clergyman in one of the parishes. Speaking of the excellent film which had been shown, he said that to him the scenes brought back thoughts of many of the men of Wycliffe College who had gone out to work in one or another of the mission fields so vividly portrayed in the colorful picture, and the great work that was being done, so often under difficult conditions.

"BECAUSE YOU'RE MINE" COMES TO CAPITOL, S'SIDE

—This week's screen news is that Mario Lanza is back in another great singing role to rival that of his "The Great Cardo", which proved one of the biggest box-office smashes of the past decade. This time he stars in M-G-M's "Because You're Mine", a happy blend of song, romance, comedy and Technicolor, which gives Lanza a modern role as fresh as today's headlines and a splendid opportunity to show off his voice in a magnificent array of songs ranging from operatic arias to popular hits.

When the story of "Because You're Mine" opens, Lanza again is seen as a widely-acclaimed young opera star—but not for long. For Uncle Sam knocks on his door and the $5000-per-week singer suddenly finds himself a private in the Infantry! In laugh-loaded sequences the bungling private attempts to master the intricacies of basic training, then craftily wins the friendship of his tough sergeant (James Whitmore) by promising to aid the singing career of the latter's sister (Doretta Morrow). This leads to the picture's romance, but subsequent contretemps land our hero both in the doghouse (romantically) and in the guardhouse (physically). It's all ironed out in the end, however, in a jubilant climax of song and love to the melody of the title hit, "Because You're Mine."

FINE DOGS

LONDON, (OP)—Export of British pedigree dogs to dollar markets showed a 10 per cent increase for the first four months of 1952, compared with last year. More than half go to Canada and the United States and the British Kennel Club says a price of £1,000 is not unusual.
