Kings County League

THE ONCE a week Kings County Baseball League has again proven to be the province's top baseball loop, drawing fans to their Sunday contests by the hundreds.

Georgetown Eagles are the league terrors this season, leading with a terrific 9-0 record. Their closest rival, Mt. Stewart, is 6-2, 2½ games off the pace. Although the Eagles hold a wide margin in the win column, it's rather unusual that they don't have a batter in the league's top seven list.

Mike Kelly, Morell, who is in Montreal this week taking part in what is actually a New York Mets tryout camp, paces the hitters with a .442 mark, John Connolly, a team mate of Kelly's is next with .424.

What the Eagles lack in percentage hitting they make up in pitching with Buddy McCullogh. McCullogh won his fifth game of the season Sunday up-staging Vernon River 13-4. He twisted an ankle in the eighth inning Sunday and gave way to Joe Martell who kept Vernon River in toe in the final frame.

With its Kellys, Connollys and McCulloghs,the Kings County loop is looking forward to a good playoff round and plenty more ball action in years to come.

Three To Olympic Trials

THE ISLAND will be represented by its three top track and field performers at the Canadian Olympic Games' trials at St. Lambert, Quebec, this weekend.

Making the trip will be Bob Simmons, discus; Alt Groom, pole vault; and Andy Arsenault ,880 and mile. Accompanying them will be Dave Boswell, chairman of the Island Branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada.

It is doubtful if any of the three will meet Olympic standards at St. Lambert's. Simmons however, stands a good chance of winning the discus.

The husky Charlottetown native said yesterday that he "hopes to win", but added he hasn't any great visions of making the Olympic team. Bob had the misfortune to stretch a muscle in his shoulder this spring, during the peak of his training program. He had to stop training for more than two weeks; and still hasn't regained his best form.

Simmons hopes to hurl the discus more than 160 feet Saturday. "I'm more concerned with a good training program this fall", said Simmons. "There's always next season."

Alt Groom could place in the top five in the pole vault, but if he has any visions of 'Tokyo in the fall' he'll have to do a lot better than he ever has before.

The Island's best prospect for national competition in future years, Andy Arsenault is just going along for the experience. His times for the 880 and mile should be lowered. Possibly 1:55 in the 880 and 4:20 in the mile.

Off The Cuff

LEARY OF some underhanded dealing, the New York State Athletic Commission has opposed the return battle between SONNY LISTON and Cassius Clay. There are too many bodies in professional boxing; and none of them have the control over the game that is needed. I agree with ROCKY MARCIANO; let's have ONE boxing federation with a commissioner, who is able to swing a big stick if anything 'off-color' turns up . . . I dropped out to watch some of the MARITIME FIREMEN'S competitions at Memorial Field Tuesday night and yesterday. It isn't really sports; but it's 'amateur fun' at its best. The spectators and Firemen had a great time . . . The CITY TENNIS championships were in full swing a Memorial Field yesterday under the direction of GORDIE WHITLOCK, former puck-smoothie of the Old Spain Penguins. Gordie told me that there weren't too many competitors in the 12-and-under class but commented there were some sharp 14-16 year old coming along. . . . Still with tennis; the P.E.I. AGE Class Championships open at Memorial Field Friday morning under the supervision of Dept of Education field supervisor JOHN KANE. Age divisions will be 12, 14 and 16. John said there is a possibility that a couple of the winners would take part in the national tennis championships.—Depending on ability . . . Veteran outfielder AL SMITH, released by Cleveland Indians Friday, has been signed by Boston Red Sox. Smith, 36, began his major league career with the Indians 12 years ago and returned to the Tribe last winter in a deal with Baltimore. The Orioles got WILLIE KIRKLAND and threw in $50,000 as well. Smith appeared in 58 games with Cleveland this season, mostly as a pinch hitter. He was hitting .162.

Huggan Captures Junior Tourney

In the Charlottetown junior tennis tournament at Victoria Park yesterday winners were declared in all divisions, except the doubles in the eighteen and under section. These matches will be completed at the local club today.

Lyall Huggan emerged as the city junior champ as he disposed of four opponents without dropping a single set. Huggan demolished his first opponent 6-0, 6-0, then took Jamey Kennedy 6-1, 6-2; downed 'Ginger' Breedon 6-1, 6-0 and defeated Ron Steadman 6-2, 6-1.

Huggan's toughest competition came from 16 year old Ron Steadman as the youngster battled Huggan for every point and the score didn't indicate the share of play.

Mike Duffy captured the 14 and under honors and then teamed up with Jim McQuaid to capture the doubles championship in the same division. In the twelve and under competition it was Keith Hood who took top honors and Hood teamed with Art Mac Quaid to cop the doubles in this division.

Flying Hawks Top All-Stars

Johnny's Flying Hawks defeated the National Park All-Stars 4-2 in Charlottetown city league softball action at the new diamond, last night. This was the second win in as many nights for the Flying Hawks. The loss forced the Park into a first place tie with the BIS Shamrocks and a playoff game will be played between these two clubs tonight at 6.30 p.m.

Joe Cummeskey was the winning pitcher and he hurled a three hitter at the Park squad. Bradley absorbed the loss as he gave up five hits. Cummeskey struck out seven and walked two while Bradley struck out four and walked four. Parker Lund had the longest hit of the game, as he belted a triple.

An outstanding catch by Harry McGee clinched the win for the Hawks. McGee ran from deep left field to shallow centre field, leaped high in the air to pull down a line drive off the bat of Joe Caswell in the bottom of the sixth frame.

Tonight's playoff game for top spot shapes up like a thriller and softball fans should witness a real spine tingling contest when the Shamrocks and the All-Star take to the field to decide top spot in the league standings. It will be a sudden death game.

England's Douglas Merry Tops Canadian Marksmen

By PETER McNAUGHTON

CONNAUGHT RANGES, Ont. (CP) — Lt. Col. Douglas C. Merry of Goring - on - Thame, England, showed Canadian marksmen how it's done Wednesday, winning the day's main match at the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association championships.

Firing through a strong wind that whipped across the army's mile-wide rifle range near Ottawa, Lt.-Col. Merry, 54, scored 120 of a possible 125 points in the Macdonald match to win the $100 first prize by one point over a fellow countryman and three Canadians. A field of 550 entered the event.

Lt.-Cmdr. J. F. O. Willcox of Wolverhampton, England; C. R. Ouellette of Windsor, Ont., Maj. J. W. Houlden of Beaconsfield, Que., and Lt.-Cmdr. R. A. Reid of Ottawa all finished with 119 points.

Ouellette was declared second on the basis of best finishing shots—fewer missing in the later stages of the match. Maj. Houlden was third, Lt.-Cmdr. Reid fourth and Lt.-Cmdr. Willcox fifth.

Cpl. Mike Williamson, 17, of Ross-on-Why England, won another victory for the British by taking the Viscount Wakefield aggregate, awarded the cadet with the best total score in the tyro—for competitors who have never appeared among the top 200 in the aggregate at the annual mauches — Bankers' and Leison matches.

Yankee's Ace Hurler Feels Discouraged

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "I'm discouraged," said Whitey Ford, And so are New York Yankees with 15 straight games coming up against their two main American League rivals.

The problem is Ford's hip. The ace left - hander has not been able to pitch for several weeks without the hip acting up.

He tried rest, and then went out against Kansas City Athletics Tuesday night. The result was disappointing. Ford left after seven innings trailing 3-1 and the Athletics won the game 5-1.

"I don't think I can pitch Saturday or Sunday," said Ford in the dressing room.

That means Ford will miss the start, at least, of the make-or-break string against Baltimore Orioles and Chicago White Sox. The Yankees are at home with four against the Orioles and then go to Baltimore for three games and Chicago for four.

MANAGER HOPED

Manager Yogi Berra had hoped to start Ford four times in that stretch.

"Now it looks bad," said Yogi after Ford's latest failure. General Manager Ralph Houk was reported off to watch the Richmond farm club play. The Yanks are interested in Mel Stottlemyre, a right - hander who is one of the top pitchers in the International League.

Ford, 35, was off to one of his best years with a 10-game winning streak and a 10-1 record when the injury struck. Now he is 12-4.

Racing Card Goes Tonight

The Charlottetown Driving Park will be the scene of an eight dash harness racing card tonight. The curtain raiser is set to leave the wire at 7.45.

In the first and fifth dashes Myrtle E and Miss Ellis loom up as good beating choices. Venita's Pet, Audrey's Pride, Sir Smart, Doc Wilson and Paula Clegg will compose the remainder of the field in these dashes.

Drillio Hal with Lorne Kelly in the sulkey and going away out on the wing in sixth position looks like a favorite with the pari-mutual patrons in dashes six and seven. Ryseldyke and Stalag Hanover will probably be tough to beat to the wire in the third and sevent events.

The fourth and eight dashes will be the main attraction on the eight dash card. The field will include: Miss Cool Eyes, Victory Scott, Duration, Jolly Abb and Highland Rogue, Miss Cool Eyes leaving the wire on the rail appears to be the horse to beat in this division.

Ex-Boston Bruins Coach Was Never Lost For Ideas

BOSTON, Mass. (CP-AP)—Arthur Howie Ross, affectionately known to hockey fans as Uncle Art, died in a nursing home here Wednesday at the age of 79.

Known as a man who never ran out of ideas, the former coach and manager of the Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League was responsible for designing hockey's puck-snarring net, the beveled-edge puck and the leather helmet.

Generally credited with developing professional hockey in this area, the native Canadian guided the Bruins from the day of their inception to three Stanley Cups and 10 first-place finishes in the NHL. His 29-year career in uniform included 17 as a professional player and he was also a referee, coach and general manager.

Art Ross, born in the Montreal suburb of Westmount Jan. 13, 1885, took part in several sports as a youngster and starred in most. He was ambidexrous in baseball, often pitching left-handed for the last few innings of a game when his team had a safe lead. And in football he could boot the ball equally well with either foot.

He also played some lacrosse and when he was not busy worked off excess energy at motorcycle racing.

COACHED TO WIN

Uncle Art considered hockey the greatest game in the world. He played and coached to win and when officiating insisted the players live up to the rules.

As a hockey - playing bank clerk, Ross went to Brandon, Man., where he starred against the Rat Portage—now Kenora-Thistles between 1904 and 1906.

The Thistles grabbed him as an up-and-coming defence star. He could stickhandle and score like a forward, and after an outstanding series against the Montreal Wanders he soon was back in his home town playing the game.

He later moved to the Ottawa Senators and during his stay there helped evolve the kitty-bar-the-door defence.

Ross, who died in a nursing home in the Boston suburb of West Medford after a long illness, became known as Mr. Hockey to Boston fans after he joined Bruins in 1924 as a coach and later as general manager.

In addition to helping the club capture the Stanley Cup in 1929, 1939 and 1941, Ross was also known for his recognition of good playing talent.

He made Eddie Shore one of the greatest players of all time, and coached such stars as Lionel Hitchman, Tiny Thompson, Harry Oliver, Dit Clapper, Dutch Gainor and Cooney Weiland. Ross also directed the great Kitchener Kraut line of Milt Schmidt, Bobby Bauer and Woody (Porky) Dumart.

Coastal Movers Top RCAF 15-7

SUMMERSIDE— Coastal Movers rocked RCAF 15-7 in the first game of a best of three semi final playoff in Prince County softball action here last night. The RCAF club virtually handed the Movers the win, committing eight errors. The other series has cellar dwelling Inman Plumbing going against the currently hot, Enman Drug squad.

The play offs are starting surprisingly early as the league schedule came to an abrupt halt Monday night with several games left. The reasons are because of provincial play downs in the near future and other team committments.

Coastal Movers wasted no time in picking up the opening game win. In fact they won it in the second inning when they scored nine times on only five hits. The air men made three errors in helping the Movers during the inning.

Given this big 'cushion' by his teammates, Coastal Movers pitcher Roy Mountford, took a healthy 15-4 lead into the air force seventh and final inning. Coastal Movers had run up five more runs in the previous inning caped by Jerry Bernard's two run homer.

The air men fought back gamely in their final half but all they could get was only three runs on four hits off Mountford.

Mountford fanned three batters. RCAF pitcher, Red Whelan batted out of the box in the second inning explosion stuck out one batter and relief pitcher John Sandiland fanned four.

Marty Martin rapped three hits for Coastal Movers while four of his teammates got three apiece.

Wally Aucoin was RCAF's and the game's leading hitter with four consecutive hits. All were singles.
